WRECKS AND AWFUL SCENES. Two Washab Trains Collide Near Seneca. MANY KILLED AND CREMATED. It is stated that About 100 Persons, Mostly Italian, were Killed or Death in the Wreck After the Collision—Engineer Strong Blamed for the Accident.

Minor Michigan Matters. James Tate was killed at St. Joseph Sunday by the bursting of a fly wheel. A Michigan Central train ran down a horse about four miles east of Kalamazoo and literally ground it to pieces.

Over 100 Were Killed. The persistent efforts of the Washab train, in minimizing the number of killed in the recent wreck are giving a stunning blow to the statement of Rev. F. Francis Berchert, whose information is to the effect that over 100 Italians are killed or missing.

The Government Estimates Are Very Large. MRS. MCKINLEY'S GREAT GRIEF. The Millions Asked For.

Legislative establishment $1,839,825. Executive establishment $4,237,846. Judicial establishment 72,520. ...

News in Brief. A dispatch from Rio Janeiro, Brazil, says: Maria Lúcia, a negro, 180 years old, is dead. The socialist petition in Germany against the tariff bill has received nearly 500,000 signatures.

The House Trial. The prosecution in the House trial rested Saturday afternoon, and Attorney Keene outlined the position of the defense, from which it is evident that a number of witnesses who have already testified will be recalled.

Proceeded the Farmers. Samuel M. Tricker, the first of a large number of Detroit commission merchants indicted by the United States grand jury on the charge of inducing the mail, was arrested by the police on a United States warrant.

THE MARKETS. Detroit—Cattle—Best steers here, $5.00 to $5.50. Good butcher steers, $4.50 to $5.00. Light to good butcher steers, $4.00 to $4.50.

Philadelphia Domestic Territory. The United States Supreme court has rendered a decision in the case of Phillips v. Payne. The case involves the constitutionality of the act of Congress which provided for the organization of a new territory in the Philippines.

Roasted Bee-Baby. Mrs. J. H. Meyer, living five miles from Corvallis, Oregon, wrapped her month-old baby in a blanket for the night to get her warm. Half an hour later, when she came back the first thing she noticed was a smell. Rushing to the store she found the blanket and the baby lying on the floor.

Information has been received at Cincinnati that Judge William H. Taft, civil governor of the Philippines, is coming home on an indefinite leave of absence. The inspector in charge of the United States bureau of animal industry at the East-Infant, N. Y., state yards, discovered what he believes to be an outbreak of smallpox among a consignment of hogs.

CONGRESSIONAL. The opening of the first session of the fifty-seventh congress at noon Monday drew to the capital a great throng of spectators. Although the actual work of the two houses was not begun until 12 o'clock the historic old structure—now refurbished from end to end until it shone with marble and rich decorations—was as bright before that hour.
