

LOCAL NEWS BREVITIES.

Corn planting will be late this season. The cherry and apple trees are in blossom. Glecke & Blum have purchased a new delivery horse. The Kempf dry goods store have fine show windows. The bride smiled and said I'm your sweet William. The flood-gates of heaven were surely open yesterday. Barefooted boys appeared before straw hats this season. All the saloon keepers took out liquor licenses this year. Workmen are very busy making repairs at the Goodyear-house. The boys have again begun an onslaught on the english sparrow. Clark brothers are building a large barn for Owen Scully, southwest of town. The Goodyear house register indicates that traveling men are out in large numbers. Men are at work framing timbers for the new flume for the Manchester roller mills. Rev. J. L. Case will preach at the universalist church next Sunday morning at 10:30. Jenter & Rauschenberger are showing some elegant and stylish furniture this season. B. F. Wade unloaded a carload of Empire binders a few days ago and they are all sold. Volume 33 of the official records of the war of the rebellion has been received at this office. Monday and Tuesday were pleasant days, warm and sunshiny, and everybody enjoyed them. S. C. Ruckman has hired George Bailey to assist him in rebuilding his house in East Manchester. Glecke & Blum have a changed advertisement this week. You will find it profitable reading. There will be a large amount of work done this season by way of painting and repairing buildings. Charley Rose and Frank Ryan caught some nice pickerel out of the upper pond last Saturday afternoon. Robison & Koebbe have some bargains to offer their patrons this week. Read their new advertisement. Nate Schmid and Wm. Arnold have been making some improvements at their Sand lake cottage this spring. The morning train on the Jackson branch yesterday had five coaches to carry passengers to Adrian's lot sale. Comstock post will meet Saturday evening to make arrangements for the proper observance of decoration day. Our friend Wait Peck of Sharon has kindly handed us a copy of the Times Record, published at Valley City, North Dakota. Those of our citizens who went to Ann Arbor to attend the republican banquet came home feeling that their money was well spent. On Thursday afternoon last James Yerdon took a large bell from the freight house here in Clinton to be hung in the catholic church. A gun club has been organized by the sports in the Hall neighborhood, south of town. The grounds are located on Wm. Clark's place. Why not all turn in and help the G. A. B. in the memorial exercises? We might as well have a good time as to let the day pass quietly. Brooklyn Exponent: Frank Fitzgerald has rented the rooms over Mrs. Crocker's on main street, where he and his father will reside in the future. Frank Tucker is a favorite here and our people will surely turn out in large numbers to hear his minstrels on Thursday evening next at Arbeiter hall. Those men who run traction engines should be careful how they run their engines on the highway without the precaution to send a man ahead to warn people. Rev. Ryan, the M. E. presiding elder of this district, has been invited to preach the baccalaureate sermon to the senior class of the high school, but has not yet accepted. The two jewelers got to running on clocks and in about two weeks they together sold upwards of 75, mostly nickle alarm clocks. The lowest price reached was 65 cents. Supervisor Bartles has about finished taking the assessment. It was a big job and we shall be sorry for the treasurer who will have to collect the taxes. He will earn his money. Old, young and middle aged citizens join in the sport of "bullheading" along the river evenings. There were no less than 25 anglers at one time on the lower pond Tuesday evening. T. E. Brown, president of the Washtenaw county agricultural society, was in town last Thursday soliciting advertisements for the premium list, 3,000 copies of which will be issued in July.

PERSONAL.

