AROUND THE STATE.

NEWS OF WHAT IS GOING ON IN OUR OWN STATE.

The Michigan Crop Report as Compiled by the Correspondents of the State Department—Wheat Tar and Feather's S'nal Minister—Sailing Accident.

Wheat sowing was delayed this fall by the dry weather that prevailed previous to the middle of September. The rains that began on the 12th of that month placed the ground in condition that it could be worked, and wheat was sown from this time on until near the middle of October. The area sown this year compared with average sowing in 1892 is estimated as follows: Southern counties, 75 per cent; central counties, 77 per cent; northern counties, 91 per cent, and state 77 per cent. The reduction in area here indicated is not greater than it was reasonable to expect, and is due in part to low prices, and in part to the dry weather. Wheat is doing fairly well. It is small because late sowed, but is yet growing, and but little damage has been done by insects. Compared with vital statistics for the average years the average condition is as follows: Southern counties, 88 per cent; central, 90 per cent; northern, 98 per cent, and state 89 per cent.

Corn in the southern counties is estimated to yield 41 bushels of ears per acre, in the central 54, of the north 61, and the state 47. The average yield of corn in the state for a long series of years is about 50 bushels of ears. The average of clover seed harvested in the state is seven-tenths of an average. Potatoes are estimated to yield as follows: Southern counties, 54 per cent; central, 62 per cent; northern, 68 per cent, and the state, 57 per cent of an average crop.

The condition of live stock is rather below the condition one year ago, the averages, however, are all above 90 per cent. The statistics of land in farms in May of this year, as shown by returns made by supervisors, are as follows: Total number of farms in the state, 141,235; acres of improved land, 8,396,022; acres of unimproved land, 4,377,877; average size of farms, 90.02 acres.

Tar and Feathers for a Preacher. A mob of nearly 200 men, equipped with a tar and feather outfit, camped on the trail of Rev. P. Born, Lutheran preacher at Cardon. His absence from the place was all that saved him from a thorough dressing. Born has been the Lutheran preacher at Maybee for four or five years past. Recently he has been paying considerable attention to his flock. His name is Hochschuler. Last July the latter forbade Born his house, declaring that he had found the preacher in his wife's bedroom. Hochschuler's friends took up the matter and sent word to the pastor that he had a coat of tar and feathers if he did not improve his conduct. This had no effect, and 200 men, armed with several buckets of tar and several well-filled pillows, met just at midnight and proceeded toward the preacher's house. A scout sent out ahead found that the bird had fallen, and the mob separated after agreeing to finish the program later.

He Simply Walked Out. George Russell, from Detroit on a five years' sentence for robbery, escaped from the Jackson prison. Armed with a stolen pass he boldly walked through the big gate on the east side, and proceeded toward the Chamberlain's order not to pass anyone on foot through that gate. Gate Keeper Harrington thought he was one of Withington & Cooley's men. Several hours elapsed after Russell's departure before the prison authorities knew he had got out of the pen. Several hours later Russell was captured at Hanover, 12 miles away, and returned to prison. The hat, blouse and overalls worn by Russell and the small bag containing the keys, which he carried, were the property of the Withington & Cooley contract. Gate Keeper Harrington has been suspended pending an investigation. He was appointed by Warden Davis.

Drowned While Sailing. Fred Weyers, of Port Huron, and a man named Scott, of Sarnia, were out sailing on the river in a small boat. They were in the rapids when the swirls of the tug C. D. Thompson overtook the boat, striking both men into the water. The tug succeeded in rescuing Scott, but Weyers had drifted too far away for the tug to reach him before he went down the third time. Weyers was a printer, 24 years of age. He leaves a widow and a baby less than a year old.

Boy Killed While Hunting. Cyrus Wilhelmson and Fred Reeves, aged 14 years, and Bert Van Wormer were out hunting three miles from Milan. They had run a mink into a brush heap, and Wilhelmson leaped his gun against a log and climbed the brush to scare it out. He then reached for his gun from the opposite side of the log, grasped it by the muzzle, and in reaching it into the hammer caught and the gun was discharged, shooting him through the heart, killing him almost instantly.

One Miner Killed, One Injured. Richard West was instantly killed at the West Vulcan mine, at Norway, operated by the Penn Iron Mining company. His partner, Edward Barrett, was seriously hurt, losing one eye, and getting many bad cuts on the head and body. They were blasting and had trouble to start a fuse when one of the holes discharged. Both parties are well-known miners.

