SILAGE FOR HORSES

Experiments at M. A. C. Show That Equines Thrive on It in Winter if Properly Handled.

East Lansing, Nov. 20.—Owners of horses in Michigan can get partially around the prevailing high feed prices if they will use silage for part of the ration fed their equines, a press bulletin from the Michigan Agricultural College declares. This report tells of the results of experiments in feeding silage to horses at the college during a period covering a number of years.

"Where silage is available, it can be used to good advantage as the basis of the ration," the report states. "For several years the experiment station of the college has fed a number of horses each winter on a silage ration, under the supervision of a farm superintendent. The horses so fed have for the most part been the young animals from two to five years of age. They were carried through a feeding period of from 10 to 12 weeks on silage and straw, without grain. A ration consisting of a fair quality of silage without straw was sufficient to produce slight gains in weight, and leave the horses in improved condition at the end of the 11-weeks feeding period. The horses were allowed all the silage they would clean up, and oat straw in excess, the refuse being used for their bedding.

feeding silage which is very sour, as digestive disturbances are apt to follow, especially when full feed is allowed. With a good quality of silage, as high as 40 pounds per head daily was consumed by horses weighing 1,500 pounds without any signs of digestive trouble. Frozen silage should never be fed.

"In these experiments the horses were allowed to run loose in a shed, with adjoining yards for exercise. They were fed from a common trough and had access to water at all times."

HOLD TIGHT TO YOUR BONDS.

The United States Government is resolved to do its best to restore every wounded American soldier and sailor to health, strength and self-supporting activity.

Every Liberty Bond holder who holds his bond is keeping up a part of this great work. Until his discharge from the hospital all medical and surgical treatment necessary to restore him to health is under the jurisdiction of the military or naval authorities, according to the branch of the service he is in. The vocational training, the reeducation and rehabilitation necessary to restore him to self-supporting activity, is under the jurisdiction of the Federal Board for Vocational Education.

If he needs an artificial limb or mechanical appliances the government will supply it free, will keep it in repair, and renew it when necessary. If after his discharge he again needs medical treatment on account of his disability, the government will supply it free. While he is in the hospital and while in training afterwards the soldier or sailor will receive compensation as if in service and his family or dependents will receive their allotment.

A wounded soldier or sailor, although his disability does not prevent him from returning to employment without training, can take a course of vocational training free of cost and the compensation provided by the war risk insurance act will be paid to him and his training will be free, but no allotment will be paid to his family.

Do not surrender your Liberty Bond conditionally or unconditionally. Hold fast to that which is good. Keep your Liberty Bonds.

START A BAT ROOST.

Dr. Charles A. Campbell of San Antonio, Texas, recommended to the Southern Medical Association the starting of bat roosts. "The malaria mosquito and the bat," said he "are both nocturnal and the mosquito furnishes 90 per cent of the bat's food. All that is needed to combat the mosquito and resultant malaria is to furnish the bat with a home. A roost similar to the method in keeping bees in one's back yard will keep the bat out of his home and will return after a night's foraging. In my back yard I have many of the sanitary workers.

