VALUABLE INFORMATION CONCERNING POULTRY

When Starries Hens

Look out for the starry headed lhens, they are better than any other kind. The shell of the shell is the same color as the white of the egg, and they have a very rich flavor. They are also much cheaper than the ordinary kind. The Starry headed hen is also very prolific, laying eggs every day of the week. The Starry headed hen is a better egg layer than any other kind. The Starry headed hen is also much cheaper than the ordinary kind.

Marion's Elbow Dog

This is one such healthy and happy dog, the result of the Kennel, and a great favorite with the children. The dog is a very good guardian, and has been with its owner for many years. The dog is very intelligent, and is always ready to go with the owner on a hunt or a walk. The dog is also very good at catching mice and other small animals.

New Mottoes for Fall and Winter Wear

Brother Gardner Returns to New York

When the meeting had been opened following a few words of brotherly love and learning, brother Gardner was called on to speak. He said:

"When we meet as brethren, we do so with a heart full of love and a mind full of understanding. We are here to learn and to teach, to help and to be helped. We are brothers, and we should give each other the benefit of the doubt. We should not judge each other, but rather try to understand each other."

A votive picture illustrates the spirit of the meeting, and the motto: "Let your Yes be Yes, and your No be No." The meeting closed with brother Gardner's benediction, and the brethren adjourned.

In This and Next Week

Rutabagas

Rutabagas are a great storehouse of nutrition. They are rich in vitamins and minerals, and are a good source of fiber. They are also a good source of Vitamin C, which is important for the immune system. Rutabagas are also a good source of Vitamin A, which is important for vision and skin health.
