SIX PAGES

Several pertinent bits of interesting local history and current news.

The new tax, passed by the county commissioners, will add to the cost of many daily items in the neighborhood. The new tax is expected to raise the local property tax rate.

THE FARMER'S FRIEND

W. W. W. Weekly, in a recent issue, published an article by a local farmer that has been widely read. The article discusses the importance of proper soil management and the benefits of using organic fertilizers.

PREPARATIONS

There will be a special meeting of the farmers tomorrow, in which all will be invited to attend. The meeting will discuss the current state of the local farms and the challenges they face.

FARMER'S ASSOCIATION

The local Farmer's Association has been active in promoting the interests of local farmers. They will be holding a meeting tomorrow evening, open to all members.

CHRISTMAS CARD

From the local school, the Christmas card will be distributed to all patrons.

GOOD FAMILY PAPER

The local paper will be publishing a special Christmas edition, featuring stories and articles of interest to the local community.