All poor school children of Kalamazoo will be vaccinated free of charge. Thomas and Victoria Bell, of Concord, have agreed to live apart, and have quit claimed all interest in each other's property, and fled the deeds with the register of deeds for Jackson county.

Mrs. Joseph Poppewell, living near Port Huron, was holding her baby in her arms when she warmed a cloth soaked with turpentine over the stove. It caught fire, as did the clothes of the mother and child, and both were terribly burned. The baby will die.

AROUND THE STATE.

LET'S BE THANKFUL.

Gov. Rich issues the Usual Proclamation for Observing Thanksgiving. Gov. Rich has issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation. To the people of the State of Michigan, greeting: In pursuance of a time-honored custom, I do hereby appoint Thursday, November 30, as a day of thanksgiving for that abundance and the blessings which He has bestowed upon the people of this commonwealth during the present year. You are requested to abstain from all labor and business, except of necessity and charity, and to assemble in your respective places of worship for the proper observance of the day and occasion. In the preparation of those joyous family gatherings, around the tables supplied with the luxuries of all climes, do not fail to remember in a substantial manner the needy, sick, and afflicted, that they, too, may have reasons for thanksgiving. Let the day be so observed that all may have cause for thanksgiving, those who have an abundance, for that abundance and the privileges of aiding those who want, and those who want for the generous giving.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the state at the capitol in Lansing, this 25th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1893, and of the independence of the United States the 11th. JOHN T. RICH, Governor. JOHN W. JOHNSON, Secretary of State.

In Wild and Woolly Saguaw. A large black bear that has probably wandered from his haunts in distant woods, is now making himself perfectly at home among the long marsh grass near the Washington street residence of the Saginaw County wealthy citizens. The pedestrian beside a loaded street car the other night in plain sight of the conductor and seven passengers, finally disappearing from view. He saved the garage man considerable work, as he pays nocturnal visits to the household collection of potato peelings and other refuse, keeping under cover during the day. A bear hunt is one of the immediate possibilities.

Jack Butler, the first of the Mineral Range train robbers to come to trial at Houghton pleaded guilty and was sentenced to prison for five years. Before sentence was passed Judge Hale stated to the jury that he had been convicted by a jury the sentence would have been 20 or 25 years. The prisoner afterwards expressed himself to his attorney as being well satisfied with having gotten off with such a light sentence.

Has the Canisteo Gone Down? Light cabin wreckage and a water tank marked "Steamer Canisteo" came ashore here at Mackinac Island. There was a northwest snow storm during the night and it is believed an accident has happened in the straits. The Canisteo is owned by Charles Weston, of Tonawanda, N. Y. It is a propeller of 365 tons burden and was built in Mt. Clemens in 1884.

The Lansing Electric Railway company has filed a chattel mortgage on its line and rolling stock of $161,345.13, which was given to the Continental Trust company of New York to cover indebtedness of that city.

The Trussott Boat company of Benton Harbor, is building a yacht tender, 16 feet long and 4 feet beam. For Claus Spreckley, the famous sugar king. The company are also building a yacht to go to Florida.

A 17-year-old son of Walter Harvey of Millington, threw a loaded cartridge into the stove. Later in the evening the stove exploded, tearing her eye out and totally destroying the sight.

William Lewis, an aged and much respected farmer living near Capac has become mentally deranged, and has attempted suicide several times. The death of his wife and a stroke of paralysis have brought him to this point.

Mrs. C. A. Britt, aged 67 years, was found dead in her room at Grand Rapids. The servant went to call her and found her body upon the floor. She had evidently risen to get a drink of water and was stricken suddenly.

Fire, probably originating from her machinery, completely destroyed the steam barge Lowell at her dock at St. Clair. No lives were lost, but the tug barely escaped in her night clothes. Loss about $15,000, with no insurance.

Rev. Thomas E. Barr was forced to resign from the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church of Kalamazoo last fall because of a disagreement. He answered a call at Racine, Wis., but has just accepted a call from the First Congregational church of Kalamazoo.

Paul Wilhelmson and August Seifert of Albion, indulged in a drunken quarrel. Neither was badly hurt, but later in the evening, as the former was passing Seifert's house on his way home, Seifert knocked him down with a club, jumped on his body, and the fallen man pulled a knife and stabbed Seifert, inflicting fatal wounds. Frank Wilson, who was found unconscious by the side of the Michigan Central railroad track at Battle Creek, has died. A postmortem examination showed that there was a rupture of the membrane and engorgement of vessels and clots in the tissue of the base of the brain, resulting in semi-consciousness and then death. Probably a murder.

