MERE MENTION OF MICHIGAN MATTERS.

The State Accountant Prepares Official Figures of the Amount of Taxes for the Next Two Years—Steamer Peawabic Discovered After 32 Years.

General—$4,392,134.25—for 1897-8. The State Accountant Humphrey has completed official figures giving in detail the amount and the purpose of each appropriation made by the legislature for each of the years 1897 and 1898. These figures show that the special appropriations of the legislature aggregate $1,284,177.33 for 1897, and $966,952.02 for 1898. To these totals must be added the levy for the general purposes of the state government and the fixed charges provided for by previous legislatures, in order to obtain the total amount of state tax for these years, which for 1897 will be $2,379,907.23, as compared with $3,013,919.52 for 1895; and for 1898 it will be $2,018,227.05, as compared with $2,068,538.62 for 1896. The total for the current two years is $4,392,134.25, as against $5,022,458.14 for the previous biennial period. This shows a saving of $630,323.89 in favor of the present legislature. There were however, as the lawyers say, extenuating circumstances which favor the previous legislature, as an appropriation of $600,000 had to be made to make up a deficiency from the years 1893-4.

Capt. Smith, with the wrecker H. A. Root, has located the long-lost steamer Peawabic, which was sunk in Lake Huron in collision with the Meteor 32 years ago. She lays in 160 feet of water, three miles off the course where she was supposed to have gone down. She is nearly seven miles off Thunder Bay light. She rests on the bottom in an upright position, her upper works gone entirely, but the arches, deck and hull intact. The wreck is covered with mud and moss to the thickness of several inches. The steamer had 200 feet keel, and was valued at $200,000. It has been the cargo, however, that has made the search so attractive for wreckers. On board the Peawabic were 400 tons of ingot copper, now worth 11 cents a pound, or $88,000. The copper is in barrels on the main deck, and can probably be recovered without much trouble. There were also several hundred tons of iron ore in the hold, and, according to some reports, $60,000 in the safe.

A Dear Deer Killing. One of the deer in the park at the Soldiers' Home at Grand Rapids escaped. Charles Seeples and Frank Hyder, well-known citizens of Grand Rapids, saw it and killed it. Then remembering that they had violated the game laws they went before a justice, pleaded guilty and were fined $5 each. They thought they had fooled the game warden, but that officer heard of the matter, had them brought before Justice Watt, where they pleaded guilty again. The law says that the fine for killing deer out of season shall be not less than $50. Whether Justice Watt can cut the fine in two and give both $25 apiece after both pleaded guilty to killing the same deer, is a question.

AFFAIRS IN GENERAL.

BRIEF MENTION OF EVENTS OF INTEREST.

The Assassination of President Faure, of France, Attempted with a Bomb—British Troops Massacred in India—Uncle Sam Preparing for Trouble.

Is Uncle Sam Getting Ready for War? Considerable excitement was created at the navy yards at Boston when it was learned that the U. S. cruiser New York, the flagship of the North Atlantic squadron, with Rear-Admiral Sicard on board, steamed out to sea under sealed orders from the navy department. It is generally believed that the New York will not stop until in the vicinity of Cuban waters. She was fully provisioned and coaled for a long journey. No satisfaction as to her destination could be secured either at Boston or Washington.

A dispatch from the national capital says the war department is busily obtaining information as to the number and character of militiamen who can be depended upon for mobilization throughout the country upon 24 hours' notice.

Another point. It is said that the real purpose in sending the U. S. warships Marblehead and Massachusetts to attend the Cabot celebration in Nova Scotia is to have them visit the grand banks of Newfoundland where over 20,000 American fishermen, the finest salt water sailors are to be found at this season. The warships are to cruise among them to hold receptions to show the fishermen how the stars and stripes look floating over a Yankee fighting machine and to arouse such enthusiasm and patriotism that the government will have no difficulty in recruiting many of these hardy gentlemen if war with Spain should occur.

Attempt to Kill—President of France. An attempt was made to assassinate Felix Faure, president of the French republic, while he was enroute to Longchamps to witness the Grand Prix. While M. Faure's carriage was passing a thick net near La Cascade restaurant, in the Bois de Boulogne, a bomb, which subsequently proved to be a piece of tubing about six inches long and two inches in diameter with a thickness of half an inch, charged with powder and swanshot, exploded. No one was injured by the explosion. A man in the crowd suspected as the prime mover, was arrested.

