YOU ALL HAVE A MISION

Dr. Scott Home.

SIMPSON'S BOY AND THE DOG.

A young boy, who was peeping over the top of the a gate, was surprised to find something that had been looking for around for weeks. He had been looking for a lost dog, and there it was right in front of him.

The dog was small and skinny, but it looked happy and healthy. The boy picked it up and carried it home, where he fed it and gave it love and attention.

Before long, the dog was back to its normal size and looked even happier. The boy was overjoyed to have found its new family. He named the dog

Simpson, after the family who had given him a home. From that day on, Simpson was the boy's best friend and was always by his side.
