THURSDAY, JULY 21, 1932.

The most perilous falsehood which is dealt in by the supreme deceiver, the father of lies, are the falsehoods of the young.

There is no revival of the little and pay of lieutenant-general.

Man is a preying animal and delights in the blood of his kind.

Small minds cannot resist the inclination of insatiable curiosity to dig into the past.

Forrest when you close your ledger that bookkeeper made a mistake which cost you a hundred dollars.

And we wise in our strenuousness of endeavor? Or are we merely the luckless victims of a false system of education which sends us into the battle of life with no arms.

There is hardly another plant in the world which serves so many uses as the corn which is the staple of the farmer.

The families of the North are smaller than those of the South, not so much because of the lack of children, as because the younger members leave home at an early age.

FARM AND HOUSEHOLD.

A MISTAKE OFTEN MADE IN GROWING CURRANTS.

The Small Currant Worm—Infestation of the currant bushes.

Except in large nurseries and fields of currant bushes one generally finds most of the bushes infested with currant worms.

The remedy should be applied early in the spring when the first sign of a green sprout appears.

Generally the worms do not appear until the bushes have been growing in one place for a number of seasons.

It is well to note that the currant worm is not a pest of the currant bush.

There is a great deal of talk about the value of the corn which is the staple of the farmer.

THURSDAY, JULY 21, 1893.

Andrew Carnegie owns 18 english newspapers.—Philadelphia Ledger. That accounts for his great wealth.

At a session of the probate court Wednesday afternoon, Judge Lane decided that the Michigan Mutual benefit association should forfeit its charter and that the books, money and property of the association should be placed in the hands of a receiver, said receiver to give a bond approved by the court in the sum of $25,000. There are a number of aspirants to the office and it is difficult to say who will get the appointment. The court adjourned until the afternoon of July 25, when any other business in connection with the matter may be attended to.—Hillsdale Democrat.

Vice Presidential Candidate in Jackson.
Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, democratic nominee for vice president, passed through Jackson last evening on the fast express. The Citizen's telegraphic columns yesterday announced the fact that the eminent gentleman would be in Jackson on the 8:52 train. Quite a crowd of people, democrats mainly, with a few republicans, were at the depot prior to the coming of the train, and they waited some 20 minutes for the arrival, the fast express being behind that much. The train finally rolled into the station. Mr. Stevenson was in a private car in the rear, and the crowd formed about the side and end of the coach. Messrs. T. E. Barkworth, Robert Blake, C. H. Higdon and J. J. Toumey headed the assemblage. Mr. O'Donnell is a warm personal friend and old acquaintance of Mr. Stevenson, and was present to pay his respects to his distinguished friend. At the request of Mr. Barkworth Mr. O'Donnell preceded the Jackson men into the car, and the meeting of the two gentlemen was warm and cordial. Mr. O'Donnell presented the Jackson representatives and remarked, "General, I am your personal friend, I gladly come to greet you and pay my respects, and now leave you with your political friends." Gen. Stevenson replied, "No, no my good friend, please remain with us while we are here." The distinguished nominee was conducted to the platform where he was introduced by Mr. Barkworth. He was received with enthusiasm by the crowd, and in response to the calls for a speech, bowed his acknowledgements and thanked the assemblage for the welcome, and assured them he appreciated their courtesy. He then stepped back and engaged in conversation with those in the vicinity. William G. Ewing of Chicago was then introduced and briefly stated that in the cool of September he would be glad to come to Jackson and speak for tariff reform.

The train then moved off, the crowd evidencing their pleasant impression of the nominee by demonstrations of approval.

Mr. Stevenson is an agreeable, able and courteous gentleman, who enjoys the confidence and esteem of all who know him, without regard to party affiliations. During his four years as first assistant postmaster general under Cleveland he won many friends; those opposed to him politically hold him in high regard for his many admirable qualities.—Citizen.

Lenawee County

A reunion of the second Michigan Infantry will be held at Hudson, Thursday, Aug. 4. The veterans will have a business session in the afternoon and a banquet in the evening.

