Approves C.O.D. Rule Change

Mail fraud schemes connected with collect-on-delivery (C.O.D.) mail will be significantly reduced as a result of action taken by the Board of Governors of the U.S. Postal Service recently.

The Postal Inspection Service estimates that consumer and business losses due to C.O.D. fraud are in excess of $13 million annually and could approach $75 million a year. In 1985, based on the only number of open Inspeciton Service cases involving C.O.D. fraud, approximately 600,000 parcels - five percent of all C.O.D. packages - were directly connected to some deceptive scheme.

Board approval of a change in Postal Service rules will allow heart disease. High blood C.O.D. parcel recipients the disease, obesity, and other factors option of paying by check made out to the mailer. The change will take effect no later than June 7.

The existing regulation This three-hour class is free of with free parking requires payment to be made either by check made payable to the Postal Service or by cash. A postal money order is then issued and sent to the mailer. The rule change will give consumers a self-help method of combating fraud: If there is some problem with the merchandise. the addressee can stop payment on the check before it is received and cashed by the mailer. Instead of receiving a Postal Service money order or having the article returned, the mailer would

Scholarship Uniform Savings

After discussion, it was decided that we would donate $100 to the Manchester High School Council Community Scholarship Fund for 1987 as we have in past years. OLD BUSINESS

There is no old business at this NEW BUSINESS

The immediate business was to decide how to handle scholarships to Blue Lake this year since the amount of money available is very low compared to past years. The policy in the past has been to pay half of the amount required for tuition, for each student desiring to attend Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp. After discussion, the Board decided to provide 1/4 scholarships ($90), which would then allow 10 students to participate. We have also been given two $180 scholarships from Marshall Music Co. for specialized

The problem was brought up to Director Margaret Hurbis that some of the younger students that are taking lessons from High Schoolers are not showing up and are not letting the High Schoolers know ahead of time. It was decided that the policy would be to require payment for the lesson if not properly notified in advance.

Future ideas were introduced

THE MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 1987 by Ms. Hurbis for next year's EMU Recognizes consideration. These involve bringing in specialized clinicians for more private lessons than Blue Lake affords. We would reach more students this way and it would be much more personalized. We should begin to let everyone know that we will probably not fund Blue Lake next year in lieu of developing our own programs, and private lessons. We would still encourage students to attend Lake, but without

Our girls played three games this week. On Thursday, they faced with Dreadnaughts from Dexter, and their hurler tossed a 3-hitter to down us 4-0. Saturday we trekked to Stockbridge for a doubleheader. We dropped the first game 3-2, but came back to win the second contest 10-9. The key hitters were Kim Lockridge, Rockie Weber and Erin Davis. Pitchers for the day were Nikole Reinhart and Jennifer Barnard.

On Thursday, our boys met Dexter in two games. We fell in the first game 7-3, but fought back in the second to post our first victory of the season, 4-3. On Saturday, we helped host Manchester-Chelsea Tournament. Unfortunately, by the day's end we stood 0-3 in the win column. The scoring went as follows: Fenton won a close contest against us, 8-7; Gabriel Richard won 6-3; and Chelsea overpowered us 4-0. having two or more hits were Shawn Nickerson, Tim Golding, Scott Gross, Tom Golding and Jon Kempher. In the first game, Bryan Barnard and Bart Rickelmann pitched to Andy Hunt and John Korican. In the second game, Tom Golding caught for Bart Rickelmann. In the final game, Tom Golding and Tim McGinn tossed to Bart Rickelmann and Andy Hunt.

Boys Track

HANOVER HORTON 79,

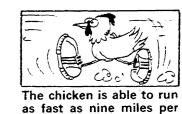

MANCHESTER 58

Despite running on a dirt track, the boys team did very well at Hanover. The track was a definite advantage to the Comets. Brad Uphouse and Denny Steele started the scoring with 1st places in the long jump - 16'9" and discus - 96'734". Then our 2 mile relay team of Jon Arney, Brian Weidmayer, Steve Andrews, and Lewis Major got us going with a 1st place finish. Dan Platt scored three 2nds in the 100 dash, 220 dash and 440 dash, and was a member of our winning mile relay (Jon Arney, Brad Uphouse, Steve place. Andrews and Platt). Nick Miller took 1st in the mile. Arney was 1st in the 330 lows, and 2nd in the 120 highs. Brian Weidmayer and Brian Ball went 1st and 3rd in the by both coach and wrestlers, 2 mile run. Satisfying Stuffed Potatoes Dieter's Delight

Potatoes are a perfect diet food. Their natural taste goes with a wide range of flavors and seasonings. Packed with essential vitamins and minerals, totally fat-free and with only 100 calories in a medium-sized potato, health conscious Americans are rediscovering this versatile vegetable.

