Women and Police of Many Cities in the United States...

San Francisco, July 10.—John Madison, wanted for bigamy in nearly every large city in the United States, and many of the smaller ones, was arrested by the police of this city.

The authorities here have already established his marriage to Mrs. M. G. Johnson. He stoutly maintained his denial that he is Madison.

The women whom Madison married are Mrs. Elizabeth O. N. E. Madison, of Iowa, Kan., from whom he is said to have secured $1,000; Miss Minnie Allen, 1418 S. Madison street, St. Louis, who lost $1,000 before she was married; Mrs. M. G. Johnson, of St. Louis, who lost $1,000; Mrs. Maggie E. Blom, of St. Louis, who lost $1,000; Mrs. M. G. Johnson, of St. Louis, who lost $1,000; Mrs. M. G. Johnson, of St. Louis, who lost $1,000.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL. Buckle up, black and red raspberry are now on the market, black and red.

No many farmers are seen in town these days and all are busy harvesting hay and grain.

We have had several cold showers this week but in spite of them the weather continues hot.

The street commissioner has been paying gravel where it was not needed, on Exchange place.

Haessler has some fine new view cards of our village, which he advertises in another column.

The gutters on Exchange place were cleaned, Monday, and the improvement was very noticeable.

A party of ladies enjoyed a porch party and picnic supper Tuesday with Misses Elizabeth and Marian Farrell.

E. B. Brzezinski has taken extra space in our paper this week to advertise his July sale. It will pay all to read it.

The ball game yesterday between our boys and the Common City team resulted in a score of 10 to 8 in favor of the latter.

Another new book added to the library is "Fighting Chances" by Robert Chambers. It was presented by Mr. E. L. Idings of Lansing.

To advertise his July sale of dry goods, shoes, etc., G. H. Brettonmacher has had his picture taken and does not fail to show it on left at your house.

Here Fisher M. A. principal of the mechanical academy at Detroit, Kr. will speak at the M. E. church Sunday morning and at Sharon in the afternoon.

Rev. C. P. Deyo will speak on the following topics at the universalist church Sunday, July 18th: Morning: "The Good and the Beautiful Evening: 'The Sleep and the Gods'."

In order to save quickly into store length a quantity of cedar railroad ties which N. Senger has in his yard, Arthur Jaeger moved his portable engine over to the rear of his store and the work was done with neatness and dispatch.

For years the residents of our village had resorted to the abandoned of the depot here, and any day could hear remarks of ridicule and disgust from strangers who had come to wait for trains. But they were compelled to wait for trains. But they were compelled to wait for trains. But they were compelled to wait for trains.

The testimony in the Hitchcock will come all in and the case will be ready for trial on Monday. Dr. Conklin is represented by Lawyers Waters, Caravanagh and F. M. Freeman. The persons concerned with the case are Henry Hitchcock of Jackson, Harry Kildor of Lansing, N. Y., S. Edward Hitchcock of Conness, N. Y., and Charles Hitchcock of Pittsburg, Pa., cousin of the deceased. They are represented by Lawyers Lawrence and Norris. Judge Island has taken the matter under advisement and has not yet made his decision.
