FELL TO HER DEATH.

GENTLE CAMINO, THE DARING LADY BALDWINIST KILLED.

While making an attempt to avoid a collision against the high rocks and fall over 100 feet—a fatal accident.

Gentle Camino, the pretty Venetian lady who has been a great favorite with the tourists, and who left the county to start some beautiful running track for the amusement of the tourists, was drowned on the 1st of September at the age of 30.

She was en route to the house of her friend, Mr. R. K. Davis, in the town of Sleepy Hollow, when she fell into the river and was drowned.

The body was recovered by the police and is now in the process of being removed to the city of New York.

FROM EVERYWHERE.

AN ENCOURAGING SIGN.

A new and more hopeful sign has been given to the people of this country by the recent visit of Mr. John D. Rockefeller, to the city of New York.

He has been seen at several of the leading hotels and has made inquiries about the current conditions of the country.

It is believed that he will soon announce an important message to the people of the country.

NEWS IN GENERAL.

BUFFALO STRIKE ENDED.

The strike at the Buffalo Steel Mills was ended by an agreement between the company and the workers.

The agreement provides for an increase in wages and a reduction in the hours of work.

INTERESTING EVENTS CURRENTLY.

The President was in New York last week, where he met with the leaders of the labor movement.

He is believed to have discussed the current strikes and labor problems during his trip.

THE IRON HALL MIDDLE.

A new and important development has been made in the iron and steel industry in this country.

A new and important development has been made in the iron and steel industry in this country.

A CROWDING CHURCH ON FIRE.

A most tragic and distressing incident occurred last week in the city of New York, where a large number of people were killed and many others were injured in a fire that swept through a crowded church.

The church was on fire for several hours, and many lives were lost.

A GENTLEWOMAN IN THE FIRE.

A gentlewoman who was attending a meeting in the church was killed in the fire.

She was a favorite of the people of the city and was greatly liked.

W. H. G. Theogles, William Lowry, and William D. Smith, of the firm of "Lowry & Company," were killed in the fire.

William L. Corson, of the firm of "Lowry & Company," was killed in the fire.

He was a well-known and respected citizen of the city and was greatly liked.

The fire was caused by a spark that fell from a lamp, and the church was quickly surrounded by a dense sea of flames.

The flames raged unchecked for several hours, and the people were left to their own fate.

When the window were opened to permit the escape of the crowded mass of people, the flames were immediately driven out, and the church was quickly surrounded by a dense sea of flames.

The flames were quickly put out, and the church was safely cleared of all the people.

The cause of the fire was investigated, but it was not determined what caused the explosion.

The fire was a most tragic and distressing incident, and the people of the city are deeply grieved at the loss of life and property.