WE GIVE UP HAWAII.

A LETTER FROM SECRETARY OF STATE GRESHAM To President Cleveland in Which He Says the Queen Should be Restored to the Throne—The President Concides—Minister Thurston says It Means War.

Wants to Give the Queen Her Throne. A letter addressed to President Cleveland by Secretary Gresham has been given out for publication. The secretary reviews in detail the facts leading up to the revolution in Hawaii on January last and takes the ground that the marines landed from the United States steamer Boston at the time of the revolution were not landed to protect American life and property, but to aid in overhauling the existing government. Their very presence, he said, implies coercive measures against it. The provisional government was established by the action of the American citizens and the presence of troops landed from the Boston and its continued existence is due to the belief of the Hawaiians that if they made an effort to overthrow it they would encounter the armed forces of the United States. He cites much evidence in support of his position and says that Mr. Blount's report and from the report of Mr. Stevens to sustain his views.

Mr. Gresham quotes Minister Stevens' reports of the revolution, and also a communication from the queen to the president at that time, based upon Mr. Stevens' reports. Mr. Foster said: "At the time the provisional government took possession of the government building, no troops of officers or enlisted men were present to look part whatever in the proceedings. No public recognition was accorded to the provisional government by the United States minister until after the queen's abdication, and when they were in effective possession of the government building, the archives, the treasury, the barracks, the police station, and all the potential machinery of the government."

Similar language is found in an official report addressed to Secretary Foster on February 3 by the special commissioner sent to Washington by the provisional government to negotiate a treaty of annexation. Mr. Gresham then quotes Mr. Blount's report at length, and states his conclusion that these statements are utterly at variance with the evidence, documentary and oral, contained in Mr. Blount's reports.

James Hyde Pratt, of Albany, N. Y., who loses of his real estate interests in the Hawaiian Islands for over 30 years, had an interview with President Cleveland, in which he attempted to show the president that Mr. Gresham was wrong in his position. He then requested the accuracy of the statements that Minister Stevens and Capt. Witte had been instrumental in serving the revolutionists, and that the success of the revolution was dependent upon the aid they rendered it. They had a meeting on the 10th inst., and were authorized by Secretary Hayard in instructions to Minister Merrill in July, 1887, for guidance in a similar period of disorder.

The president closed the interview by saying that he had absolute faith in the accuracy of all conclusions drawn by Secretary Gresham, and that Minister Stevens and Capt. Witte had committed an act of usurpation and done a wrong to a helpless power, which it was the duty of the United States government to undo.

Minister Lorria A. Thurston, of Hawaii, in speaking of the action of the administration in this matter said: "I do not hesitate to reiterate what was said last February, that American troops took no part in the movement, and that the revolution was initiated by the late queen and forced upon the people of Hawaii, who in self-defense took action, terminating a condition that had existed since the first century and which was no longer tolerable. The claim of the provisional government is that, regardless of the method of how it got there, it is today the only government in Hawaii, recognized at home and abroad, and that any attempt to forcibly overturn it by a foreign power is in the nature of a war against a friendly government, which, as I understand, requires the consent of congress."

The monarch cannot be restored except by force from without, and if that supporting force is withdrawn it will be forthwith overthrown. It will be no safety for those who have supported the provisional government if the queen is restored to the throne. An attempt is made I fear that the results will be of the gravest character. I believe that bloodshed will be the inevitable result in which Americans, American property and American interests will be the sufferers."

Ex-Minister to Hawaii Stevens said: "The position to which Secretary Gresham has seen fit to commit himself is so extraordinary, so void of a real foundation of truth, so calumnious of the living and the dead, that I have no extended reply to make at this time. The way the United States minister and the officers of the Boston district charged their responsibilities at Honolulu in January last was more than covered by Secretary Hayard's instructions, approved by President Cleveland on July 12, 1887. Secretary Gresham has allowed his party prejudices and animosities to raise an issue, which congress, a full sifting of facts, and an intelligent public opinion will determine justly."

The San Francisco Chronicle calls Commissioner Blount's work in Honolulu a "farious investigation."

The executive council of the Osage nation in Indian Territory has ordered all Negroes off their reservation under penalty of receiving 50 lashes.

Senator S. Parker, a prominent Toledo, O. man died of a broken heart—literally severed into two distinct parts—grieving over the disgrace of his son, arrested for forgery.

William Haught and Allen Stevenson became engaged in an altercation over some trivial discussion at Pittsburg and before it was ended both were fatally wounded with knives.

