GAS PROPERTY TAXED LOW. Real Value and Taxable Value of Gas Property Differ.

PRICES ARE DIFFERENT, TOO. Cases Before U. S. Court in Bay City.

Sunday Hunting in Oakland County to Be Stopped by Enforcing the Seelye Law—It Had Become a Great Annoyance to the People.

While the census of 1904 shows that the average net price of gas, both for light and fuel, in the United States was $1.035, a canvass of the gas plants in Michigan shows that Wolverines are paying an average price of $1.27 per thousand.

Some other interesting facts are also shown, not the least of which is that the assessed valuation of the companies is less than half the valuation as represented by the stock and bonds outstanding.

Of the fifty-one gas companies in the state, one is a municipal plant and two are co-partnerships, with no stock or bonds. The total stock of the other forty-eight is $12,355,000, and the total of bonds outstanding $12,143,000.

Against the total valuation of $24,498,000 thus indicated stands the assessed valuation of $7,789,000 and the total of $16,709,000 paid in all, $9,044,491 personal, $11,833,511 in all.

In the matter of the price of the product there are wide variations. In Niagara the rate is 75 cents per 1,000 feet net, while in St. Johns the user has to pay at the rate of $1.50 per thousand. Consumers in other cities pay anywhere between these two figures.

In most cases the price paid is between $1 and $1.35. In Escanaba the rate is 52 1/2 to 67 1/2 cents per thousand, but there the plant is owned by the municipality. In Adrian the rate is a sliding one, from 60 cents to $1. Detroit and Grand Rapids are tied for the lowest rate on illuminating gas, at 90 cents, with Holland a close second at 95 cents.

U. S. Court Cases. The United States court opened its regular semi-annual session in Bay City Tuesday morning. F. H. Ferris, of Cheboygan, alleged counterfeit, with E. Duffey, former postmaster of Harrison, charged with embezzling postal funds, and A. W. Bennett, of Tawas, charged with timber trespass, will be tried.

Other cases are those against Chris Vanah, of St. Louis, charged with making false affidavits in a land pension case; a case of alleged theft of money from letters against Daniel Abney, formerly chief clerk in the post-office at Flint; and a civil case against Frank Marvin, postmaster at Turner, for the recovery of the value of stamps alleged by him to have been burned.

Arrest Sunday Hunters. Prosecutor Covert announces that the provisions of the Seelye law regarding Sunday hunting in Oakland County will be enforced to the letter. Detroit sportsmen were as numerous as ever in the county, but no arrests were made.

The Seelye law provides that arrests be made without warrant by any constable, deputy sheriff or other officer, or deputy game warden, upon the request of the owner of the property trespassed upon. No "John Doe" warrants are required, any trespasser found with a gun or dog being subject to arrest. The possession of a dog or gun is prima facie evidence of guilt. The prosecutor will instruct all officers of the county to enforce the law to the letter.

"Avenge Angels." After being out many hours, the jury in the Hudson "avenging angels" case late Friday night returned a verdict of guilty of assault and battery, and recommended leniency on the part of the court. Judge Chester accepted the recommendation of the four prisoners, John and Frank Dillon and Clifford and Alfred Barrett, and suspended sentence for the present.

The verdict was a big surprise, as it had been figured that the long deliberation meant a disagreement. One of the jurors stated that the jury did not doubt that the defendants did the things charged against them, but there was no evidence of it except the words of Mrs. Post and her former husband, and their testimony was not given much weight.

Walking with her brother on the Michigan Central railway tracks near the Wayne county house Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Maria Oliver, aged 70 years, was dashed to death by a west-bound train. Her brother, Patrick Lynch, barely escaped death with her.

H. P. Mowry, the Brownson member of the state board of corrections and charities, has verified the statements of a lay-up that the Eaton county jail is infested by bedbugs and other undesirable vermin. He says he found all the complaints true, and that the jail is badly ventilated and unclean. He recommends that the supervisors rebuild the building.

The main building of the Buchanan Cabinet Co.'s plant was destroyed by fire early Saturday morning, together with a large stock of hardware in the yards. The loss is about $30,000. The factory will be rebuilt.

Clarence M. Welch, the former M. E. preacher of Nashville, who was held as the father of the child of Miss Mina Carter, who was a girl singer in his church, pleaded the poor debtor's act and was released by Circuit Court Commissioner Verkerke. He was at once re-arrested for non-support. He has been in jail because he refused to obey a court order and contribute to the child's support.

In the inquest in the case of the child born to Miss Mary Van Tassel in Battle Creek the girl's mother, Mrs. William Van Tassel, admitted the child was born alive, saying it was drowned in a jar of water in which it fell and that she was too busy to remove it.

An explosion of gas in the big lime kiln at the Memuming sugar factory recently burned instant Superintendent Weber and slightly injured several others. Weber's hair was nearly all burned off, his mustache and eyebrows entirely burned, and the skin burned from his hands. His clothing was blazing in 20 places when he was picked up.

That No. 12 is a hoodoo Grant Wilson of Fort Huron is now convinced, but he had deliberately dared it to do his worst for some time. No. 13 was the local license number of Grant's automobile, and No. 1313 was the state license, so what else could you expect but an explosion of gasoline which destroyed the auto and stove and gave Wilson the scare of his life.

The Grand Rapids council has decided to start the work of preventing a recurrence of the disastrous floods by removing this fall the rock obstructions in the river bed. For this purpose $10,000 is appropriated. Peace Treaty Signed. The emperor of Russia and the emperor of Japan Saturday morning signed their respective copies of the peace treaty, thus officially ending the Russo-Japanese war.

A few minutes after the signing of the peace treaty, the state department of the emperor of Japan had signed the treaty at Tokio. A cablegram was immediately dispatched to Spencer Ed-wards, charge of the American embassy at St. Petersburg, who was instructed to inform the Russian foreign office that the emperor of Japan had performed his part, and so both copies of the treaty having been duly signed, and each of the great nations lately engaged in hostilities having been officially informed of the fact, the Russo-Japanese war which began February 8, 1904, with the attack by Togo's fleet upon the Russian ships at Port Arthur, terminated officially Saturday, October 14.

Another Peace Parley. The state department has made public the invitation of the Russian government to a second conference at The Hague and the president's response. These take the shape of two memoranda. The first memorandum is a mere recital of the opportunity of another conference with the promise to submit a detailed program to Russia, when the congress meets.

The president's memorandum is a hearty acceptance of the invitation and a request that the president be invited to attend. It is a mere recital of the opportunity of another conference with the promise to submit a detailed program to Russia, when the congress meets.

Does Not Like Display. The vatican guards are to be disbanded owing to the pope's aversion to military display. The date of the disbanding has not yet been decided upon, but meanwhile for the first time in the history of the vatican furloughs have been granted, and Conte Camillo Pecci, commander of the guards, is preparing to leave the vatican for reasons of economy, those provisions of the vatican laws which suppress the service entirely, during the holidays.

Tired of Governing. Luke E. Wright, governor-general of the Philippines and president of the commission, will retire about December. He is expected to arrive in the United States during that month, and is entitled to six months' leave of absence prior to the formal relinquishment of his labors. It is understood that he expects to return to Nashville, Tenn., to resume the practice of law.

President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft, it is believed, practically have decided upon the successor to Gen. Wright, but no intimation as to his permitted to enter the public ear to his preference. It can be stated reasonably definitely that Gen. Wright's successor will not be a man now connected with the commission.

Against Cuba's Interests. Information from Cuba that there is growing dissatisfaction there with the terms of the proposed Anglo-Cuban treaty has developed the fact that the Washington government thoroughly appreciates the reasons of the Cuban people for objecting to the treaty. The official view is that the treaty is distinctly disadvantageous to Cuba in that it precludes that country from renewing with the United States her reciprocal treaty which under the present arrangement is effective only for five years. The Anglo-Cuban treaty, it is pointed out, gives practically no benefits to Cuba and shuts her off from receiving advantageous treatment at the hands of the United States.

Peoria, Ill., Financiers. The grand jury has returned a true bill against Oliver J. FAT SALARIES.

Richard A. McCurdy, president of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., was again the principal witness at the insurance investigation in New York on Tuesday. His complaints that the investigation is becoming an inquisition brought out some tart comment from Chief Counsel Hughes for the committee. Questions regarding dividends on a certain policy seemed too much for the witness.

Mr. Hughes read a letter from a Mutual policyholder who took out a policy in 1885 for $2,000 on the ten-year plan and received $150,000 salary, was $55.75; in 1881 it was cut to $39; in 1891 it was still reduced to $20 and in 1904 to $3. All this in spite of a big increase in reserve every year.

"How do you account for it?" queried Mr. Hughes of Mr. McCurdy. "In the wrong witness, sir. It is the actuary you want. He calculates dividends," was the reply.

"I am trying to find out what you know about your company," explained Mr. Hughes to the evident discomfort of the witness. "You are president of the company and receive $150,000 salary, combined salaries of the president of the banks of England and Germany."

"You put a witness on the rack, why should not he shut his mouth up?" said Mr. McCurdy. "When a witness comes here and tells from me, his testimony in executive session to see what further steps should be taken; but to attempt to drag from a witness another than he knows makes him feel like a criminal."

Mr. Hughes then brought out that salaries had been slightly reduced in the reforms of clerical force and general agencies. "I have not reduced the salaries of the executive officers; they were never cut. They were none too fat, anyway," said Mr. McCurdy.

County Fair Wiped Out. While the races at the Crawford county, Ohio, county fair this afternoon were on, the grand stand was discovered to be on fire. A panic followed the first announcement. Spectators in the grand stand rushed for the exit and soon blocked the only passage to safety. Excited women, children and men leaped over the fence from the stand upon the track, 12 feet and many were injured.

Those who left the grand stand last were badly burned, as the big pile building went like tinder. Within three minutes after the fire was discovered the stand was wrapped in flames. The fire was caught only by time and was driven across the grounds, communicating from building to building.

A mass of flame from the building played upon an acre of implements, buggies and windmills, destroying them. Women in charge of children, children and men leaped over the fence to their personal belongings and escape.

In less than an hour the entire fair was wiped out.

Komura's Return. When Baron Komura returned to Tokio his reception at the railroad station was not particularly brilliant, his party being principally government dignitaries. The streets were strongly guarded by troops, police and gendarmes.

The emperor showed exceptional honor to Komura by dispatching to Yokohama, where he landed from the Empress of India, Col. Inouye, his minister of state, who went along side the steamer in a dispatch boat and brought Komura ashore.

While the baron was on his way to Tokio by train Col. Inouye constantly kept at Komura's side, and on arrival they drove together to the palace in an imperial carriage sent from the emperor's side-department. The emperor immediately received Baron Komura, and during the audience, which lasted over an hour, it is believed the baron made a full verbal report to the emperor of the course of the peace negotiations, emphasizing President Roosevelt's efforts in behalf of peace.

In the close of the audience the emperor honored the baron with a written personal message, highly prized by Japanese statesmen. The message expressed satisfaction at the fact that peace was concluded and commended Komura's services as shown during the negotiations.

LATE NEWS

The Oregon Land Frauds Are Up to Congressman Williamson.

CHINESE LAWS TO BE FIXED Senator Elkins Gives a Tip That's Interesting.

The Peoria Scandal Brings a Harvest of Disaster, Dishonor and Death Among Residents of the Illinois City.

Oregon Land Frauds. John Newton Williamson, congressman from the second Oregon district, convicted of subornation of perjury in connection with land frauds in Oregon, was sentenced by Judge Hunt in the United States court Saturday to serve ten months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $500. He was also reprimanded by the court for his failure to set a good example in his exalted public position.

Marion R. Biggs, formerly United States commissioner, was given an equal penalty.

In the case of Dr. Van Gesner, convicted of being a fellow conspirator to suborn perjury, the term of imprisonment was because of the defendant's age and feebleness, reduced one-half and the fine was doubled. Van Gesner was Williamson's partner in the sheep business.

Appeals are pending and a stay of execution was made pending a further order of the court. Meanwhile Congressman Williamson will go free on his own recognizance, but a bond of $4,000 was required of the other two defendants. As the term of imprisonment is less than one year, the sentence must be served in the county jail.

Chinese Exclusion Laws. The first of the senators to voice the opinion that Chinese exclusion laws will be handled for modification at the next session of congress is Senator Elkins. He will urge more "liberal laws."

It is believed here that he will introduce a bill for the modification of the Chinese exclusion laws. Senator Elkins is now apparently beginning where the president and Secretaries Root and Taft stopped. The president and these two secretaries went as far as possible in amending "regulations," which amendments were a sop to the anti-American sentiment in Canton and Shanghai. Further requests for modification were refused, it is understood, after a cabinet meeting with the subject. It is apparent to Senator Elkins that there can be no change, indirectly or directly, in Chinese exclusion, no matter what kind of treaty be made. The statute laws will be supreme.

Senator Elkins's attitude, however, for modification is interesting and shows where the fight is to be made.

Peoria's Scandal Results. The Dougherty scandal has claimed another victim. Driven to desperation and nervous prostration by worry over the disclosures compromising his bank and fear of a disastrous run, Nelson Burnham, a venerable stockholder in the Peoria National bank, died suddenly Friday night, aged 79 years.

Mr. Burnham owned 150 shares of stock and had been connected with the bank thirty years. He settled in Peoria fifty years ago. His wealth was estimated at $500,000.

Following close on the death Thursday night of C. L. Lins, a former bank official, also caused by the shock of the scandal, the community is impressed by the far-reaching effect of the Dougherty affair.

Raises White Pine. That white pine reforestation is a success is being demonstrated by Samuel H. Bridges, owner of one of the largest farms in Dickinson county. In closed in Mr. Bridges' 1,280 acres of land is a tract of 80 acres along the Sturgeon river, where trees were burned over 13 years ago, the fire killing every tree. There are now on this land about 5,000 young white pine trees. Some of them were trimmed up six years ago, and they have attained a height of 25 feet and are from 10 to 12 inches in diameter at the base. It is Mr. Bridges' intention to have the rest of them trimmed this fall, and he is satisfied that in 20 years more he will have a valuable tract of timber.

JOAN OF THE SWORD HAND

By S. R. CROCKETT, Author of "The Rattlesnake"

"How could you," demanded Joan, "the soldier's laugh, 'shabby'?"

"Well," answered Margaret, still resentful and unconcerned, "I don't have come that before we were married. And it is only the first day we have been together, too, sister—"

And she buried her head in her kerchief.

Then came a knocking at the door. "Enter," cried Joan imperiously, yet with a little gladness of the interruption.

Werner von Orselin stood in the portal. "My lady," he said, "will you not take the Count von Loen leave his sword and rest and succubine."

"Oh, yes, he does not," said the Princess Margaret, "how dare you say it, fellow? He thinks of me? Why, even now—"

She looked once more out of the window, a smile upon her face. Instantly she drew in her head again and sprang to her feet.

"Oh, he is gone," I cannot see him after he has seen me," Joan, I am going to find him. He should not go away without bidding me goodbye."

"That she will not do," said Joan, "she should not go without bidding me goodbye."

"You are a fool," said Joan, "she should not go without bidding me goodbye."