The executive committee of the Lenawee county agricultural society met at the office of George L. Bennett yesterday and arrangements were made for a line of improvements before the fair which occurs September 26-30, inclusive. The improvements will embody drainage on the grounds, and the possible erection of a new dining hall. Half rates have been secured on all railroads running into the city, which is a big feature, and there will likely be a 10 mile bicycle race added to the many attractions in amusements.—Times.

George Bailey, alias Charles W. Smith, who is charged with polygamy by Bettie Lair of Woodstock, was here from Homer, Calhoun county, this morning and appeared before Justice Robertson for examination. It is alleged that in 1865 he married Margaret Bartholomew at Clarendon, Calhoun county, and that he had five children by her. Then he married Bettie Lair of Woodstock without the formality of a divorce. Five children were the result of this marriage. Now it is claimed he is living with another woman near Homer. Justice Flint of Homer, who performed the first marriage and Rev. W. H. Smith of Napoleon, who tied him the second time, were both here and identified him. The examination was adjourned to September 15, and he is out on $500 bail.—Adrian Times.

Jackson County Items.

Grass Lake has a lady bicycle rider.

Postmaster Judson of Chelsea now gets a salary of $1,400 a year, $100 more than formerly.

The Fostoria buggy company of Ohio have filed their bond with the recorder for the lease of the old purifier building at Jackson and will at once prepare to move their entire plant to that city.

There was an incipient fire in the stable of E. J. Foster at Grass Lake four days after the fourth and the News editor thinks that it was caused by fireworks. That must be a slow town if it takes so long for a fire to get started.

Our friend Jacob Hazelschwerdt of Sharon went to Chelsea the other day to obtain some brandy and quinine for his wife who was ailing. On his way home he began to feel unwell and very properly took a pull at the brandy bottle to assist him in tiding over his bad feelings. He hadn't taken over half a dozen swallows before he smelt a mice. You see, brethren, that bottle contained some kind of liniment and as Mr. H. is a strong prohibitionist he feels hurt and sorter wired toward the stupid druggist who sold it to him.—Grass Lake News.

On Thursday of last week Charles B. Worden reached Grass Lake from Roscoe, Edmonds county, South Dakota. He made the trip of 1,000 miles overland with two covered wagons, one of which was driven by himself, the other by his son. His wife with two younger children came as far as Cherry Valley, Ill., by wagon, but as the weather was wet and disagreeable they finished their journey by rail. The family started May 30 and were 39 days on the road. They lost 23 days by bad weather, besides they didn't travel on Sundays. For three weeks it rained daily but they managed to move along at the rate of 25 miles a day (their usual average) in the mud. Their route lay 200 miles through Dakota and 300 miles across Minnesota. They crossed the Mississippi river and came to Wisconsin at La Crosse. They entered Chicago by Washington boulevard, the only highway unobstructed by water in that direction for a distance of ten miles. They had quite a mishap in the city. A wheel slid into a street car track at a crossing and was subjected to such a leverage in the endeavor to get it out as to cause it to collapse. The travelers halted long enough to look over the world's fair grounds and the buildings, and in leaving the city traveled quite a long distance through water a couple of feet deep which had overflowed that part of town as a result of cutting the dykes along the lake by some unprincipled person. On the last day they made 40 miles and got into Grass Lake just at twilight, very glad to see the end of their long journey. While en route they were treated with much kindness by the people, who cheerfully supplied them with milk, eggs, etc., and not a few would accept no pay in return. They said they had been there themselves. Mr. Worden went to Dakota in '83, and although they prospered there the climate did not suit them, besides they wished to return and once more live among their own kind folks and old acquaintances. All are glad to welcome them back.—Grass Lake News.

He Should Drink Better Whiskey.