Dr. P. A. McKinney, of Indianapolis, was calling upon some lady friends who were sympathizing with him on his being rejected by a lady he loved when suddenly he drank from a phial of prussic acid and fell dying at the ladies' feet.

AROUND THE STATE.

TARIFF IS A TEASER.

The Ways and Means Committee of the House Has a Hard Row to Hoe. Washington dispatch: It appears that the chief embarrassment of the ways and means committee of the House is to come not from articles upon which the specific and ad valorem duties are to be reduced, but from the articles proposed to be put on the free list. It had been generally accepted up to quite recently that the Democratic party was united on the proposition of putting coal, wool, iron ore, salt and lumber on the free list, but the latest developments have indicated that this is not the case. Mr. Calderon and other Texas members have already sounded their opposition to free wool, and they are likely to receive substantial encouragement from Ohio members, and the representatives of the grazing states of the west. Several of the Alabama representatives are protesting against the proposition to place iron ore and coal on the free list. The extensive lumber states, both of the south and west, are almost a unit in opposing free lumber. The Michigan members will probably oppose free salt to a man, as it is stated that even Mr. Whiting, of the ways committee, will contend that the effect of placing salt on the free list would be to give the English salt manufacturers a monopoly of the American market, and close up the American work. Altogether, the lot of Mr. Wilson and his colleagues of the ways and means committee is not a happy one.

On another page of this issue is an exhaustive article on the treatment and cure of consumption. The subject has lately been brought to the attention of the press of the entire country as a result of the action of the Michigan Board of Health in declaring consumption a contagious disease, and recommending isolation of affected persons to special hospitals erected for the purpose, should other means of health follow the example of the Michigan body, it seems impossible to measure what the consequences would be. The New York Recorder, actuated by that spirit which should pervade every editorial sanction, carried a ward of $1,000 to any physician effecting a cure for consumption. The offer was promptly accepted by Dr. W. R. Amick, of Cincinnati, who had already distinguished himself by curing some patients selected by the Cincinnati Post newspaper. The management of the Recorder selected 10 patients in various stages of consumption. The article referred to tells the story of Dr. Amick's success and of the payment of the $1,000 reward.

Dr. Amick shows not only his willingness but his great desire to have his treatment impartially tested before any money for the medicines has been expended by the doctor. He offers to send to all local physicians, regardless of school or code of creed, test packages of his medicines sufficient to show just what results will be produced in each case. The fact that these outfits are only sent to the patient through his or her physician is a guarantee that they will stand the test to which they may be subjected by medical experts. Dr. Amick is willing to let each physician and each patient judge as to whether he has accomplished what he claims. There is already the testimony of physicians and patients who have found reasons for endorsing the discovery. In the face of such evidence of its worth there can be but little hesitancy in pronouncing the discovery a great boon to suffering humanity and therefore of incalculable benefit to the whole human race.

A Rapid Sea Hover. The new commerce destroyer Columbia was sent on a preliminary trial spin over the government course from Cape Ann, Mass., to Cape Porpoise, Maine, with the most gratifying results. Under forced draught she developed a speed of 23.87 knots per hour and under natural draughts 20.2 knots.

The schooner school at Coopersville, near Hartford, N. Y., caught fire shortly after recess, and was entirely destroyed. Miss Porter, the teacher, and two little boys were cremated. There were 30 children in the building. The others escaped with burns and bruises. An overloaded stove set the place on fire. Miss Porter could have saved herself, but remained behind to get the children out, and fell into the flames while trying to save the two children, who were burned with her.

Teacher and Two Pupils Burned to Death. Mrs. Maybrick Dying. Rev. John Ingraham, rector of Grace church, St. Louis, received a letter from Baroness Caroline von Roque, in which she states that she has learned of the death of her daughter, Mrs. Florence Maybrick, who was convicted of poisoning her husband, is dying in Working prison, England. The Baroness speaks hopefully of securing her daughter's liberty. The Baroness expects to bring her to America on her release.

THIRTY KILLED BY BOMBS.

Anarchists Throw Two Dynamite Bombs into a Crowded Theater. The Liceo Theater, Barcelona, Spain, was filled with a large audience, estimated to have numbered close on to 4,000 people. While the performance was proceeding two dynamite bombs were suddenly hurled from one of the galleries into the midst of the stalls on the floor. One of the dynamite bombs exploded with a terrible report, which shook the theater to its foundations and which started a mad and destructive stampede upon all sides. The second bomb, happily, did not explode. The terrified crowd, fearing that another bomb might be thrown into their midst, completely lost all sense of concert and regularity. From that time on seemed to vanish and there was a mad, hustling rush for the doors, men and women fiercely fighting with each other as they crushed weaker ones beneath their feet in the effort to escape, leaving the wounded and dying behind them.

When the wreckage was in some degree cleared away there were found 10 dead bodies, of which seven were those of men and nine the corpses of women. Three bodies of those trampled upon were also found. Later reports say: The second act of the opera had just commenced when the bombs were thrown. Fifteen persons were killed instantly and 15 others have since succumbed. Eighty persons are in a serious condition, some of them from injuries and others from fright. Maurice Doldani, an Italian, one of the 15 or 20 suspects arrested, has confessed to throwing the bombs.

FOUR DEATHS IN THE FOG.

Two Hoeking Valley Trains Collide a Short Distance From Toledo. A south bound passenger train crashed into a north bound freight on the Hoeking Valley railroad, 30 miles from Toledo, Ohio, on Wednesday. The collision was due to the disobedience of orders on the part of the engineer of the freight. A heavy fog prevailed at the time and obscured the vision of the passenger engineer. Four were killed outright, both engineers, the passenger fireman and the brakeman, all of Toledo. The porter of the sleeper was standing near the front door, and the force of the shock drove him through the glass. He was extricated from his position without a scratch. None of the passengers were injured.

Both engines were reduced to a mass of shapeless iron, and the baggage car was smashed to splinters. The smoker was also badly damaged and a number of freight cars were wrecked.

Anarchists Laud Their Dead. Services in commemoration of the death of the Chicago anarchists—Spies, Parsons, Lingg, Fischer and Engel—were held at the monument erected to their memory in Waldheim cemetery, in spite of a heavy rain, from which a cold rain fell steadily throughout the day. The services at the graves were attended by nearly 2,500 persons. The occasion was made notable by the fact that Samuel Fielden, Michael Schwab and Oscar Neesbe, the quarrelsome ex-prosecuted anarchists, who were sentenced to Joliet for life, but pardoned recently by Gov. Altgeld, were present at the grave, two of them—Fielden and Schwab—being the orators of the day. The names of Schwab and Neesbe were read and they were each made no more anarchistic speeches, but they made them, nevertheless.

Weekly Review of Trade. NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—R. G. Dunn & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: "The turn of the tide has come and the economic situation has been a distinct improvement in business and particularly in manufacturing. There is some reason to believe that the question is fast definitely out of the way and the business has been more active. The outlook is brighter and the market has been more active. The question is fast definitely out of the way and the business has been more active. The outlook is brighter and the market has been more active."

The treaty ratifications have been exchanged between Secretary Gresham and Minister Gripp, representing respectively the United States and Sweden and Norway.

A gas motor exploded in a street railway barn on the north side, Chicago. Ten other motors also exploded, and the fire which followed burned the barns and 40 street cars. Damage $100,000.

The conference at Cleveland of liberal ministers of the Presbyterian faith resulted in a declaration to stand for their rights against the strictly orthodox brethren.

The Ferris wheel at the World's Fair carried 1,433,011 people during the five months of its exhibition, and after all indebtedness was paid there was $120,000 for the stockholders.

A terrible boiler explosion occurred at Hooks, Tex., and the resulting explosion of the Hooks Lumber company's mill. Three men were killed and six severely injured. The mill had just started after a shut-down of several weeks.

Frauds are frequent and many simple people are easily gulped by shrewd swindlers who prey upon their credulity. Here is a sample. In an advertisement a Reading young man sent a dollar for a recipe to cure warts. The recipe came but the reader was told to "keep your mouth shut."

Death has claimed another victim in the person of John Newman, of Norwich, N. Y., one of the people injured in the collision of the 11.35 a. m. train with the Central train at the Michigan Central bridge. There have been filed claims for damages against the Michigan Central for the loss of the life of Newman, and it is expected that the state will file a claim against the Michigan Central, in addition to the large number filed here. These injuries in the wreck will in the city, are attending rapidly, and in no case are serious consequences apprehended. Several are talking of returning home, but no time has been set as yet.

Lon-pull-out
It is an ordinary word used to designate the only log (ring) which cannot be pulled off the wood.

Here's the idea
The log has a groove cut into it, and the ring is pulled into the groove, and the log is pulled out of the wood.

It positively prevents the loss of the log, and is a great help to the woodman.
