A DAY IN THE POWER HOUSE OF A STREET RAILROAD.

Two score Men and Their Work—Keeping the Daily Record—Toil Incessant at the Switchboard.

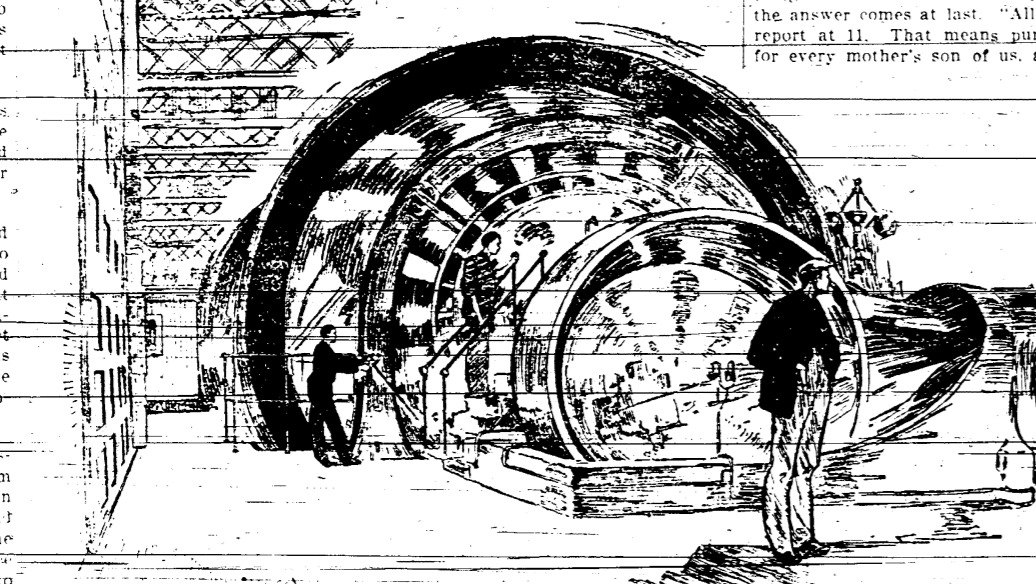

It is at 7 in the morning, in the midst of the first big rush of the twenty-four hours, that the day here at the power house...

When a married couple or pair of shoes are excitedly taken to the fitting parlor, it is a man who never feels the papers...

Several letter writers have asked members of the United States National Association of Manufacturers...

It is evident that Roosevelt's investigation in China has impressed him with the fact that the Chinese...

Chicago capitalists are endeavoring to form a "shredding machine" trust. Every day or two the "morning" papers bring to light some industry that the general public had completely forgotten.

DIFFICULT RHYMES.

Some Amusing Efforts over "Month" and "Orange." "You can't," says Tom, "helping me find any rhyme for month."

It is a full and frank confession of his inability to do more than "month" and "orange." He says in a pun which was not a little amusing.

Mr. Chamberlain is the best-dressed man engaged in the work from the street, for he is dressed in the most elegant of suits.

Lieut. Hobson

The Hero of the "Merrimac," Will tell his wonderful story in three numbers of

THE CENTURY MAGAZINE.

This will be a full account of the sinking of the "Merrimac" at Santiago, and the experiences of the writer and his men in Spanish prisons. It will be read by every American in the land. This is only one of many richly illustrated personal narratives in THE CENTURY's new Spanish War Series. These men will write for no other magazine. In the November CENTURY begins the arrival in Havana harbor, the insults to her captain, the explosion and wreck. The whole story of the destruction of Cervera's fleet will be told by Adm. Ralph Sampson and Schley, Captain "Bob" Evans, Captain Taylor, and others.

If you do not take THE CENTURY in 1899, you will miss the greatest reading of the year. The November number begins the volume and has the opening chapters of a splendidly illustrated life of Alexander the Great, and of Marion Crawford's great historical novel of the Crusades. Lieut. Hobson's articles begin in the December number. $4.00 a year.

THE CENTURY CO., Union Square, New York.

BOMBARDMENTS.

Matanzas, Santiago, Porto Rico.

These naval battles took place between the American squadrons and Spanish forts at Porto Rico and Cuba, to establish a base of supplies for the American army and navy, for their much-talked-of campaign of Cuba. They are a series of the most brilliant of American victories, showing our battle-ships maneuvering and in full action. You see men killed, cannon dismounted, almost smell the smoke. You see the Indiana, Iowa, Oregon, Texas, Puritan, Brooklyn, New York, in full action.
Remember, this is the same company and machines that have been creating such wonderful things as Grand Rapids, Detroit, Kalamazoo. Remember our date and go. At opera house, Tuesday March 21, at 8 o'clock.