C. M. Fellows was in town Monday. G. A. Fausel went to Jackson today on business. Howard Macomber spent Sunday with friends here. James Kelly went to Ann Arbor on Monday night. Rev. J. L. Hudson of Detroit was in town Tuesday. Mrs. J. H. Hollis went to Jackson on Monday to visit friends. Mr. & Mrs. Elmer Cushman of Delhi Mills were in town this week. Miss Jennie Hollis went to Chelsea last Saturday to visit friends over Sunday. Mat D. Blosser has gone to Jackson and Ann Arbor to attend masonic schools of instruction. Mrs. John W. Patchin of Traverse City is visiting her parents, Mr. & Mrs. L. D. Watkins. Miss Minnie Stendel, who has been at Jackson the past three weeks, returned home yesterday. Frank Fitzgerald of Brooklyn was in town on Saturday, having just returned from Northville. F. M. Jewett, the cigar maker, has moved to Jackson where he will take charge of his father's shop. John Spafard was in Ann Arbor on Monday on business for the Washtenaw mutual insurance company. Mrs. Matilda Case and son Ed have been to Bridgewater keeping house for Hiram Welch the past week. J. H. Hollis, who was in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, over Sunday, has our thanks for copies of the Press. We learn that Charles Perkins intends to go to Toledo in a few weeks to work in the Lake Shore freight office. Mrs. A. D. Perkins of Toledo came here yesterday and her father, S. H. Perkins, Esq., accompanied her home. Mr. & Mrs. Fred Gaige of Ann Arbor are visiting relatives here this week. Mr. G. is a bustling life insurance agent. W. H. Ward, who lived on the "hop farm," and moved from there to Kansas, has gone to Arroyo Grande, California. Mrs. John Myers and son of Caro are visiting her mother and other relatives here. She says that her husband's health is not very good. C. H. Millen came home from Wolf Lake last Friday and has taken his grips and started out to visit the hardware dealers of the state. J. P. Lapham has had a bronchial trouble for a year or two and has gone to Ann Arbor for treatment. His many friends here sincerely hope for his recovery. C. M. Drake of Philadelphia arrived in town last Friday and left on Monday for a business trip through the west. Mrs. Drake will remain here until his return. We are pleased to learn that Miss Jennie L. Moore of Ypsilanti has returned from Ann Arbor, where she went for treatment, and is recovering her usual good health. The Winchester brothers, who lived at Allen for many years but who now reside, one at Elkhart, Indiana, the other at Chicago, were in town visiting friends and relatives last Friday. E. D. Main, our Wampler's lake correspondent, is a good fisherman as well as news gatherer, and he quite often remembers the editor and sends him living evidence of his skill in hooking the pickerel, bass or bluegill, for which we are very thankful. Harry Calhoun of Bridgewater is one of the happiest young men we know of. A few weeks ago he had the habit of stammering and his face was badly contorted when he attempted to converse. He went to an institution in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and came home entirely cured. Why should he not be happy? A copy of the Dowagiac Times of May 5, brings the news of the death of Mrs. Guy Rix at the residence of her son, Dr. T. G. Rix at Dowagiac. Many of our readers will remember her as a resident of this village some 30 years ago. Mrs. Rix was stricken with paralysis five years ago and has since been an invalid, a second stroke resulting in her death. She had been a widow for 13 years, her husband dying in 1879 in the 75th year of his age, and was buried in Riverside cemetery beside whom she was laid. Her descendants number 87, as follows: Eleven children, 44 grandchildren, 31 great grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. B. F. Rix of Kalamazoo, J. E. Rix of Lansing, Nathaniel Rix of Grand Rapids and Mrs. Caroline Jones of Allegan were present at the funeral of their mother. On Saturday, May 7, our townsman W. L. Watkins went to Lansing to assist in taking care of his brother Whitney, who is a student at the agricultural college but who has been sick for several weeks with the measles. Last Saturday his mother, who has been taking care of Whitney for several weeks, intended to come home for a little rest. She did not come but word was received that Willis had a sore throat, and the Detroit papers announced that he had developed a mild case of diphtheria and had been removed to the hospital. The Tribune said a singular feature of the case is that Watkins has not been near the dormitories in which the other victims roomed nor has he mingled with the other students during his stay at the college. It is now stated that Willis has not had the diphtheria, and is much better. Attention is called to the advertisement of Frank Merithew, agent for the Page wire fence. This is doubtless the fence of the future, and those intending to build will profit by consulting him. The ladies' quartette, who sang so sweetly at Prof. Clark's recital, have been invited to sing at the graduating exercises of the Saline union schools. They are also wanted here on the same evening. We hope that our bicycle riders will not form the habit of riding on the sidewalks. The streets and the roads are the places for them. People are very nervous when they meet one of these machines. The six knights of this village are most all calculating upon going to Denver in August. Adrian commandery will live in Pullman cars while the Ann Arbor knights have rented a house and will live in style. Most of our boys belong at Ann Arbor. The Adrian Daily Times boom edition yesterday was a credit to the city. Well, we could expect nothing else, as the Times is always a progressive and somewhat aggressive newspaper. It contained neat engravings of prominent public buildings, private residences and a few of the public men of the city. We learn that Wm. Brighton of this village, who was injured while in the employ of the Lake Shore company several years ago, and who has until lately held a position as target keeper and section hand, but who was discharged several months ago, is about to bring suit against the company for damages. Tom Nayin of Detroit is his attorney. Last Monday the Lake Shore company began running a freight train from Hillsdale to Ypsilanti and return daily as per petition by the people along the Ypsilanti branch. It is understood that the train will be tried for a time and if it pays expenses it will be made permanent. The company is mighty afraid that the public will find out that the train is put on. If they would advertise it they might get patronage. C. L. Dubuar of Chicago, a postmaster inspector, dropped in to see postmaster Nestell last Friday and looked over his office, books, etc. One thing that he found considerable fault with was the fact that a good many had not paid their box rent, and he gave the postmaster to understand that hereafter if the box rent was not paid within 10 days after due the mail must be put back in the general delivery boxes and the box marked for rent and let to the first applicant. The suit of Fred S. Schaubert vs. the Lake Shore R'y Co., was tried in the circuit court at Ann Arbor last week and resulted in a verdict for Schaubert of $900. It will be remembered that on May 31, 1890, Schaubert was in the employ of the company and while working on the track in this village he was struck by a car which was being shunted on to a side track. He was knocked down and had his right leg and left heel crushed and was laid up for ten months, for which he commenced suit for $10,000 damages. To free your-house from summer flies kill now in May all the ancestors of the coming flock. Every morning in the spring when the new flies seek the sunny window panes in each room, let someone go around with a wet cloth and kill them then and there. Each of the large torpid flies who come out from his hiding place window sash or book case, may lay 2,000 eggs, so the importance of destroying the head of the family in May, rather than go anxiously flapping after the whole tribe all through July and September, is easy to be seen. The wholesale jobbing firms of the country could not do business without the aid furnished by Bradstreet & Dan's report of firms throughout the country. They would not know who to sell goods to, who it would be safe to give even a day's credit. The retail dealer is often imposed upon by designing, dishonest or careless people, and great losses are met, often bringing merchants to financial ruin. During the past year the Merchant's Retail Commercial Agency of Chicago have established a branch here of which many of our merchants are members, and through this medium many poor accounts have been collected and members of the agency have been made acquainted, through printed reports furnished from all agencies in the United States, with the names of people who are not in the habit of paying their debts. A representative of the agency is here now reorganizing and securing new members to the agency. We presume that a vigorous onslaught will be made upon the delinquents. Chelsea, Clinton and Ann Arbor merchants are "in it."

