Lonis Convict Steals 15 Bedroom Suits
from the Prison and then Disappears—Serious Accident at a McKinley Celebration at Muskegon.

Stole 15 Bedroom Suits from Prison. A big robbery has been discovered in the Lonis prison which has set the officials of that institution wild. About four years ago Minor Ingalls was convicted in Grand Rapids of forgery and sent to Lonis for a term. He had formerly been employed in a local freight house, and at the prison he was placed in charge of the shipping department. After serving half his term he was released on parole, being the first man to go under the parole system. His time expired last March, and no one knows where he is now. Shortly after, in checking furniture at the factory, it was discovered by the prison officials that 15 suits, valued at $200, were missing. An investigation revealed the fact that Ingalls had succeeded in having them loaded into a car which was being filled at the prison siding for shipment to points west of Chicago. Clerk Denglass traced the goods to Chicago where he found they had been disposed of to a Chicago auction house through the assistance of an unknown man.

Jonibers Badly Hurt.
While celebrating for McKinley and Hobart several Muskegon Republicans were badly hurt. Some one threw a dynamite bomb fire cracker into a trolley car of Jonibers and it exploded between the heads of F. J. Addison, secretary of the Muskegon Phrengue club, and Al. Fred J. Reynolds, manager of the opera house. Addison was knocked insensible, his clothing torn from his leg and he was carried into a saloon where he slowly recovered his senses. Reynolds was taken home with his face bleeding and torn. Fred G. Gray received four large burns on the leg, and when he called at the doctor's office his nose was filled with blood. J. J. Howdew was struck in the head; scalp cut.

ILLINOIS DEMOCRATS

Name Aligned for Governor, Oppose Cleveland and Declare for Free Silver.

The Democratic state convention of Illinois declared for the free coinage of silver and renominated John P. Altgeld, of Chicago, for governor by a unanimous vote. Gov. Altgeld in his speech denounced Cleveland's administration as traitorous to Democratic principles. He argued in favor of free coinage at a ratio of 16 to 1, and called the St. Louis convention "Mark Hanna's trust."

The financial plank of the platform is as follows: We demand the immediate restoration of the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver as a standard money at the ratio of 16 ounces of silver to 1 ounce of gold of equal fineness, with full legal tender power to each metal, without waiting for or depending on any other nation on earth; and the delegates from this convention to the national Democratic convention are instructed to use all honorable means to secure a similar declaration by said national convention and to support only such men for the presidency as are in full and pronounced sympathy with these principles. We are also opposed to the contraction of the currency by the retirement of any part of the outstanding treasury notes.

THE FOUR QUARTERS

NEWS OF INTEREST FROM ALL OVER THE GLOBE.

Report of the New U. S. Consul-General to Cuba Shows a Serious Condition of Affairs and Uncle Sam May Have to Interfere.

Cuban Situation Darkens Again. The York Herald's Havana correspondent has cabled he had certain information that Consul-General Fitzhugh Lee has sent to President Cleveland dispatches of the most serious importance. These dispatches contain Gen. Lee's report upon the Cuban situation and are of a sensational nature. There is one secret document for the President's private information and a frank straightforward statement of the Cuban situation for the use of the state department. Gen. Lee's report is of so grave a character as to justify armed intervention in Cuba by the United States, and takes the ground that the only possible solution of the situation in the island is autonomy. He finds that in many instances the Spanish government has been wholly impotent to protect either foreigners or their property, being fully occupied by active operations in the field. He hints that unless this danger to foreign residents can be avoided at once, the recognition of the belligerency of the Cubans will soon become necessary.

London: A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Madrid says: "The platform adopted by the Republicans at St. Louis causes great uneasiness in Spain and it is feared that a conflict with the United States has now almost a fixed date. The government has hastened to buy 14,000 ton ironclads at Genoa, whose price a few days ago was thought to be excessive. The government responding to the undoubted national sentiment and trusting probably to the help of other powers seems resolved to resist American interference in Cuban matters."

Washington: Instructions of a direct and positive character have been sent to the U. S. minister at Madrid, Hannis Taylor, to make strong representations to the Spanish government with a view to securing reparations for indignities to Dr. Jose Delgado and other American citizens in Cuba.

Madrid: It has been decided to dispatch 50,000 additional troops to Cuba before Sept. 1. Two more torpedo cutters are to be purchased.

Key West, Fla.: Details have been received here of the recent battle in the Najasi mountains in the province of Puerto Principe, which show that the engagement was most disastrous to the Spaniards. Gen. Maximo Gomez, with 2,000 men, was camped in the mountains, and the columns of Calixto Garcia and Rabi were in supporting distance. Gen. Castellanos, commander of the Spanish forces in Puerto Principe, learned of Gomez's whereabouts and determined to capture him. Ordering Gen. Godoy to follow, Castellanos, with 3,000 infantry, 500 cavalry and eight pieces of artillery, left to attack Gomez. The latter was informed of the Spanish plans and determined to surprise Castellanos. The first volley of the Cubans killed many Spaniards and caused a panic. Castellanos, however, rallied his men and began a retreat. After falling back several hours, harassed by a merciless fire from the Cubans, the Spaniards made a stand on the Saratoga estate. The fighting at this point lasted several hours, the Spaniards losing heavily, as their position was greatly exposed. Finally Calixto Garcia's column came up and broke the Spanish line and forced Castellanos again to retreat. The destruction of Castellanos' entire command was imminent when Gen. Godoy, with 2,500 fresh Spanish troops, came up and acted as a rear guard, and covered the retreat of Castellanos' shattered command. Gomez and Garcia, however, pursued it to Puerto Principe, inflicting further losses. Of the 3,500 men led out by Castellanos, 900 were killed, wounded or missing and 300 of Godoy's command were also missing. In the charge at Saratoga Gomez captured five field pieces from Castellanos. The loss of the Cubans is 190 killed and 300 wounded.