Among the many who visit the club houses on the banks of the lakes near Hamburg Junction are two well-known citizens of Ann Arbor, one an old experienced fisherman, the other, his young friend, who is rather a novice in the art. Under promise of secrecy as to names, the older fisherman related an experience that his friend recently had. They had had their supper and the older gentleman was lying on the grass near the boat house enjoying a quiet smoke. His young friend had gone out rowing on the lake. The gentleman had almost gone to sleep when he heard the boat dash against the dock and his young friend rushed up the bank, his hair standing straight up and his face colorless. All he could say was "Mein Himmel, Mein Himmel!" After becoming more composed, he related rather incoherently that he had been rowing near some rushes when all at once he heard a peculiar sound and looking saw a sight that chilled his blood to the very marrow of his bones. An animal, the like of which he had never seen before, was approaching him. An enormous head, something like that of an alligator, with eyes as large as hen's eggs was glaring at him. Its body seemed to be on the serpent order and was as large around as that of a very stout man. It had fins that were as large as the paddles of revolving fans. After the first shock of the sight was over, he gave a wild yell that seemed to frighten the monster so much that it turned to one side. This gave the young man sufficient courage to row for the shore. The old gentleman who related the story said that perhaps his young friend's imagination had been unduly excited, but that there is a tradition that many years ago an unknown animal haunted the lakes. Nothing has been heard of it for years, but this incident will probably revive the story.—Washenaw Times.

"THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN LIMITED," AND "THE BIG 5."

Two Grand Trunk Daily Between the World's Fair City and the Foot-hills.

One Night Out or One Day Out. Take Your Choice. Business Demands It, and the People Must Have It.

The popularity of the "Great Rock Island Route" as a Colorado line—it having a long time since taken first place as the people's favorite between the lakes and the mountains—has compelled the management to increase its present splendid service by the addition of a train that is one night on the road from Chicago to Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo. This train will be known as the "Rocky Mountain Limited," and will be put in service May 1st. Leaves Chicago daily at 10:45 a. m., arriving in above cities in the afternoon of next day, earlier than any of its competitors. Especial equipment has been built for this train, with the view of making it a limited in every sense of the word, and best of all, there will be no extra charge. The route of this exceedingly fast train is by the Rock Island Short Line, and a few of the large cities through which it passes are Des Moines, Davenport, Council Bluffs, Omaha, Lincoln, Beatrice, Fairbury, Belleville, Phillipsburg, Smith Center, Colby and Goodland. This makes it a very desirable route, and particularly interesting to the traveler. Another point: The popularity of our dining car service is on the increase, and no money spared to make this service what our patrons always say, "the best."

Our "Big 5" will continue as usual, leaving Chicago at 10 p. m., and arriving at Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo the second morning, being but one day out, and this fast and popular train goes through Omaha.

Our No. 11 will leave as heretofore at 8 p. m., arrive at Kansas City at 9 a. m., and will reach Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo the second morning.

Our Colorado service is made perfect by this new Rocky Mountain Limited and the Big 5, and gives to the traveling public two flyers daily.

Manitou passengers should consult the map and time tables of our line, to fully appreciate the advantages in time saved by taking this route, when on their summer vacation. JOHN SEBASTIAN, G. T. & P. A., Chicago.

THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN LIMITED," AND "THE BIG 5."

Two Grand Trunk Daily Between the World's Fair City and the Foot-hills.

One Night Out or One Day Out. Take Your Choice. Business Demands It, and the People Must Have It.

The popularity of the "Great Rock Island Route" as a Colorado line—it having a long time since taken first place as the people's favorite between the lakes and the mountains—has compelled the management to increase its present splendid service by the addition of a train that is one night on the road from Chicago to Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo. This train will be known as the "Rocky Mountain Limited," and will be put in service May 1st. Leaves Chicago daily at 10:45 a. m., arriving in above cities in the afternoon of next day, earlier than any of its competitors. Especial equipment has been built for this train, with the view of making it a limited in every sense of the word, and best of all, there will be no extra charge. The route of this exceedingly fast train is by the Rock Island Short Line, and a few of the large cities through which it passes are Des Moines, Davenport, Council Bluffs, Omaha, Lincoln, Beatrice, Fairbury, Belleville, Phillipsburg, Smith Center, Colby and Goodland. This makes it a very desirable route, and particularly interesting to the traveler. Another point: The popularity of our dining car service is on the increase, and no money spared to make this service what our patrons always say, "the best."