The attempt on the life of M. Faure was made on the very spot where Beresovsky tried to shoot the czar of Russia while driving to the military review at Longchamps in 1867, and where Francois, a lunatic, fired his revolver at M. Faure on July 14 last. Having this in mind, the police had taken extra precautions. Mr. Faure continued his journey and on his arrival at the race course he was warmly congratulated on his escape by the Grand Duke Sergius, Mr. Hanoutaux and other members of the cabinet. The president's sang froid will greatly increase his popularity.

It is generally believed that the act was that of a madman rather than of a conspirator.

Lightning and Corsets Kill Three Ladies. The lives of three young ladies were blotted out by lightning while they were on their way home from the M. E. church at Jacksonburg, O. The victims are Misses McGuire, daughter of Rev. Thomas McGuire, Alpa Taylor and Emma White, all about 19 years of age. Sarah Bohring was stunned and may die. They were walking together in the road about 100 yards from the church when they were struck by lightning. It is believed that the steel corsets worn by the three who were killed were the chief cause of their death, as Miss Bohring, who was only stunned, wore none.

Many English Massacred in India. Dispatches from Simla, India, report serious trouble on the frontier. Two guns of the Bombay mounted battery, escorted by 300 men from the First regiment of Sikhs and the First Punjab infantry, were attacked by a large force of hostile natives in the Tochi valley. In the fight which followed Col. Lunny, two other officers and 25 privates were killed. All of the British officers and 25 privates were severely injured. In addition many horses and mules were killed. It is thought that the notorious mullah of Poonah instigated the attack.

Barney Barnato Sultides. A dispatch from Funchal, Island of Madeira, off the west coast of Morocco, says that on the arrival there of the British steamship Scot, which left Cable Bay (Cape Town) June 2 for Southampton, it was announced that Barney Barnato, the South African "Diamond King," who was among the passengers, had committed suicide by leaping overboard. His body was recovered.

The most notable of several seasons at Boston was that of Larz Anderson, who has until recently been connected with the U. S. diplomatic corps at London and Rome to Miss Isabelle Peckins, an heiress to $12,000,000.

Thirty-two states were represented at a meeting of the professional committee of the national Silver Republican party which met at Chicago. It was decided to open temporary headquarters at Duluth under the supervision of ex-Congressman Towne. Resolutions were adopted favoring the establishment of bimetallic by independent action of the United States, through the free coinage of silver and gold at a ratio of 16 to 1. A national executive committee was appointed to have the full power to call a national convention of Silver Republicans.

THE 55TH CONGRESS AT WORK.

SENATE—61st day.—The sugar schedule, over which the hardest fight of the tariff bill is expected, was taken up. No final action was taken on any feature of the schedule, further than the withdrawal of the original Senate committee amendments. This leaves the House provisions of the bill, with an amendment increasing the House differential from 875-1000 to 45-1000 cents per pound. The provisions relating to the Hawaiian Islands went over by mutual consent. House business and a few minor and formal matters were disposed of when a motion to adjourn was made. But was resisted by the minority. The rising vote resulted in a tie, 87-87. Speaker Reed saved the motion by voting yes. Demands for yeas and nays came from both sides, and the roll was called. The motion was carried.

SENATE—62d day.—The first test vote on the sugar schedule resulted in the adoption of the Republican caucus amendment changing the House rate on refined sugar to 1.95 per pound by the close vote of yeas 32, nays 39. It was the closest vote thus far taken on an issue of importance and was accepted as showing that any amendment having the sanction of the caucus was assured of adoption. The day was spent in speeches on the effect of the sugar schedule on the tariff paragraph, which was not finally disposed of up to the time of adjournment.

SENATE—63d day.—The sugar schedule was again the subject of the Democratic assaults. Practically no progress was made. Only one amendment was voted upon and that was defeated. Mr. Vest tried to prod the Republicans into a detailed defense of the schedule, but they declined the challenge. The most sensational feature of the day was the speech of Senator McEnery, Democrat, of Louisiana, who on the day before had voted with the Republicans for the sugar schedule. It was his maiden speech in the Senate. He openly avowed himself a protectionist and a Democrat justified his position on the ground that the tariff views should not constitute a test of democracy. He, moreover, defended the sugar trust, whose interests, he argued, went hand in hand with those of sugar planters. The Republican Senators showed much interest in his remarks.

SENATE—64th day.—The debate on the sugar schedule of the tariff bill proceeded with only one diverting incident to relieve the monotony into which the discussion has lapsed. This was the sharp exchange between Mr. Hoar, of Massachusetts, and Mr. Tillman, of South Carolina. The latter again referred to published charges of irregularity in connection with the sugar schedule and asserted that the Senate would stand convicted before the American people if it failed to investigate the charges. Mr. Hoar calmly and impressively repelled this statement, his tone and language being calculated as a rebuke. He declared that the vague charges were not only preposterous but infamous. Mr. Allison, in charge of the bill, made another speech in defense of the schedule, presenting tables which he declared proved that the sugar refiners received less protection under the Senate schedule than under the existing law. Pettigrew, of South Dakota, spoke at length in favor of his amendment to place on the free list articles controlled by trusts, severely arraigning the various large trusts. Mr. Allen, of Nebraska, urged legal procedure against the trusts. Hoar—The House adjourned after a session of 45 minutes. The only attempt to transact business was a request by Mr. Lacey, of Iowa, for unanimous consent to a bill for the relief of cyclone sufferers in Greer county, Okla. Mr. Henry, of Texas, promptly objected, and then, after the usual Democratic protest against the Republican policy of not appointing committees, the House, by 88 to 78, with 15 present and not voting, decided to adjourn. Before the session began the hub of a wheel, wound round with a monster petition said to contain 6,000,000 signatures, appealing to congress to recognize the Cuban insurgents as belligerents, was wheeled into the space in front of the speaker's rostrum. It had been in circulation throughout the United States for about six months and was presented to congress by Rep. Sulzer, of New York.

SENATE—65th day.—A great stride forward was made by completing the consideration of the sugar schedule of the tariff bill, except the provision relating to Hawaii, which went over. This schedule has been the storm center of the entire bill, and with its disposal of there is a better prospect for speedy action on the bill as a whole. The first paragraph of the sugar schedule served to bring out all the speeches and test votes and when this was passed the other paragraphs of the schedule were agreed to without further opposition. The consideration of the agricultural schedule was taken up.

Sultan Accepts Dr. Angell. Washington: Information received at the state department from Constantinople states that the sultan has issued an irade announcing the acceptance of Dr. Angell as minister from the United States. The action of the porte is very welcome at the state department and was communicated at once to Dr. Angell at his home in Ann Arbor.

Ex-Gov. Attop D. Cox, of Ohio, has declined the offer of the post of minister to Spain, because it would interfere with his literary labors.

Wm. Finley, aged 17, of Fort Huron, was instantly killed in a terrible manner. He was employed by the Bell Telephone Co and was helping erect poles on Stone street. A pole was being raised to be put into the hole when the ropes slipped and the pole fell, striking Finley on the head. One of the spikes of the pole entered his head near the right eye, killing him instantly.

SULTAN VERY WRATHY.

Refuses to Relinquish His Hold on Thessaly—The Situation Very Critical. Constantinople: The aspect of the Turkish peace negotiations grows worse instead of better. The ambassadors of the powers have declined to accept either Assim Bey or Riza Bey as a Turkish peace commissioner. This, together with their refusal to discuss the retention of Thessaly by Turkey, threw the sultan into such a rage that he forthwith summoned a meeting of the special Turkish commission, appointed to consider the terms of peace. He kept in telegraphic communication with most of the European capitals, and gave stringent orders to the grand vizier, who immediately resigned. The special commission accomplishing nothing but a split among its members, the majority of whom expressed themselves emphatically as opposed to yielding to the powers. The Turks are very angry at the alleged brusque declaration of Sir Phillip Currie, the British ambassador, that England will never permit Christians to return to Turkish rule. It is also stated that the German ambassador is very much disconcerted to find Count Nelidoff, the Russian ambassador, supporting Sir Phillip in this respect, and though it is still alleged that Germany is advising Turkey to put every man under arms, it is believed she has seen the advisability of falling into line with the other powers.

Advices from Athens show that the gravity of affairs is fully recognized there. M. Scouloidis, the Greek foreign minister, said: "I do not hesitate to say that the present is a most critical moment for us as a nation."

It is said that Turks have burned all the villages around Domokos and have occupied and are strongly fortifying several villages.

The Greek government has protested to the powers against the continued massing of Turkish troops in Thessaly and the hindrances placed by Turkey to navigation in the Gulf of Ambracia, as violations of the armistice.

Annexation of Hawaii. A treaty for the annexation of Hawaii to the United States will be sent to the Senate soon. The treaty has been written and all its details agreed upon. There is no doubt, it is said, of the President's acquiescence in the terms of the treaty, which is on the general lines of the treaty negotiated during the administration of President Harrison and withdrawn by President Cleveland. It provides for annexation without the exaction of conditions on the part of the Hawaiians as to the form of government to be vouchsafed to Hawaii, leaving that question to be entirely disposed of by the government of the United States. The United States will agree, however, to assume the debt of the present Hawaiian government, but will come into possession of all the Hawaiian crown lands and other possessions. The present condition in Hawaii, it is said, has had much to do with favorable consideration of the treaty of annexation. The present government of Hawaii and the people who support it are very much concerned about the Japanese situation, and it is felt that the Japanese, at any time, may take some action looking to acquisition of the island.

Cleveland Abandons Law. It is announced on the authority of the most intimate friends that Grover Cleveland will not again engage actively in the practice of law, and that he will not directly connect himself with big law firms, as has been reported. The ex-president has retired permanently from an active career and will hereafter be heard of only through the medium of addresses on public occasions.

Japan has come down from her big demands for indemnity from Hawaii for the latter's recent refusal to allow several hundred undesirable Japanese immigrants to land. She now asks indemnity for only a few who were illegally rejected.

REVIEW OF TRADE. The gain in business continues, not without fluctuations, and at the best moderate. It is still in quantity rather than price, although in some lines an advance in price appears, but on the whole the number of hands employed, the volume of new orders and amount of work done are increasing. Prospect of good crops of wheat and cotton helps growing demand from dealers whose stocks gradually gain in consumption depleted, and the money and exchange market large buying of American securities has an influence. Wheat looks well and the best trade authority now estimates the yield at 2,000,000,000 bushels, with many states and broad returns to support it. Amount of the spring wheat strictly fresh, 9 1/2 per doz. Butter, dairy 12 per lb. creamery, 15c.

On Friday last Judge Kinn issued a decree which has been prayed for by neighbors in the vicinity for a long time. The decree declared the so-called pond on W. Washington street, managed by Robert Hunter for his foundry and machine shop, a nuisance, and that it be abated at once.—Ann Arbor Courier

The editor of the Ypsilanti department has been issuing the following notice: "A resident of Huron Street, on Tuesday went out in his vegetable garden to plant some cucumber seeds. The seeds were in a cup, and he was endeavoring to get them on the ground, but he set the cup down to the ground and in the mean time a robin came along, ate up a good many of the seeds and flew to a tree as the man's approach. A cat belonging to the man came running up, climbed the tree and caught the robin. The man cut open the bird, took the seeds out and planted them as though nothing had happened. Owing to the short time which has intervened between the incident and the publication of this issue of the paper, it is impossible to state just the growth of the cucumbers."

A neatly editor, on reading that a young lady in New York breads bread with her gloves on, indulged in the following soliloquy: "If I said 'New York girl breads bread with her gloves on,' but this is not strange to us. We need bread with our boots on; and we need bread with our pants on; and if those subscription who are in arrears don't pay their dues soon we'll need bread without anything on."

A sensible mother says that as soon as her daughter finishes the high school course she intends giving her a thorough course in lakeology, road-ology, biology, stick-ology, mend-ology and iron-ology. When she is through with these courses she will give her a course in motherhood; then she will be a candidate for matrimony and she can study dodeology.

Honest poetry is no disgrace but unpaid debt stamp any man as a bad citizen. Nobody ever casts reflections on poverty, but our people do right to mistreat the individual who goes from place to place leaving his honest debt unpaid, and asking out a precarious existence on borrowed funds. There is about as much consistency in such a person talking about honesty in order to get a hog position as the apostle of grace and culture.

When the citizens committee at Asheville, N. C., are arranging to show President McKinley and party around, the man in charge of Gen. Campbell's estate refused to admit the newspaper correspondents, and President McKinley being informed thereof, promptly offered to visit the place, saying that the cabinet men were as much a part of the paper as himself and cabinet. The man pulled in his horses and all were down through the estate.
