Meeting a Hearty Reception by Those Who Have Given Them Trial

The Iowa Agricultural Experiment Station reports in small trials for trial purposes by growing blue beans in pots. It is a well-known fact that any Hopkins variety will produce a good yield of blue beans if pots are not too large. In order to keep up to par in this respect, the following experiences have been had in our own garden at Hopkins:

- Blue beans thrive in pots
- Blue beans can be grown in small quantities
- Proper selection of variety is important

Other growers are particularly interested in this information, as it is the first time that any Hopkins variety has been grown in such large quantities.

Butter milk for Swine

Butter milk is a valuable food for swine. It is often used as a substitute for milk, which is too expensive for swine. The proper way to feed butter milk is to mix it with water and feed it to the swine a few times a week. This will help to maintain the swine's health and prevent disease.

The Vanishing Men

By RICHARD WATSON CHILD

SYNOPSIS
Out of the moonlight, at the end of the war, two young men now old, who are not going to see one another again, so far as they know, commit a deed which has no parallel in the annals of the world. The whole planet is to be in on the secret, and the only woman in the world who knows it is for ever to be silent. The woman makes this promise, and the two men go their separate ways. But the woman's promise cannot be kept, and the two men are finally brought to justice. The whole world is to be in on the secret of the two men, and the woman who knows it is for ever to be silent. The story is told in the form of a newspaper article, and the only woman in the world who knows it is for ever to be silent.

Chapter I

He was sitting there, his feet up on the table, looking out of the window. The room was dark, and the only light came from the lamp on the desk. He was thinking about his past, and wondering if anything he had ever done was worth remembering.

Chapter II

The next day, he was standing on the street corner, waiting for the bus. He had nothing to do, and he didn't want to do anything. He just wanted to wait and see what happened.

Chapter III

He spent the afternoon reading the newspaper. There was nothing in it that interested him, so he decided to go for a walk. He walked for a while, and then he sat down on a bench and rested.

Chapter IV

He stayed there for a long time, thinking about his future. He didn't know what he was going to do, or where he was going to go. He just knew that he didn't want to do anything.

Chapter V

The next day, he was sitting in the park, watching the people. He was looking for someone he knew, but he couldn't find anyone.

Chapter VI

He spent the afternoon walking around the city. He didn't know where he was going, or what he was looking for. He just walked around, and looked at everything.

Chapter VII

He stayed there for a long time, thinking about his past. He didn't know what he was going to do, or where he was going to go. He just knew that he didn't want to do anything.

Chapter VIII

The next day, he was sitting in the park, watching the people. He was looking for someone he knew, but he couldn't find anyone.

Chapter IX

He spent the afternoon walking around the city. He didn't know where he was going, or what he was looking for. He just walked around, and looked at everything.

Chapter X

He stayed there for a long time, thinking about his past. He didn't know what he was going to do, or where he was going to go. He just knew that he didn't want to do anything.