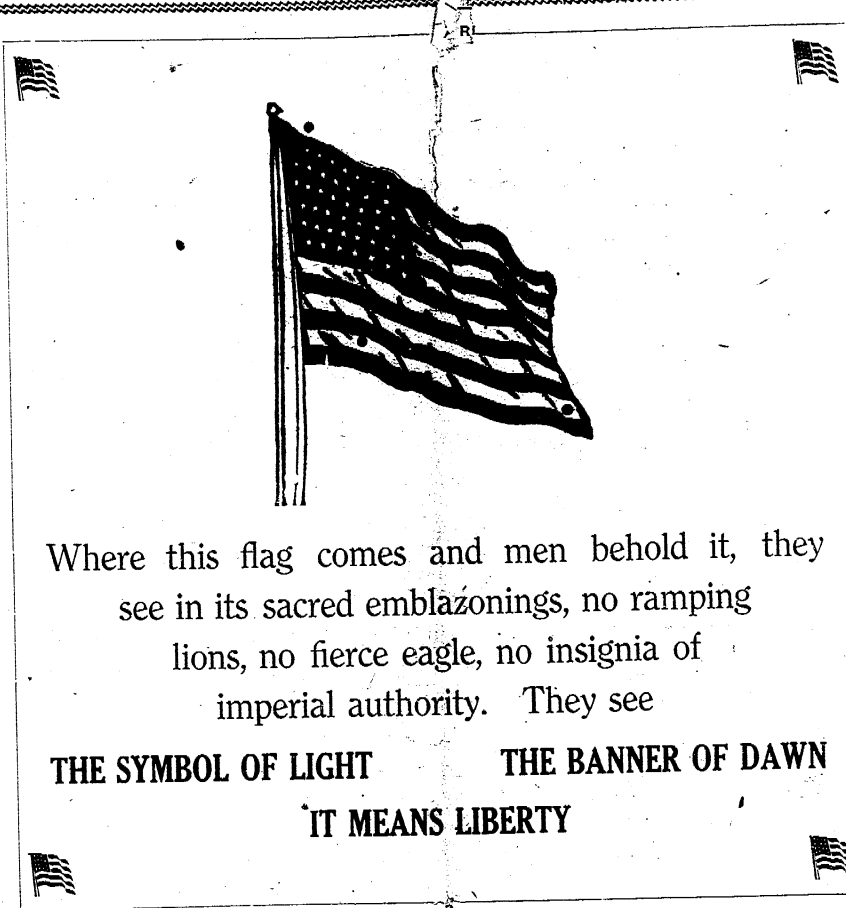

That might be a valuable suggestion for Michigan summer resorts to act upon. Even here in Manchester we could better enjoy sitting on our front porches of a summer evening were it not for the troublesome mosquitoes. Get posted on the bat roost and increase your happiness.

FARMERS TO LEARN BUSINESS.

Manistee county farmers will take a course in business methods this winter, an educational program being arranged by Frank Sandhammer, the county agricultural agent, so as to get every farmer on a firm business footing with regard to his accounts.

PRUNING HALTS APPLE CANKER.

If orchardists will practice fall pruning, the trouble known as apple canker, which has caused much loss to fruit growers, can be controlled, says a M. A. C. report.

Where this flag comes and men behold it, they see in its sacred emblazonings, no ramping lions, no fierce eagle, no insignia of imperial authority. They see THE SYMBOL OF LIGHT THE BANNER OF DAWN IT MEANS LIBERTY

FATHER FRANCIS F. DUFFY LAUDS WAR RELIEF WORK

Best Known and Loved American Chaplain in France Says Soldiers Could Not Do Without Assistance of Accredited Agencies.

Paris, Oct. 17. (By Mail)—Father Francis Patrick Duffy, best-known and loved American Chaplain in France, after months of continuous campaigning with the American Expeditionary Force, has returned to his home in a few weeks.

A good deal of information that has come from Washington has been responsible for this, we must admit, but we cannot believe such news reliable; at any rate the government continues its appeal for money for the various war aids and without money the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., K. of C., Salvation Army, etc. cannot continue their services. Any person who knows anything about army life understands that there is great need of them all being continued until every soldier is mustered out, and we all know well enough that that will not take place in many months.

It would be unwise for the government to renege—well, we will stop right here and say that they will not renege any of those helps and we must come forward promptly and raise our quota.

It is as much dishonor to desert the boys now, after they have done such good fighting as it would have been for them to desert the colors.

Come along now, we need several thousand dollars to meet our share of the responsibility. A few of our citizens, one school district in Bridgewater have done their duty and a few from Sharon and Freedom have responded, but put it all together and it is a mere handful. Unless you volunteer you will certainly have to be asked. Please don't let that be said before we can enter the place of blessing. Jacob came to realize that he had been struggling with God, for he called the place "Peniel," which means "face to face with God."

WASHTENAW COUNTY

The eastern division good roads commission has given out that they will continue the project of building concrete roads, and next spring work will be done west of Ann Arbor.

The French Army Band of 61 pieces, now touring this country under the auspices of the French High Commission at the special request of the United States War Department, will give a concert in Hill Auditorium, Ann Arbor, Saturday evening, Nov. 23, for the benefit of French soldiers. The organization will appear under the auspices of the Washtenaw War Board, Mayor Wurster and the University School of Music. The band will play on the field during the football game between U. of M. and M. A. C. that afternoon.

John B. Downey, the newly appointed chief inspector of the state drug and food commissions in Wayne county, says get the men. "I don't see what good it does to seize any quantity of smuggled liquor, so long as the men who smuggled it can get away and bring more liquor into the state. It only involves loss of the money paid for the goods in Ohio and the expense of bringing it over the line, and this can be made up on the next shipment."

"FATHER DAY" FOR LETTERS.

The Stars and Stripes, the organ of the American expeditionary forces, has arranged for Nov. 24 as the day for all the American troops to write home to father. It is planned that "father's day" shall be as successful as "mother's day." May 12, last. It is hoped the fathers will write to their sons on the same day.

UNITED WAR FUND LOW

The Boys Must Not Be Deserted Nor Allowed to Suffer Want of Comforts Now.

There has been but little money subscribed in this town towards the United War Fund. The signing of peace terms and a cessation of fighting may have caused people to think that there is no longer any necessity of boys would be at home in a few weeks.

