Santa Uses Phone and Radio to Keep Step With Times

STATE ACQUIRING HUGE NORTH AREA

Northern Michigan gradually is becoming a playground for wealthy sportsmen. The state is touting the rugged area as a hunting mecca where big game is plentiful, offering opportunities for the wealthy sportsman to indulge in his favorite pastime. New roads are being cut through the wilderness, and the state is offering incentives to promote tourism and economic development. The state has signed agreements with several sports organizations, and it is welcoming wealthy sportsmen to the region.

INDIANS DEMAND RIGHT TO IGNORATE STATE GAME LAW

Upper Peninsula Indians ask legislation to allow them to hunt wildlife and fish as they choose, without being subject to state game laws. The tribes argue that these laws discriminate against them and violate their cultural and religious practices. They have filed a lawsuit in federal court to challenge the constitutionality of the laws.

Four Doctor Say Big City for Fee For Vaccinations

Suits have been filed against the city of Detroit by Dr. George W. Gundlach, Dr. A. H. Schonell, Dr. G. W. Moore, and Dr. M. B. Matthew, all of the city's health department, seeking $15,000 each for services performed in the vaccination of 2,000 persons against smallpox in the spring of 1932. The plaintiffs hold that the state is responsible for the failure to comply with the state law and for failing to provide the necessary equipment and supplies.

President's Post Again

President Roosevelt has been re-elected to a second term, defeating his Republican opponent, Charles L. Faust. Roosevelt has been praised for his leadership during the Great Depression, and he has promised to continue his policies of economic recovery and social welfare.

Discoress Show Increase As Marriages Decline

Discoress in Michigan in 1925 showed an 18 per cent increase over previous year. In 1924 and marriages in the state were decreased by 1 per cent, according to figures released by the federal department of commerce.

There were 1,172,455 divorces in 1924, compared with 1,253,630 in 1923. This shows that the divorce rate has declined in the state, according to the figures released by the federal department of commerce.

In some of these cases men were considered to be of a different standard and were tried for murder.

@HARRIET CARR ANN LEWIS

She said firmly. "But you've got to wait. I've been waiting for this all my life."

"But why?" I asked.

"Because it's the right thing to do," she said. "Because it's the only thing to do."

"But what about your own happiness?" I asked.

"My happiness is nothing compared to the happiness of the world," she said. "I want to do something to make the world a better place."
