Farm Dog Is Invisible
When Properly Trained

The farm dog receives little recognition in the dinner room, yet it is one of the most useful and important members of the farm family. The farm dog protects the family, keeps away the intruders, and prevents the stock from getting lost, yet it is often left to suffer because of lack of knowledge or lack of training. This is a pity, for if you know how to train a dog properly, your dog will be of great value to you. A guide to the methods of training dogs can be found in the United States Department of Agriculture.

With fair skies promised, Allegan County’s 74th Annual Fair gates under way at the Fairgrounds next Tuesday. It will run four big days and three big nights. You must plan to be there at least one day and night. For this fair promises to go down in history as the best of the many fine fairs staged by the Allegan County Agricultural Society.

No Efforts Have Been Spared to Make This a Wonderful Fair

There will be wonderful agricultural exhibits, something new, an industrial exhibit, showing all the things made by industry in Allegan County. Pennville will have another wonderful fruit exhibit. Sangatuck’s famous dance orchestra, Barbin’s of Chicago, will play Friday afternoon; the Otsego and Hopkins bands will play also.

Fireworks, fine free acts, better races than ever, more shows, more rides, more concessions, more refreshment stands, more retail store exhibits, more everything.

As P. T. Barnum used to say: “Bigger and Better Than Ever.” This year’s Allegan Fair will be “Bigger and Better” than Barnum ever conceived such a carnival of education and fun.

Bring Your Family Every Day—Come, stay Late

This is a good way to spend your vacation. Meet your friends at the Allegan County Fair. They’ll be there

THE IONIA PRISON EXHIBIT WILL BE HERE

Allegan’s Reputation for Classy Fair Race Horses to be Bettered

Allegan Fair’s Horse Races are noted throughout Southwest Michigan. This year’s Speed Program will be the best ever. The race track at the fair grounds has been resurfaced. It’s fast. More horses are coming than ever.
There will be more than $3,000 in purses. Three big days—Wednesday, Thursday, Friday.

Free Attraction Wednesday
CONGRESSMAN JOHN G. KETCHAM
Wednesday morning Congressmen Ketcham will deliver an address of interest to every farmer. Hear him.
Grandstand Seats Free For This

Something New This Year
An industrial exhibit in addition to the big agricultural displays. You will be surprised to see the many things made in this, your own county.
Big Pennville Fruit Display

MAMMOTH Displays of Wondrous Pyrotechnics
Those who have seen past exhibits know what the Fireworks Displays are. This year’s displays will be as good if not better than those of previous years. There will be many new pyrotechnic novelties and startling innovations that will provide you with thrills. The fireworks and free acts will provide a wonderful evening for you, your family and your friends.

Fine Music Galore
The famous Cotton Pickers, colored symphonic orchestra of musicians and singers play Wednesday and Thursday in the grandstand. Friday afternoon Barbin’s famous orchestra, direct from the Big Pavilion, Sangatuck, will play. The Otsego and Hopkins bands will also perform.

Hundreds of Fine Exhibits Indications are that this year’s exhibits will be more complete than ever. Last year’s were fine. This year’s will be better. Entries are coming in rapidly. There will be a whole lot of worth-while display.

The Famous Max Exposition Shows—Rides—Thrillers Once again the famous Max Exposition Shows will play at the Allegan Fair. This carnival company has one of the cleanest and most complete list of attractions. This year’s Midway will be nearly twice as large as before. Plenty of fun and good clean exhibits for everyone.

GRANDFATHER GANDER SPEAKS IN "A LITTLE GOSLING"

Mother Gander hugged her baby cloms. "When the time comes for you to set out to seek your fortune be sure you look up as well as down. Bright eyes and Racket-Beautys are interested in the folks that don't pay the way that they do, and they often trick the good."

"It's growing chilly," said Grandfather Gander.

"At this moment Grandfather Gander related how his long, slender life had been such as to make him well fitted to manage the business. He had been out of fashion now. We rather take the fresh young age of the ring and the chief editor.

Granny the old gentlewoman had already returned notice on an audience in New York, but in the fall with Mr. Thompson's deputation she was en route to New York for the annual meeting of the society of the American Historical Association. The society, as the title implies, is an association for the promotion of historical knowledge and the study of the history of men and their institutions.

"Just one kiss, Sylvia darling. Must I kiss you?"

They had reached the place down by the lake.

"I don't know if I can..."

But Sylvia did not go on, because he had dropped her hand.

"Oh, yes, you can, dear. Don't worry, too much. Just look at how lovely it is down there..."

Then the man said, "It doesn't seem to me that you have been here before?"

Sylvia caught her breath. She had seen him before, down there, just a little way past the tree. She had looked at him then, but she had not seen him. She did not know if he could see her, because he had not looked at her.

"Yes, I have been here before. I have been here many times.

"No, you have not. It doesn't seem to me that you have been here before."

But Sylvia did not say anything. She was too afraid to say anything.

"Oh, dear, how could I have forgotten?"

And then she said, "I was afraid that you might not see me."

"I didn't see you."

"Oh, dear, how could I have forgotten?"

But Sylvia did not say anything. She was too afraid to say anything.
