MICHIGAN FACES HARD SCHEDULE

Michigan faces one of the hardest schedules ever undertaken by the Wolverines. On October 7, Ohio Wes- teners and Michigan mothers of November 10, Michigan travels to Madison to play Wil- limore. On October 11, on October 20, Ohio State comes to Ann Arbor for the final decision of the old regularly more than 100,000 students. By admission these students are able to afford the ticket which is being sold for ten dollars.

OCTOBERANER Reproduces Eden in Cement

A recent article, An Eye of the Gossips, by the World, described the Gossips of Eden, which has been reproduced at the house of E. P. T. D. reports, 24, which has been living in a current best seller in the world. Gossips of Eden is known as the lettuce, because of its young growth. The recipe is as follows:

Watch Fires in Michigan Forest Zone

When rising from truck lines north of a line from Bay City to Michigan, the train will notice several cars for relief earring his attention to the fact that he is in the forest area and to help prevent fires. Other signs will remind him to be careful about drawing away lighted tobacco, to keep his camp fire safe and to fire only in free areas.

To Keep Highways Opened in Winter

That Michigan has practically de- cided to adopt as permanent policy a winter road maintenance in every county of the state, was the statement made to members of the Northern Michigan Association, members of the Electra Rotary club and other citizens of Grand Rapids, by Frank E. Harper, Michigan supervisor of roads, on October 20:

MISTAKES IN CHICK REARING
This is a good season of the year to review the errors that were made in rearing chickens this past season. The big rash of brooding is mostly over now, but we are still facing the problem of getting the hens reared at a careful rate. It is not pleasant to think of our nutrition records and the potential flock of hens that are going to be there after the hens have been hatched. The feed is fresh and in good condition, but the hens are not being reared at a careful rate. This is a problem that we must face.

We believe that most of our sub

General weather in the northern states is expected to remain rather warm, allowing for comfortable outdoor activities. The average temperature in most parts of the country is expected to be around 75°F. In the west, there may be some fluctuation due to the presence of high pressure systems. In the south, humidity levels are expected to rise, making it feel sticky and uncomfortable.

Faulty Elimination

Should Be Corrected—Caused Elahmisations

If you are prone to constant leakage of fluids, consider consulting a professional. A proper diagnosis can help identify the underlying cause and recommend effective treatment options. Additional tips include maintaining regular bowel movements, consuming high-fiber foods, and staying well-hydrated.

Presaging the Fall Styles

Football Prospects Appears Very Good at Central State

Its first football season under the new coaching of Mr. J. R. Allen shows promise of being one of the best in the Central State history. The season will begin on October 1. The college will also play this year at the request of the University of Alabama.

Coach Wallace C. Parker has many new players who promise to make the team strong this year. He is preparing for the new season with the usual enthusiasm and determination.

The eight games scheduled, three of which are at home, promise to be attractive contests. The games will be played on Saturdays at 4 p.m.

The return of Alma college, which was attended by nearly 1,000 students at the last game, and the return of the team, which was defeated by the University of Alabama, will be very interesting.

Old P. J. State at Marshall Again

The old P. J. State game is played again at Marshall this year. The old players are always interested in the game and will be present.

LIVING AND LOVING BY MRS. VIRGINIA LEE

WHERE TO DRAW THE LINE

The most exciting and thrilling event last winter was the coming of the young people to the White House. How wonderful it was, how dear! How sweet they were, how happy! But, alas! The excitement was over too soon. Now we are back to the old days. No more parties, no more amusing people, no more excitement.

To this end, the best way to enjoy life is to limit the visits of the young people and to be satisfied with the old friends. It is better to draw a line and be content with what we have.

You can make life happy and satisfying if you do not let yourself be carried away by the excitement of the moment. Be content with what you have and do not be tempted by the offer of more. Be satisfied with the happiness that is within reach and do not seek for more.

LIVING WITH WOMEN OF TODAY

Removal of legal discriminations against women, in other words, absolutely equalizing the social and political status of men and women, is the aim of the National Women's Party. Its legislative program calls for the abolition of all legal discriminations against women. The party has already made great strides in this direction.

In many states, women have been granted the right to vote, to hold public office, and to serve on juries. In other states, they have been granted the right to receive equal pay for equal work.

The party is working hard to remove all legal discriminations against women. The party is determined to make women's rights as real as men's rights. The party is determined to make women equal to men in every respect.

With Woman's Suffrage, women will be able to participate fully in the political process. They will be able to vote in all elections and to hold public office.

In addition, the party is working to remove all legal discriminations against women in the workplace. Women will be able to work in all occupations and to receive equal pay for equal work.
