TRANSPORTING OUR TROOPS.

The world has been astonished at the great number of American soldiers transported to Europe in the last half year. The number now approximates 1,500,000 and the loss of life in transporting them has been infinitesimal.

The success with which we have moved our troops from the scattered camps in this country and across 5,000 miles of ocean to the battle front is great evidence of American efficiency. We have not only surprised our enemies; we have surprised our friends and ourselves.

The British controller of shipping, Sir Joseph Maclay, speaks of this movement across the sea as "a transport miracle." We have been inclined to attribute this achievement solely to our navy and our shipping, but the British controller speaks in high praise of the share the American railroads had in the work. He says:

"If the American railroads had not been operated with success the whole transport movement might have failed, because it was essential to quick transportation that the troops should be ready for the ships." Director General McAdoo seems justified in his statement that while the development of the policy of the Railroad Administration requires time, progress has been made toward the goal.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick of the Manchester hotel have received word from their son Emil, written at a base hospital somewhere in France, saying he was recovering from a shot through the right shoulder. He says when they went over the top they cleaned out the first lot of Boches but in encountering the second wall a machine gun bullet went through his shoulder and put his arm out of commission, though he is retaining use of it now and is anxious to get back into the game.

All male persons who have reached their twenty-first birthday since June 5, 1918, and on or before August 24, 1918, must register on August 24. These men should consult their local draft boards as to how and where they should register.

FRENCH LIKE YANKEES

Yankees Like Home News, So Says Harry Crowe, Now Fighting "Over There."

Letter No. 2.
Pauliac Gironde, France,
July 28, 1918.

My Dear Friend Blosser:
I have received four of your welcome papers to date but did not write because I expected a letter every day from you, although we have received no letters this week.

There has been a great many papers, I am well and getting along fine and am kept pretty busy. Every one is up and on their toes over here just now. The weather is awful hot and dry although the nights are nice and cool and a person can get his rest. I was very much pleased to get your papers. Although we get lots of news here there is nothing just like the real news right from home and as that is the only information which I have received from Manchester I was more than glad to get them.

I was also interested in the reading of an article by a Manchester boy by the name of Kirchgessner on the trials of his trip over. Now we are not allowed to write nearly as much as he, or we could give you a good long story, which I shall have to save for you until I return.

Everything looks very favorable over here for the boys from the U. S. A. I tell you the French people think a great deal of the boys from America and speak very highly of them.

Well, I guess I have said about all I can for this time so will close for this writing, with many thanks for the papers and best wishes to you and your family.

Very truly yours,
HARRY F. CROWE,
C. S. M., U. S. N. R. F.
U. S. Naval Forces,
Pauliac Gironde, France.
In care Postmaster, New York.

For Sale.—Potato Crates, my own make; give orders now and be ready; $1.80 per dozen. John Miller.

MONEY FOR SOLDIERS

Red Cross Adds to Treasury Through Large And Successful Program At Wampler Lake.

The weather was ideal and the crowd a large one that gathered at The Farm, Wampler lake, Sunday afternoon to listen to the address by Mrs. Jenny Law Hardy of Tecumseh, enjoy a program of music and contribute to a collection for the Manchester branch of the American Red Cross.

A. J. Waters set the ball rolling with remarks of the right sort and introduced a program of vocal selections by the orchestra whose services were contributed by Landlord Nisle.

Mrs. Hardy began her address by explaining the various flags of her fine collection and wore into the history of each the patriotic spirit that gave them life. Mrs. Hardy has traveled extensively in the old countries and gave a specially graphic description of her life, experiences and impressions in Germany previous to the war. At that time she was able to discern the intention of Germany to rule not only the countries on that side, but to cross the ocean and force her ideas, language and government upon America. Germany at that time was so cocksure of her ability to do all she desired that open boasts of what was the program were common.

Mrs. Hardy spoke with a spirit of conviction and patriotism that brought round after round of applause and she was personally thanked by many for her splendid work in placing before the people the long fostered intentions of Germany and arousing the patriotic spirit of our people to resist their oppression to the end.