Washington State's Russet potatoes are world famous. Ideal growing conditions and constant attention from planting through harvesting results in consistently high-quality potatoes. Washington Russets are high in solids and low in water. That means they bake up fluffy and flavorful.

Calorie Conscious Stuffed Potatoes combines the baked potato contents with a sprightly mixture of dill-flavored cottage cheese, chives, parsley and tomato. The stuffed potato shell gets a final sprinkle of Parmesan cheese before be-

The April meeting of the Manchester Area Historical Society was held on Monday, April 20, at the Blacksmith Shop. Michigan Sesquicentennial flags are available from the society. The speaker for the evening was Chet Ruthledge, Manager of MCI's Midwest Terminal on Schneider Road in Freedom Township. MCI started in 1963 with a $3000 investment. The investment today is $5 billion. The tower on Schneider Road is 500 feet tall and has 20 antennas. The switching center handles Michigan, Toledo, South Bend. and some of Gary, Indiana. It handles 7000 calls in a 24 hour period. They are currently converting service to equal access which means that MCI customers do not have to dial access and authorization codes to make long distance calls. Manchester is scheduled to be converted in the second quarter of 1993.

the companionship of fellow riders, view scenery along the way and receive a variety of health benefits," Zwick said.

Those health benefits include: - Using up to 800 calories by riding at least 15 miles per hour, thus helping to control weight.

- Lowering blood pressure through regular cycling. - Improving muscle tone and overall endurance.

By supporting the weight, bicycling is easier on the body

"Before beginning any bicycling or fitness program, participants should have a medical checkup," Zwick advised. "Persons who haven't ridden recently should start with a shorter ride, such as 10 minutes, and build up time and speed gradually."

Bicyclists should wear a protective helmet to prevent head injuries in an accident.

Location, Location, Location. If you've ever been in the market improvements you have made to for a house, chances are you've heard these words referred to as the three golden rules of real estate. But, according to the Michigan Association of CPAs, many people don't realize location is an equally important factor to be considered when planning major home improvements.

Because the value of your home is largely determined by the value of the homes around you, you're not likely to recover remodeling costs that take your home well above the values of similar homes in your neighborhood. As a general rule, you should not expect to sell your house for more than 20 percent above the average in your area. So if you buy a $90,000 home in a $100,000 neighborhood, you probably $1,000 they spend on landscaping the difference. If you paint a shouldn't spend more then $30,000 in home remodeling costs.

Riders for the Saturday, May 16, St. Jude Children's Research morel hunters a springtime gift-Hospital Wheels For Life Bike-A- an excellent crop of delectable Thon are asking Manchester mushrooms that could draw citizens to pledge a contribution for each mile they ride.

"Every mile our bikers go earns money bringing us closer to a cure for cancer. The life-saving study of childhood cancer at St. Jude has become critical to children all over the world" said Bike-A-Thon chairman Rita Burkhardt.

The ride starts at the Manchester Fire Hall at 9:00 a.m.; registration at 8:45 a.m. "If you haven't been asked to sponsor a rider, but are interested, please call 428-8083 and a rider will contact you." Rita said.

Each rider gets a lap card at registration, every time riders pass the checkpoint, we initial the card. At the end of the ride, we check and sign it to show that the rider earned what the sponsor pledged. Riders return to sponsors to collect the pledge.

Riders can still get sponsorregistration forms at the schools.

Even if you can ride only one hour, please come, its fun, there will be refreshments and you'll be helping St. Jude's children.

Morel Mushroom Hunting Time

Mother Nature should give 600,000 persons to Michigan's forests and fields in May and June, reports AAA Michigan.

Michigan's mild winter and early spring showers have provided hunters with nearly ideal conditions. Traditionally. black morels appear first in early May, followed by the whites and then the giant species in early

Their brief season makes them treasured by hunters from across the nation who flock to primarily the northern third of Lower Michigan to gather the delicacy.

Morels are identified by deeply pitted caps attached to the stem. morels have deep dark-cream to brownish-black pitted caps. White morel tops vary from light cream to yellowish-brown.

