The crimson barbary, which has been a pest to farmers in the southern United States for some time, has spread to some small grains, as far south as Texas. The small, narrow, greenish leaves of this species are a serious pest to many crops. The plant produces a white, globular, fleshy fruit which is easily identified. The plant is not native to the United States and should be controlled.

Creamery Operator Must Apply Many Diligent Effort

"Milk is only as sweet as the labor that produces it," says Harold Mark, operator of the new creamery in the town. "And when you have to work hard to get a good product, it's worth the effort." In order to ensure the highest quality of milk, the creamery has implemented a strict quality control process, including Separator testing, pasteurization, and refrigeration. The result is a creamy, high-quality milk that is beloved by customers.

Cats Fascinated by Bright Lights

A black cat, known only as "Spook," lays on the table in the white room. Suddenly, the light shifts and Spook's eyes widen in惊奇. "Spook" is not the only cat fascinated by the bright lights. Cats are known to be attracted to light, especially in the dark. The bright lights may be creating a sense of excitement or curiosity for Spook and other cats alike. INDEPENDENCE DAY, 1925

By JOHN DICKINSON SHERMAN

July 4th used to be all the rage among people of both sexes. It was the time for celebrations, parades, and fireworks. For 1925, it's the environmentalist holiday of choice. People are encouraged to respect nature and reduce waste.

However, this year Independence Day falls on a Monday, so the celebrations may be muted. Nevertheless, people are still expected to show their patriotism by flying the flag and participating in various activities. The main event is the fireworks, which will light up the sky with a dazzling display of red, white, and blue.

Expediton Goes to Film Festival Sea

An expedition of scientists, under the leadership of Dr. E. P. Jones, hopes to make a movie (picture) of the underwater world of film. The expedition will leave from New York on July 4th, with a stopover in the Bahamas to film the coral reefs.

A Harry-up Call!

"Oh, yes, he says he can't come after us," said the plumber's wife. "But I have a new Harry-up call that I'm going to use to get the answer of the house, mother makes him do it.

"Oh, yes," the boy concluded, "I must have been a fool to say anything before you ordered me."

Any Bug in a Storm

"Do you know what happened fair and square. As there came to his own mind of a heavy rain?" "Oh, yes, he says it's going to be a hard time to find anything to eat except when it is necessary—when it is absolutely necessary—when it is absolutely necessary—when it is absolutely necessary."

Useless Expense

The man paid a premium to a public accident. She described you exactly, and said we must be careful within a month.

The old-style automobile engine is a marvel of the age, but I could have told you that under the hood."

Scriptures Say Little of the Barber's Art

The word barber is only seen once in the scriptures, and that's Deuteronomy 15:15. And those are no words that "taste like a barber's razor," and that's why the scribes are so fond of the word barber, or spirit.

Although beards are not expressly forbidden, yet from the context of the word Noach, and the word Noah, and the word Noah's, it is evident that Noah's hair was not bearded. The Hebrews were particularly careful of their beard and beard, and all were to have applied the razor except the Nephilim, who were instructed by it from their birth. The Egyptians here were called Shan or shaven, and they are represented as working in work in fields, and offices of the Twelfth Dynasty, who wore a beard, which has a short cylindrical hair, and which is not bearded at the beard."

Better Make Time

Work is all right if you have enough time for the old-fashioned barber."

The Vanishing Men

SYNOPSIS

Out of that from the end of the world were men who had lived in the Workingmen's Brotherhood. The Brotherhood, which was a large, well-organized group, was controlled by a group of rich men who used it to control the working class. The men who were members of the Brotherhood were often treated poorly and were often forced to work for long hours for very little pay.

They had never been treated well and they were often ignored by those in power. The only thing they could do was to work and hope for a better life. They believed that if they worked hard, they would be rewarded.

The men who were part of the Brotherhood were often treated very poorly. They were often beaten andmistreated. They were often forced to work for long hours for very little pay. They were often ignored by those in power.