Our "Big 5" will continue as usual, leaving Chicago at 10 p. m., and arriving at Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo the second morning, being but one day out, and this fast and popular train goes through Omaha.

Our No. 11 will leave as heretofore at 8 p. m., arrive at Kansas City at 9 a. m., and will reach Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo the second morning.

Our Colorado service is made perfect by this new Rocky Mountain Limited and the Big 5, and gives to the traveling public two flyers daily.

Manitou passengers should consult the map and time tables of our line, to fully appreciate the advantages in time saved by taking this route, when on their summer vacation. JOHN SEBASTIAN, G. T. & P. A., Chicago.

A COMFORTER.

Forrest with the trials of a dismal day, that set down to read at God and man.

AN ILL WIND.

Denhard's Roman Circus Greek Hippodromes and Oriental Caravans started out very much handicapped in the spring.

Forrest Marsh, the press agent was one of the advance men who remained in Denhard's employ, not so much from choice as from necessity.

For nearly three months the manager stood the strain with a bold front but the anxiety was telling on him, and when he received a visit from the printer, who was importunate for funds he felt that the end had come.

Then came to an end Denhard's Roman Circus Greek Hippodrome and Oriental Caravan, and all of the agents in advance were notified of the disaster by wire.

Philosophic and bohemian Forrest Marsh was shaken when he received the news as he was penniless and awkwardly placed.

It was a dull place to be hanging about in for days. The majority of the inhabitants were Germans and the hotel at which he was stopping was combined with a mill.

Forrest-Marsh had another annoyance besides the delay. On his arrival his finances were in a low state, and when the telegram from his manager arrived informing him of the end he was bankrupt.

He examined his railroad pass and made a discovery which quite took his breath away. It did not call for a return trip.

Marsh's long stay at the hotel had been a surprise to its proprietor. But the show was billed, and other agents and the bill posters and programmers had come and gone, else the landlord would have long before called on the sojourner for an explanation or a settlement.

When the press agent did make an explanation, as he was forced to, the German fairly exploded and filled the air with a mixture of oaths rarely heard, even in the tavern or the mill in his wildest mood.

As the boss's good humor grew, Forrest Marsh gained in the stern, old Dutchman's good graces, and being ready and willing and apt besides, he proved so useful to the jailor—not employer—that one day he heard the father remark to the daughter:

HOLD UP YOUR HANDS.

WORKED THE BRAKE. Boyce slipped down in the boot and drove the horses forward in a kneeling posture.

It was not long before it was Forrest here and Forrest there all over the place. Forrest could do anything; everybody wanted him, and never was there a more willing helper than the factotum.

On the night of the robbery there were three persons on the stage one passenger named Suhr, the express messenger, Montgomery, and myself.

It requires an immense amount of time and patience to teach a horse the tricks with which he astonishes an audience. Take for instance the finding of the handkerchief, that has always surprised children since the first circus took the road.

Then a handkerchief was introduced and more time was consumed before he could get it into his mouth, more time still for him to understand that he must pick it up from the ground, and then came the burying of the handkerchief and the finding of it, which invariably awakens enthusiasm.

Three or four mounds of sand are formed and the handkerchief is buried in one. The whip leads the horse to all of them in succession and remains by the last one and so the horse is told that the handkerchief is there.

Practically everything is done by touch. In this pretty stepping that a horse does every time he is on his back every move is directed by the rider's heel on one side or the other.

There is one good thing about a horse—he never forgets any thing, and he is always looking for a reward, if that reward partakes of the character of something good to eat.

Worse Than Horse Races. Blinkers—Why is it that your friend Winkers is always down at the heels? Does he lose his money on horse races? He never bet on a horse race.