A. J. Waters and J. J. Farrell took a supply of Red Cross work to headquarters in Ann Arbor Monday morning.

Manchester was not reached at the annual meeting held in Ann Arbor Sunday, the unfavorable condition of the weather kept several away.

Although much of the hospital work has been stopped, there is still plenty of work on hand for the local branch and yarn is expected soon for a new quota of knitting.

Notice comes from the Michigan board of the Red Cross that the membership campaign this year will take place the week of Dec. 16 to 23 and will be known as the Red Cross Christmas Roll. This is a membership campaign only and has nothing to do with contributions or receiving of funds.

The following rural teachers have organized Junior Red Cross in their schools with 100 per cent memberships: Misses Alice Jenkins, Short district, Bridgewater; Hulda Feldkamp, No. 6, Sharon; Mabel Rudisler, Spafard district, Manchester; Emma Schlicht, district No. 8, Freedom; Mathilda Biehmeier, Freedom, Nellie Davenport, Freedom.

During the year 75 complete knitted outfits with comfort kits have been given to the boys. The following supplies have been sent to the county headquarters at Ann Arbor: 83 sweaters, 589 pairs of socks, 161 helmets, 71 pairs of wristlets, 131

200 BILLION COST OF THE WAR.

Washington, Nov. 20.—The direct cost of the war for all belligerent nations to May 1 last was reported at $175,000,000,000 by the federal reserve bulletin, and it is estimated that the cost before the end of the year will reach $200,000,000,000. These calculations were compiled from various sources and the board believes the figures are substantially correct.

MEXICO HAS ADOPTED A GOLD STANDARD OF CURRENCY.

No more men will be accepted in the Student Army Training Corps at M. A. C., according to word given out by the college authorities a few days ago. Orders from the war department announce that all induction of men into these units over the country will cease until further notice. The men already in are expected to be allowed to continue their work, probably for the remainder of the year.

NEARLY BURNED OUT

Kerosene Heater Responsible for Fire—Flames Extinguished Ere House Burns.

There came near being a serious conflagration at the home of George Braun of the Manchester Auto Co., last Friday afternoon.

Mr. Braun rented one of C. E. Lewis' houses lately occupied by C. E. Rebert, on Jackson street, some time ago and moved his household goods here from Ann Arbor. He planned on bringing Mrs. Braun and their baby boy here Sunday, so on Friday built a fire in the heating stove and lighted a kerosene stove in a bedroom to warm and dry out the rooms. On leaving the house some time after he closed the heating stove but did not think of the kerosene stove in the bedroom.

About 5 o'clock neighbors phoned to the garage that it looked as though there was a fire in the house and asked if anyone was there. Mr. Braun and his partner, Elmer Klump made a run in their fast-service car and found the house so full of smoke that they could not enter. They finally succeeded in getting in by crawling along the floor, and extinguished flames on a leather rocker, some clothing, etc. The kerosene fire had gone out but not until it had set fire to window curtains, carpet, etc., and charred woodwork about the window.

When the smoke cleared away all was a sorry sight, though not much burned. George will not ask his wife to take up abode there for several days, or until considerable cleaning is done. They are at present guests of Mr. and Mrs. Klump.

KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNING

Mikey and Jakey were brothers. Jakey felt it his duty to go across and help Uncle Sam. After Jakey had been across for a while, Mikey wrote Jakey saying he had had a bad fire but had collected the insurance and wanted to know what to do. Jakey writes back and says: "Build a larger store, put in a larger stock and take out more insurance." After a time another disastrous fire occurs. He again writes his brother wanting to know what to do and Jakey writes back: "Build a still larger store, put in a bigger stock and take out a lot more insurance," and ends by saying: "You know we must all keep the home fires burning."

Business is too good to have any fires these days and we are not anxious to collect any insurance, but we are anxious to collect a few of those accounts standing for two years or longer. If we get sore and force collection it will be because we were forced to it.

Because so many of our boys were engaged in pushing the Hun out of France and could not get the parcels labels which entitle them to get a Christmas package, an extension to Nov. 30 has been granted, so if you get a label step quick and your boy over there may have a Christmas present after all. Relatives who receive no label may send a package, but must agree not to send another even if the label is afterward received.

President Wilson is considering the appointment of a reconstruction commission, selecting men who have the qualifications of handling so momentous a project without stopping industrial works. The shipping industry will probably not yet be slackened, as we shall need more ships. It will be a mighty problem for the commission to solve and men connected with it will need to give their entire time to its consideration.

The newspaper publishers of this county have received the thanks of the administration in keeping secret the movement of ships, troops, etc., preventing the enemy from making undue advantage. We all like to publish a piece of startling news but love of country prompted all to keep mum.