SHARON.

F. D. Merithew has the agency for the sale of the Page wire fence in Sharon and Freedom. Frank Merithew has traded his span of colts with W. W. Hess of Clinton for a span of heavy horses. BRIDGEWATER. Wilbur Short is in better humor now that that refractory tooth is out. Mrs. Kate Fox, who has been sick at her mother's, Mrs. Katoer's, is able to visit her home in Tecumseh. George Rawson let the contract for building his house to a Saline man and is worrying considerably because the work has not been commenced. BRIDGEWATER STATION. Mrs. Wm. Stein is sick. Miss Mary Nisle is visiting friends in Saline. Oscar Blum spent Sunday with his brother Jacob in Manchester. Albert Westphal of Ann Arbor spent Sunday with his parents. Mr. & Mrs. Jacob Guthardt of Detroit spent Sunday with his parents. FREEDOM. John Alber is gaining slowly. John Huehl will build a fine residence this spring. Frank Dettling went to Ann Arbor on business last Thursday. Corn will be planted about two weeks later than usual this spring. We learn that Wm. Lutz, formerly of this place but of late bookkeeper for Geo. Lar-kins & Co., of Detroit, will be married to Miss Mary Haase of that city on Wednesday May 18. WAMPLER'S LAKE. Wheat in this section never looked better. There is no need of the rainmakers here this year. Miss Ida Holmes visited her cousin Miss Minnie Main a part of last week. Geo. Knowles has moved to Brooklyn and his son Herbert will work the farm. The rains have put back corn planting. But little ground is plowed for corn yet. Misses Maggie Blosser and May Henion of Manchester visited Miss Minnie Main last Saturday. NORVELL. The baptist Sunday school has received a new lot of books. Herman Mellenkamp is repairing his house on the Hildebrand farm. Miss Aggie Schaible came to A. J. Austin's Tuesday night to remain a few weeks. Miss Ella Knight gives an entertainment at the baptist church Wednesday night. She is highly recommended as an elocutionist. A number of our young people went to Brooklyn Tuesday night to attend a meeting of the local union of the christian endeavor society. NAPOLEON. Sylvester Riley lies critically ill with softening of the brain. Welders of the rod and line are catching fish in the adjacent lakes. Will Parke of Brooklyn has started his wagon out to furnish the farmers with fresh meat. Our late barber, Thomas Vreeland, Jr., was in town Saturday evening cleaning the faces of our townsmen. Cleaning house is the order of the day and one riding through the country hardly finds a house but that looks like the breaking up of a hard winter. IRON CREEK. John Egan has been quite sick. Farmers have begun planting corn. Mr. Henry Parrish is visiting relatives in this vicinity. Fishing on the lakes is a leading pastime for people of leisure. Mrs. L. M. Baldwin entertained relatives from Allen the past week. J. P. Lapham is in Ann Arbor being treated for a throat trouble. Looks as though that mission society is among the things that were. There is to be a church meeting Saturday afternoon, May 23, to elect trustees. Will Roastow, who had his leg fractured five weeks ago, is able to be about again. Miss Ethel Baldwin of Manchester spent Saturday and Sunday at L. M. Baldwin's. Masonic Society News. ANN ARBOR. Arthur M. Clark, grand lecturer F. & A. M. of Michigan, will hold a masonic school of instruction at masonic temple, Ann Arbor, tomorrow, Friday, May 20, which will be attended by the lodges in the county. In the evening the 3rd degree will be exemplified by Fraternity lodge. TECUMSEH. At a special communication of Tecumseh lodge No. 69 held Friday evening, May 13, Scove S. Walker was raised to a master mason. Special communication called for next Friday evening, May 20, for work in the 1st degree.