Following the program Misses Nellie Ackerson, Edith White, Hazel Fitzpatrick, Gaita Waters and Emilie Jenter, garbed as Red Cross nurses, came forward and Captain Waters detailed members of the Home Guards to accompany them about the grounds to receive contributions. When they returned it was found the splendid sum of $110 had been received.

At this time a commotion and several shots in the direction of the dance hall were heard and Home Guards appeared with a captive who proved to be the Kaiser, or at least one who bore a close resemblance. He was brought forward and after a fierce denunciation by Judge Waters and a due confession of his guilt he was ordered shot. The Guards lined up at the shore end of the dock and the Kaiser "got his."

Of course with the Kaiser deal, peace reigned once more and the large crowd turned to various amusements for the balance of the afternoon.

Good for Daniels. Under a general order, issued Aug. 18 by Secretary Daniels, intoxicating liquors cannot be sold or served to enlisted men, under any condition.

FIVE DOLLARS FOR 35c

It Surely Pays to Use Enterprise "Liners" for Advertising Every Week.

It is scarcely necessary for us to say that Enterprise liners bring results, for the fact is generally known. However, there are people who lose articles and even money, who neglect to advertise them. Often a person says why should I throw away good money advertising for that money I lost. A person would be a d-d fool to give up the money. Our answer is, if that is the way you feel about it, we hope that you will never find money that is lost. But, we know from long experience that most people are honest, and will return even money to the rightful owner if he advertises for it. We have a recent case to prove it. Harvey Anthony's little boy lost a pocket book with $5 in it and advertised for it in last week's Enterprise. In a few days the pocket book and money was returned by the finder. Frequently we have people come to the office and ask if anybody has brought an article in to be advertised, and when we ask them why they do not advertise, they say, "If the finder advertises it, I will pay for the advertising." Again we have people say "If the party wants what he has lost, let him advertise for it, I won't," and so it goes.

Edward Frensdorf of Hudson, who has been acting as warden of Jackson prison was compelled to step down and out because the board of control has elected Harry L. Hulbert of Detroit to act in that capacity.

For Sale.—My residence, also 2 1/2 vacant lots in Village of Manchester. Mrs. William Lehr.

MORE COVER CROPS NEEDED.

Our eastern farmers have learned the great benefits from using cover crops such as rye, vetch, etc. Practically every field in this country from which the crop such as corn or potatoes is taken late in the fall remains bare during the winter. The rains and snows wash and erode the land and wash away the fertility of the soil. This month is the time to sow cover crops in the standing corn. Just as soon as the potatoes are dug, sow rye on the land. Don't allow any land to pass through the winter without a protecting cover. The cover crop when turned under in the spring adds much humus to the soil.

Early Purchases Mean Economy

Early in the year we placed big orders for fall merchandise. This merchandise is now arriving and is being placed on sale. It is priced very low, and later we will not be able to replace much of it in the wholesale market at the prices we are now offering it to you.

We need room and the balance of our late summer stocks is being closed out at greater reductions than we ordinarily give.

Coats and Suits

We have bought good coats and suits for fall—in all-wool materials. Many of these materials will not be replaced until the war is over.

It is dishonorable to present qualities that are not dependable. A merchant is in duty bound to protect the confidence that people place in him. A patron gives money of honest quality to the merchant and he in turn must give honest merchandise in exchange. That is the attitude which prompts us to offer only merchandise of known good quality.

New Serge and Wool Jersey Dresses on Display

A very complete showing of new fall dresses, such as bottle green, brown, burgundy, rookie, navy, and black. Many tunic effects and braided models as well as plain tailored styles. Suitable for both large and small women.

New Silk Dresses

There is a youthful charm in the newly arrived models that make them very attractive. ## An Endorsement of Truman H. Newberry for United States Senator from Michigan

Prominently Identified with the Agricultural Interests of Michigan

BELIEVING as we do that Michigan should elect this fall a United States Senator who is, and has been, interested in and conversant with public affairs; a man of sound judgment, and continuity of purpose; a man whose one hundred per cent patriotism cannot be questioned; and a man who has given sufficient study and thought to the matter of national and international policies to enable him to determine for himself where he stands and what he stands for; and believing that Truman H. Newberry, of Detroit, conforms to this standard, we endorse his candidacy and agree to support him at the primaries and at the election.
