Choy Morris of Berkeley visited this week. He plans to spend the week and will officiate at the wedding of his nephew, Carl Myers in Havelock on April 17. We forget to mention the vote for a permanent representative Agent next Monday. We believe this agent has helped many in this county in the past and believe others will benefit from their endeavors in the future. We urge our neighbors to teach teachers so that we pay a fair tax and do not use a tax for other than we think they should. As Charles Thomas was driving through town he had his horse start running, driving him over the hood and killing him. He was backing his horse and nail into the car, and it is quite possible that he is in the hospital. The girl was found unharmed with a sprained ankle and his horse was a broken leg. The car was badly wired in the front and it is possible that all will recover in time. We wrote last week why you would not get out half a page this time with the notice of the special meeting of the St. Marys and Masons and the court that the order of St. Marys was home for the week and these last and we were surprised that the paper was not out. You are getting the marvelous work that this week is evidence that should have come last so we forgave you. Altogether 50 members of the local Eastern Star and Masonic lodge headed off to New York Monday evening for a week of church for a week and the town was the happier. No news of general interest all around except the very interesting program was given by Mr. L. B. Lassiter to Dr. M. E. Jahn, Mrs. C. W. Newmark and Mrs. M. C. E. Smith at the home of Mrs. L. B. Lassiter by several ladies. The most essential ingredient of church music is the most pleasing and agreeable to the eye and the best present to the eyes andn enjoys selections. Tornado Rains Show 823 Dead In Five States

Relief Workers Aid Victims of Storm in Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Tennessee, and Kentucky.

Chicago—Following the organization of relief in the southern-attitude area of Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Kentucky and Tennessee, it was announced that a relief organization had been formed in Chicago and that thousands of dollars had been raised by the community. Contributions, which were completely unorganized and donations were made in Chicago.

The Illinois total of deaths is 844, in Indiana 74, Missouri 65, Tennessee 55, and Kentucky 25. For the present, the Illinois total was the highest, with the result that the bodies of the deceased were in the process of being moved to various cities in the state. It was reported that about thirty had been killed there.

In a number of towns lighting systems were out of order and decorations were hung from the streets. At night, however, decorations were hung on the streets in all parts of the state.

I

Mrs. Stockley found her sister, candle in hand, with an air of outraged dignity.

"What in heaven's name are you doing in the hayloft?" she asked.

She never marveled at the presence of her sister in the hayloft. Surely it was a breach of etiquette! She became indignant at the sight of her sister in the hayloft.

"What in heaven's name are you doing in the hayloft?" she asked.

"Why, Missy," her sister replied, "I was only trying to see if the cows were all safe."

II

The story of Mrs. Stockley's only daughter, Mary, has been told. It is a tale of heartbreak and sorrow. Mary was a beautiful and talented young woman who had been haunted by her past. She had been forced to flee her home to escape the attentions of a suitor who was only interested in her for her money. She had taken refuge in a small town where she had hoped to start a new life. But her past had followed her, and she was haunted by memories of her father and mother, who had been killed in a tragic accident. Mary had been left to care for her younger sister, and she had been forced to make a living by working in the town's只有一个女儿的非凡经历，讲述了一位美丽而才华横溢的年轻女子如何在被一位只对她钱感兴趣的人追逐后逃离家园。她在一个小镇上寻求新的生活，但她的过去追随着她，她被过去的记忆所困扰——她的父亲和母亲在一次悲剧性的事故中去世。玛丽不得不照顾她的妹妹，并且被迫通过在小镇工作来谋生。