WEDDING BELLS.

On the evening of the 17th about 30 guests assembled at the home of Mr. & Mrs. F. J. Williams of this village, to witness the marriage of their daughter, Virginia, to Rev. James E. Butler of Kalkaska. The house was tastefully decorated with marsh marigolds and apple blossoms, the sweetest of May time flowers. At seven o'clock the bridal party appeared and by an impressive ceremony were united in marriage by Rev. Frank L. Moore, a brother-in-law of the groom. The bride was charming in pearl gray worn with similar and roses. After congratulations, elegant refreshments were served and the delightful evening closed with conversation and music. Amid a shower of rice Mr. & Mrs. Butler took the evening train for Jackson. There were many tasty and beautiful presents. The bride is one of Manchester's most highly esteemed young ladies. Mr. Butler is well known in congregational circles in southern Michigan as a promising young clergyman. A graduate of the high school of St. Johns L. U. pursued his studies at Olivet college and Chicago theological seminary. Their many friends join in wishing them joy. Wanted. If there is any attorney, real estate or insurance agent in this town who would like the agency for a thoroughly reliable loan association that guarantees prompt loans, write to F. H. Chase, Supt., Geneva, N. Y. References furnished from Michigan borrowers. Those who witnessed Frank Tucker's minstrels at Doherty's opera house on Thursday evening were happily surprised. The entertainment was refined and first-class in every particular, and maintains Tucker's reputation as a showman. The Clare Democrat-Press, April 1. At Arbeiter hall Thursday evening, May 26. The Manchester gun club will meet at N. W. Holt's office on Saturday evening to elect officers and transact other necessary business. Those who wish to hear good music and see lots of fun should go to Tucker's minstrels at Arbeiter hall on Thursday evening, May 26. Our new spring dress goods are now open. We shall be pleased to show them or to send samples. Anderson & Co. Mrs. S. Kaech has established a laundry at her house near Chas. Senger's with branch at Fausel's Union hall block. We have a new lot of union school tablets. Price, 15 cents, at the ENTERPRISE office. We have a fine line of school tablets at the ENTERPRISE office. OBITUARY.

Died, in Norvell on Monday, May 9, 1892, after a protracted illness, Mrs. Sarah Harris, relict of B. G. Harris, aged 71 years. The funeral was held at her late residence on Wednesday at 1 p. m., Rev. Wilson of Napoleon officiating. Sarah Spaulding was born in Wellstown, N. Y., Feb. 23, 1821. Was married to Burlin G. Harris Jan. 1, 1838, whom she survived about two years. They settled in Syracuse living there 25 years. In 1864 they moved to Michigan and lived in Grass Lake until the fall of 71 when they came to Norvell where they resided up to the time of their deaths. Mrs. Harris had been a member of the M. E. church for a great many years, a faithful, earnest christian. She leaves a family of four daughters and one son to mourn her loss. A faithful, loving mother has gone to her reward. Two of our painters have booked upwards of 85 jobs of painting, and some of these are big ones too.
