BOILER EXPLOSION, KILLS SIX. Six men were killed and four injured by the explosion of the boiler of the tugboat 'Hart'...

MICHIGAN PENSIONERS. Washington, January 12.—Michigan pensioners, Alexander McDonald, $12; Robert White, $17; John Clingman, $8; Charles Charlemagne, $10; Thomas Nicholson, $17; George McClellan, $21; William Andros, $10; George R. Elms, $17; Elias J. Tietert, $12; David White, $12; Alonzo T. Haynes, $10; Susan L. Hurd, $12; Ellen J. Drouil, $8; Emma E. Vanderheyden, $8; minors of George Whittsullivan, $12.

A School Tow. Ward F. Doubleday and Charles Chicago, prominent Kalamazoo business men, have charged before the board of education against Principal George J. Miller, of the high school, and George S. Waite, superintendent of manual training, of inflicting improper punishment upon the pupils. In their statements accompanying the charges, they alleged that George Doubleday, 15 years old, was ordered by Waite to walk up and down two flights of stairs two hours because he was accused of making boisterous remarks. According to the sworn statement of the teacher, he testified that the teacher to mark him absent while performing this stunt and when he refused to do this told her to 'stunt' him, meaning to erase credit marks so he could not pass examinations. Their children had to deposit $5 as a guarantee of good behavior, and $1 was deducted every time they committed any fault, it was alleged. The board will investigate.

Believed Him Innocent. The Jewell of Owasco died Thursday night of pneumonia, with a deputy sheriff at his bedside, for he was under arrest on a charge of criminal assault on Gladys Kelly, a girl of 18. The warrant had been taken out by Jasper Kelly, the girl's father, and was served on Jewell as he lay on his deathbed. He protested his innocence to the last. Jewell had two brothers, one in Detroit and the other in Pontiac, and they believed so thoroughly in his protestations of innocence that they had made all arrangements for the defense. An attorney, Charles H. Hamper, a cousin of Jewell's, in company with Third infantry, had volunteered to undertake the defense as a matter of friendship. The other members of the company believe so strongly in Jewell's innocence that they will give him a military funeral.

Rapidly Increasing. Never before in a similar period has there been such a loss in membership by the G. A. R. posts of the state as during the past six months, says Assistant Adjutant-General Wreckoff, who has just received the reports of membership, etc., from the posts throughout the state. Some of the reports that are being received are truly pathetic. The secretary of one organization writes that probably another report from his post would never be received, owing to the fact that so many of its members are too ill-informed to attend any of the meetings.

Were Not Married. The shameful secret in the life of Mrs. John O'Connor, who died at Elmwood under circumstances which are being investigated by the coroner, was laid bare by the arrival of her divorced husband, Andrew Cotter, from North Dakota, to claim the body. O'Connor was employed on Cotter's farm, and indeed Mrs. Cotter to elope with him. The woman got a divorce from her first husband in the state of Michigan, and O'Connor said she had married her, but there is no proof of it. O'Connor disappeared immediately after the funeral.

His Hardened. Gov. Bliss pardoned a life prisoner Wednesday. The convict is Armando Lamie and he was convicted in Michigan in 1885 of murder and given a life sentence. The governor's principal reason for clemency is found in an opinion of the supreme court in the case of a complete, the court holding that the conviction could not be sustained. The prosecuting attorney has also made a showing that he did not expect a verdict of murder, and would have been satisfied with a verdict of manslaughter. The prisoner has served eighteen years.

Found Her Girl. Two years ago Edward Dieker, of Mt. Pleasant, deserted his wife, taking with him his two little daughters. The mother began a systematic search for the runaway husband and has just been rewarded by locating him on a ranch near Kent Sherman county, Oregon. She hustled to her far west, and a telegram just received states that with the assistance of the authorities her children were restored to her yesterday. She will bring them east at once.

The Horticulturists. At the closing session of the State Horticultural society held in Traverse City, resolutions were passed commending the progress made in apple culture in northern Michigan and the excellence of the products. The apple raisers at Traverse City, it was pointed out, were of excellent quality. The society will hold another meeting the first week of February at Benton Harbor, and the first week of March in Port Huron.

Branch county may vote on local option in the spring.

Important News Gathered from Abroad for the Benefit of Our Readers.

To Combat American Competition. The efforts in German commercial circles to combat the so-called American danger are daily becoming more crystallized. The latest development has included other countries besides Germany. A number of prominent public men in all parts of Germany have founded a new national European commercial league the object of which is to promote a central European Zollverein in Germany, Austria, Hungary, Switzerland, Holland, Denmark, Scandinavia and Russia. The league is a means of combating American competition. The executive department of the league includes economists and parliamentary leaders of the three greatest parties in the German Reich. The conservatives, the national liberals and the socialists, all united 302 of the total 367 members in the Reichstag.

Death of Ruth Cleveland. Ruth Cleveland, the elder child of ex-President Grover Cleveland, died at the Cleveland home in Princeton, N. Y., Thursday, very unexpectedly, the immediate cause of death being a weakening of the heart action during a mild attack of diphtheria. Dr. Wyckoff, the attending physician, said that Mrs. Cleveland had been ill with a mild form of diphtheria for four days, and that the heart affection was not expected. The cause of death was not expected. The funeral services will be held at the Cleveland home, conducted by Rev. Matthew Bartlett. Interment will be in Princeton cemetery. Mrs. Cleveland is prostrated at the death of her daughter. The other children show no signs of diphtheria.

Fifty-two Perished. Fifty-two lives were lost Saturday in the sinking of the fine new steamer Chatham in a storm that swept over the straits of Juan de Fuca with relentless fury. The vessel was a regular daily passenger packet. She made good steady good progress across the straits, bound for Victoria, until Trial Island, off the entrance to the harbor, was abeam. Little fear was manifested, however, until word came up from below that the vessel was leaking. The safety of the passengers, particularly the women and children, was looked after, and all who desired were put off from the steamer in the ship's boats. The heavily laden boats were thrown about wildly in the choppy sea, and one after another, after succeeding in getting away from the steamer, were either capsized or swamped.

Deaths of Governor Foster. Former Governor Charles Foster, who was secretary of the treasury under President Harrison, died at his residence in Springfield, Ohio, Saturday morning, from the effects of cerebral hemorrhages. He was 76 years old, and is survived by his widow and a daughter. He was a member of congress and other of the United States.

Death of General Gordon. Gen. John Bull Gordon died at his winter home near Miami, Fla., the other night. His fatal illness was congestion of the stomach and liver, following an acute attack of indigestion, to which he was subject. Gen. Gordon was born in Upson county, Ga., July 18, 1827, of Scotch ancestry, which had a prominent part in the revolution of 1861. He became brigadier-general May 1, 1862, and major-general May 14, 1862, and lieutenant-general in the spring of 1867. He was wounded eight times in battle, and was regarded as the Chevalier Bayard of the Army of North Virginia, without fear and without reproach. He and great personal magnetism, which attracted and bound his men to him with a large executive ability.

Stand His Reorganization. Gen. Hattie Revere, the Colorado special envoy, has received the answer of the Washington government to his note charging the United States with open violation of the treaty of 1846. The answer which was prepared by Secretary Hay though couched in the most diplomatic terms and expressing the wish of this government to deal justly with Gen. Revere, was a complete refusal to reopen the Panama question. Prior to receipt of the reply Gen. Revere wrote to the state department requesting that the correspondence be transmitted to the senate for its consideration. Pending an answer to this request, the correspondence will not be made public.

Near the Outbreak. The present tension in the far east cannot be kept up much longer without breaking. The situation in the Far East is becoming more and more critical. The Japanese fleet has been reported to have moved to the coast of Korea, and the Chinese government has expressed its concern. The situation is becoming more and more critical.