There are "false" morels which have pitted caps, but they are

The morel's taste has been described as delicate, chewy. nut-like and reminiscent of a fine sirloin steak. Low in calories and cholesterol, morels are ideal for those watching their weight.

Morel hunters can find success in a variety of locations, including fields; woods; near old, young and dead trees; in desolate areas; in backyards and in both sunshine and shade. Some hunters have secret places they refuse to divulge.

Commercial morel hunters often compete with the hobbyist for choice sites. Dried morels can sell for about $200 a pound and a fresh pound goes for around $20.

Morels are so popular that legislation (HB-4768) has been introduced to name it Michigan's state mushroom. Morels are the stars of festivals in Harrison (May 1-3), Mesick (May 3-9), Lewiston (May 9). Boyne City (May 9-10) and Grayling (May 9-10 and 16-17). Parades, cooking demonstrations, contest, craft fairs, and morel hunting are highlights.

Because morels are often confused with other mushrooms and many species are toxic to humans, AAA Michigan advises that the inexperienced and children be accompanied by Hunters should only pick unblemished mushrooms and not pull the mushroom from the ground. Instead, pinch or cut the base of the stem so as not to distrub the mycelium, the underground network from which more morels spring.

Harvested morels should be kept in a paper or net bag, or basket. Plastic bags retard the flow of air and cause morels to decompose quickly.

Do not eat any wild mushrooms raw, including morels, as many species are indigestible and can cause gastric discomfort.

A mild winter and early spring rains have created ideal conditions for morel mushrooms with peak hunting times from early May to early June. Morels appear first in Southern Michigan and then spread north. Black morels usually emerge first, followed by the whites. Although morels may be found almost anywhere, results are generally best near hardwood trees, apple orchards and along roadsides. AAA Michigan recommends that first-time hunters go with an experienced guide since some mushrooms are toxic to humans. Only unblemished specimens should be selected for eating. Harvested morels should be stored in paper or net bags or baskets. Plastic bags retard the air flow and cause the morels to spoil quickly. Five Michigan cities with mushroom festivals are listed above.

"This world would be a rather dull place if we didn't have the heritage that pigs have left on civilization". claims David Gerber, a swine specialist at Ohio State University.

History has treated the porkers like dirt he says, and adds that most of God's creatures have been given credit for adding to civilization's benefits. They must have had a better press agent because the hogs are subjected to the great amount of ridicule they have been given, have been accused of having dirty noses and of being fat and lazy.

When he has a chance a hog will only hang out in a dirty wallow only to cool off. Pigs do have an oder all their own but it is due to their environment and because they don't sweat, defends Stan Ernst, an extension

That they lack intelligence too is not so, they are in the same category as the mule claims to be not stupid, at least the four legged kind. That might not sound like much but hogs unlike the more glamorous horse will not eat or drink more than they need so the phrase "eating like a hog" or the modern version "pigging out" is hogwash says Mr. Ernst. He ought to know. He was raised on an Ohio hog farm. He reminiscenses that hogs have it to the hogs and then drive them agriculture. He says hogs are still to hoopla nor respect. in the black, paying some bills.

Even Uncle Sam owes his existance to the pig, says a history written by William Hedgepiece. It seems that Uncle Sam was Sam Wilson, a New York Pork producer who shipped barrels of salted pork to American troops during the War of 1812 and this pork was stamped U.S. which became Uncle Sam. The N.Y.C. Railroad station, a fine brick building with well-kept grounds attracts the attention of many strangers driving through the village.

A little farther west on M-11 was located the home of one of the first settlers in the village, the late William S. Carr, and in later years it was the home of his son Cornelius C. Carr, who in his lifetime decided the property should belong to the village and be known as Cornelius Carr Park, after his widow shall have passed away. It was really a most generous gift and the Common citizens are thankful for it. Some have expressed the wish since we have been promised a paved road past the property and through the village, that preliminary work could now be done towards laying out at least plans for a suitable park. Trees and shubbery and perhaps a driveway with a large flower bed in front and on the east side of the property would help to make the drive through the village more attractive. The Enterprise knows that for many years past it was Mr. Carr's habit to contribute money to every movement for a public gathering here, such as Homecoming day, 4th of July, Decoration Day and others, which showed his public spirit, and this was always done without solicitation. And the giving of his homestead property for a park and playground for the village in coming years is another evidence of his love for his native village.