Key West: Advice from Havana state that a great battle was fought near Cabanas, in Pinar del Rio province, between the Cuban forces under Gen. Maximo and the Spaniards under Gen. Munoz. The place where the fight occurred is on the trocha, near the border of the provinces of Havana and Pinar del Rio, and was held by a strong column of Spanish troops. The fighting was of the most desperate character and continued for several hours. The Spaniards had artillery, and used it effectively, forcing the Spaniards to fall back. The losses of Gen. Munoz are said to have been very heavy. He is currently reported in Havana that over 400 Spaniards were killed and wounded. The scene of the battle is not a great distance from Havana, and the firing was heard in the city.

Venezuela Arrests British Intruders on Soil Claimed by Her.

Georgetown, British Guiana: Officer Harrison, who is expelled by Venezuelans while attempting to open a road from the Barima to the Cayuni river, within the Schomburgk line has been arrested under fresh orders from Caracas, and carried to the Venezuelan station opposite Uruan. The arrest has stirred the colony of British Guiana to a frenzy, and demands are made that Great Britain step in and interfere.

London: The London papers speak in pretty plain terms in commenting on the situation in Venezuela. The Graphic says: "It seems that Venezuela throws the American commission overboard and is desirous of settling with us directly by the ordeal of battle. The duty of the British government is clear. Reparation must be immediately demanded and enforced." The Chronicle says: "We must tell the government at Caracas that they will have to release Harrison, apologize for his arrest and make amends." The Globe says: "The Venezuelan government has repeated an insult to Great Britain with which even American spreadeagles could not sympathize. It looks as though President Crespo was thinking of the approach of the presidential election in the United States, and was anxious to force a collision with Great Britain before the question has lost its electrifying value."

Steam Yacht Exploded—Ten Killed. At the Taylor cycle park, near Little Falls, N. Y., where the state meet of the L. A. W. was to take place the steam yacht Titus Sheard exploded her boiler. Ten of the crowd were killed outright, one died while on the way to the hospital, three were fatally and six seriously injured. The boat was blown to splinters and pieces of the boiler were thrown 500 feet. The explosion is believed to have resulted from the defective working of the pump connected with the boilers. All the dead and injured thus far accounted for lived in Little Falls.

Funeral Sermon for a Living Man. The funeral sermon of a living man, plain old Lorenzo Dow McKinney, at which he was present, was preached at Fallen Timbers, O., 20 miles from Portsmouth, to an assembly of 8,000 people. It was in a primeval forest of oaks, camp meeting style. Rev. Forest Evans conducted the ceremonies. Just behind him sat the living Lorenzo Dow McKinney. A committee of eight venerable men in lieu of pall bearers conducted the subject to the platform. They had all known him from youth. The text was "The time of my departure is at hand."

The Transvaal Meets Business. The secretary of state for the Transvaal has telegraphed to the British high commissioner at Cape Town, saying that the Transvaal government is convinced that the proofs in its possession, and which are at the disposal of Great Britain, now completely justify and compel the bringing to trial of Messrs. Cecil Rhodes and Alfred Beit and Dr. Harrison, all of the British South Africa Co., and connected with the raiding of the Transvaal.

More Trouble in Venezuela. London: In the house of commons the secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, confirmed the report that Venezuelan troops had entered the territory in dispute between Venezuela and British Guiana, and had interfered with a party of British surveyors who had asked for the support of the colonial authorities.

THE STUDIO GIRL.

An Interesting Letter From a Young Ladies' College.

Dear Madam:—The sexes for Education. Health Impaired by Incessant Study.

The race between the sexes for education is to-day very close.

Ambitious girls work incessantly over their studies, and are often brought to a halt, through having sacrificed the physical to the mental.

Then begin those ailments that must be removed at once, or they will produce constant suffering. Headache, dizziness, faintness, slight vertigo, pains in the back and loins, irregularity, loss of sleep and appetite, nervousness and blues, with lack of confidence; these are positive signs that women's arch enemy is at hand.

The following letter was received by Mrs. Pinkham:

May, one month after the young lady had first written, giving symptoms, and asking advice: "She was ill and in great distress of mind, feeling she would not hold out till graduation, and the doctor had advised her to go home."

College, Mass.

You dear Woman:—I should have written to you before, but you said wait a month. We are taught that the days of miracles are past. Pray what is my case? I have taken the Vegetable Compound faithfully, and obeyed you implicitly and am free from all my ills. I was a very, very sick girl. Am keeping well up in my class, and hope to do you and myself credit at graduation. My gratitude cannot find expression in words. Yours sincerely, Friend, MARY F. B.

Some of the other girls are coming to me, using the Compound. It is a benefit to them.

Lidia B. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only safe, sure and effective remedy in such cases, as it removes the cause, purifies and invigorates the system, and gives energy and vitality.
