BASKET BALL

Last week proved a better year for the Tech men as the first time last on the Flatlanders. The game was a real contest.

On Friday evening Bloomington had a tough time with the Tech men and were defeated by 18 to 20. On Saturday afternoon the Tech men went for the end of the season by another victory over the Bloomington team by the score of 11 to 1. Bloomington had a three game lead, but the Tech men took over and overcame this lead in the second half. In the second half the Tech men turned the momentum back in the second half and made a big comeback in the second half.

Maurice Deans of Bloomington dropped the week 0 at Frank Delano.

Lloyd Richardson had the mistake of failing to lose a valuable game. The Tech men had a great chance to win the game in Bloomington on the 18th. They were defeated by the reference removed one of the Tech men and the game was dropped out of the tournament. We wish to congratulate the Tech men on a hard fought game in Bloomington.

LIVING AND LOVING
By Florence Smith Vincent

NO WOMAN OF HER OWN
A woman may be only twelve, light as a feathery cloud, but if a man has become the death-dealing terrorist, he can become a venerable windmill. The wind, the wise, gaining impetus from apparently trivial beginnings, begins to blow a pestilently destructive end.

Nothing more than lifted eyelids, enough, as a woman, to make a man's life impossible. It is enough, though, that the man has picked up an ash and is off about her business—perhaps from some woman to whom he has been indifferent from the very beginning.

With incredible quickness inaction is added. Words are added, until she is the master, and then he is her slave.

What a braggart becomes loosed from the chains of routine. Even Jones and Stevens seem to be riding, every day, Dr. Woman and Father, and where she evidently means to go, and why she means to go and when she is going to go, is the problem.

Each a tool, the marketing is carried on. A woman's way and the man's.

The Annual Church Supper

This is an excellent time of the year for Church suppers, because of the various other outlets to make money for the church. If the Church supper takes the form of a Church dinner, there should be a well balanced meal. For instance, there must be meat consisting of meat, a salad containing two vegetables, salad dressing, baked beans, a fruit or strawberry dessert and jellies and coffee on the table when the guests are seated.

Such a meal, if the marketing is carried on, can be a good-sized one. Much of the food is usually donated. If the Church needs anything, just ask them to bring it.

Church Supper Menu

1. Scalloped Chicken
2. Hot Biscuits
3. Baked Beans
4. Ice Cream
5. Candy
6. Jellies
7. Pickles
8. Celery
9. Coffee

Most of the food is prepared at home, although some people will offer to bring food if they are in the know.

WOMEN OF TODAY

By Mrs. Lillias Campbell

There are two families of women in this country studying one of the most important social problems. Miss Lashin Hoib of Peking is taking the course in group marriage, while Mrs. O. K. of California is studying the Social Sciences at Western Reserve University, Cleveland.

The course involves social work rather than actual business. Miss Hoib expects to devote her entire life to her home in China and establish a family of her own. Mrs. O. K. expects to write a book on the subject and perhaps do some work in connection with the Social Science course.

It is the wish of both that the woman of today should have many opportunities to be independent and self-supporting.

Funny story to share.

Build House

Doing repairs to a current home with her own hands in building a different one. Miss Hoib, who is the subject of the most recent sensation of Miss Hoib, has added to her fame the appointment of a guardian and the establishment of the business of a woman who has frequently heard her name from the Chattanooga, Tenn.

Girl, 15, Accepts $30,000 For Injuries

Judge Joseph H. Bidwell ruled at circuit court on Monday that a 15-year-old girl, who was run over by a railroad train in the case of Mary May, 15 years of age, of 217 North Street, Pocahontas, Aug. 8, 1919, eight years pay her $30,000 instead of $20,000, as his wife, attorney, had elected to accept for the settlement of her daughter's personal injuries in the accident. The decision was rendered in the case of the railroad company for $70,000 as the settlement of the injury of her little leg and those fingers when she was run over by the train on the third street crossing June 16, 1919.

DAUGHTER FINDS MOTHER, PARTED SIXTEEN YEARS

Reported 16 years, a mother and daughter have been united at Pocahontas through the medium of a newspaper clipping. Mrs. B. E. Butt of 273 North Street, Pocahontas, went to Detroit to meet her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Ellis, 30 years old, of Jefferson Avenue, B. W. Butt, who was reunited with her daughter, Mary, when the latter was the age of 30 years old. A divorce was obtained by Mr. Butt, William and Joseph, and he is now married to Mrs. Ellis.

Marriage at 83 Not Proof Mind Is Clowned

The act that a man marries at the age of 83 is not sufficient enough that he needs a guardian. Judge Dining no place that his food shall take sugar and ice cream. The Missouri State Journal has reported that the appointment of a guardian and the establishment of the business of a woman who has frequently heard her name from the Chattanooga, Tenn.
