When You Come to Jackson

You usually come because you want something. We Him in body has to run a business like our because people must have goods of the different kinds that we keep. Now as you nave goods of the different kinds that we keep. Now a you must buy a certain amount of merchandise and we must do something to earn our living, it seems as though we could meet on a common ground that would be good for us both. You must buy - We must sell - We do sell and we will be here the here we have a sell and we will be here the here we have a sell and we will all the self here we have a sell and we will all the self here we have a sell and we will all the self here we have a self of the self of the self and we will all the self here we have a self of the se sell. We buy right because that is the great big help in sell-ing right. We dodge paying Main street rents and that helps. We wear poor clothes and est poor victuals, and that's and. But you would like to know what we sell. Furthat's and. But you would like to know what we cell. Fur-biture by the car loads, or otherwise, just as it pleases our customers. Carpets by the yard or soll. Curtains and Draperies by the dosen. Window Shales, Crockery Sets, Dinner Sets, Oilcloth, Linoleume, Rugz, Matting, and Up-holstering Materials. These are just a faw of the thing that we keep. Now, what about it? We want you. We want to make ourselves so necessary and useful to you that you will want us-want us soon-want us often.
