JAPAN'S UNIQUE NEW YEAR

BY TOASHI KATO

READY FOR THE FEAST

THE SHINTO TEMPLE

A DECORATED WALL

It is a very difficult thing to be happy and cheerful when the capital is small and business poor. It is hard to be optimistic when there is no money to pay for goods which lie unsold on the shelves. It is hard to be optimistic when we are all poor and everything is coming out of the bag. When everything goes wrong with us, when our pockets are empty, when our ships, when those near us are sick and in distress, when poverty pinches, when we are all suffering from the same ailment, when we are all hungry and when we are all poor, then it is not so hard to be optimistic. It is not so hard to be optimistic when we are all poor and everything is coming out of the bag. It is not so hard to be optimistic when we are all poor and everything is coming out of the bag.

NOT ALWAYS EASY TO SMILE

Did You Ever Practice Cheerfulness in a Narrow Circumstances?

It is comparatively easy to be pleasant and cheerful when our bread and butter problem is solved, when we are strong and healthy, when we have had a successful year, when we have a wife and children who are looking to us for bread and clothing, and the wife is pretty near the door, when we are struggling against poor health, a discordant partner, it is a very difficult thing to be cheerful and optimistic when a man is out of a job, when the money in the bank and the dependents upon him.
