STATE PARKS NOW NUMBER NEARLY 600

There are now 600 state parks scattered across the country, offering opportunities to enjoy nature, wildlife, history, and scenic beauty. These parks attract millions of visitors each year, providing a valuable resource for outdoor recreation and education. The number of state parks continues to grow, reflecting the increasing importance of preserving natural areas for future generations.

ONE WAY BRITANNIA DOESN’T RULE!

The phrase "One Way Britannia Doesn’t Rule" is a play on words, suggesting that there are different ways to approach things and that Britannia (a term often associated with the British Empire) may not be the only or best way. This could be interpreted as a call for diversity and open-mindedness in problem-solving and decision-making.

Property Owners May Be Sued $225,000 in Harter Condemnation Case

Property owners in the Harter area may be facing legal action by the Harter Company, seeking compensation for the condemnation of their property. The company has filed a lawsuit to determine the fair market value of the property taken for public use. The owners are advised to seek legal advice to protect their rights.

NEW HIGHWAY LAWS NOW EFFECTIVE

The new highway laws, effective as of the 1st of this month, include several changes aimed at improving road safety and reducing accidents. These laws, which were recently passed by the state legislature, include increased penalties for speeding, mandatory seat belt use, and restrictions on cell phone use while driving.

STEADY TONE REFLECTED BY 1927 BUSINESS

The economic climate of 1927 reflected a steady tone in business, with no major upswings or downturns. This stability was due to a combination of factors, including a strong agricultural sector, increased industrial production, and a growing consumer market. Small businesses and entrepreneurs took advantage of this steady market to grow and expand their operations.

CHILDREN CRY FOR CASTORIA

The message "Children Cry for Castoria" is a reference to the advertising slogan of the Castoria syrup, which was once a popular cold remedy for children. Castoria contained alcohol and was marketed as a medication to soothe the throat and relieve coughing.

State Geologist Visits Scene of Decadal Oil Fields

The state geologist visited the scene of the newly discovered oil fields, confirming the significant potential for further exploration and development in the area. This discovery is a testament to the continued success of the oil and gas industry in the region and will likely lead to increased employment and economic growth.

Automobile Insurance Company Makes Good Record for 1926

The automobile insurance company has had a good year, with a record number of policies sold and claims paid. The company attributes its success to its commitment to customer service and its ability to adapt to the changing needs of its clients. They are looking forward to another successful year in 1927, with plans to expand their services and offer even better protection to their customers.

Travel on "UNCLE SAM'S" payroll for Postal Clerks.

CHICK SEASON ONE OF HEAVIEST ENDS

The chick season of 1926 was one of the heaviest on record, with millions of chicks being sold across the country. The high demand for chicks led to increased prices and a shortage of supplies, but the industry is well-prepared to meet the needs of farmers and consumers.

PILFER SUFFERER AVOID OPERATION GET GROVEL RELIEF

Pilfer sufferers may benefit from seeking professional help in recovering lost items. By consulting with a loss prevention expert, pilfer victims can learn strategies to reduce theft and protect their property.

Davenport can help you to a Good Position

The message "Davenport can help you to a Good Position" is a statement from the Davenport Pension Institute, offering assistance in finding a good position. They may provide career counseling, job placement services, or other resources to help individuals achieve their career goals.

YOUTH AND LIFE

By ROYD R. SWEN

The Early Bird

"The early bird gets the worm," you have heard it said before. And perhaps you are thinking, "Billy, you talk like a doze, you just can't help it because you are so young and foolish!"

"But you are not young anymore!" you say to yourself, "and you are not foolish, either!"

You are right, and the reason is that you have had a lot of experience. You have learned that if you are going to be successful in life, you must get up early in the morning and start working hard.

The reason why the early bird gets the worm is that he has the advantage of being first. He has the opportunity to do all the work that needs to be done before anyone else.

The late bird, on the other hand, has to work hard to catch up with the early bird. He has to work twice as hard to get the same results.

So, if you want to be successful in life, you must get up early and start working hard.

The Youthful Age

Youth is the time of life when you are full of energy and vitality. It is the time when you are most adaptable and can learn new things quickly.

This is the time when you are most likely to be successful in life. You have the opportunity to make a lot of money and to achieve a lot of things.

So, if you want to be successful in life, you must use your youth to the fullest.

LIVING AND LOVING

By ROYD R. SWEN

The Devil's Cap

Wears the "Devil's Cap"

"Twas a sign of bad luck when a cat wore a "Devil's Cap," as the old saying goes. But it is not always true.

Some cats wear a "Devil's Cap" because they are ill. Others wear it because they are old and weak.

But there are some cats that wear a "Devil's Cap" just for fun. They do it to show off and to attract attention.

The "Devil's Cap" is a symbol of power and strength. It is a sign that the cat is a master of its domain.

The "Devil's Cap" is a sign that the cat is a protector of its territory. It is a sign that the cat is a ruler.

The "Devil's Cap" is a sign that the cat is a warrior. It is a symbol of courage and valor.

So, if you see a cat wearing a "Devil's Cap," do not be afraid. It is just a sign of the cat's strength and power.

Without further ado, here is a list of the cats that wear the "Devil's Cap":

1. The Old Cat
2. The Warrior Cat
3. The Ruler Cat
4. The Master Cat
5. The Protector Cat
6. The Warrior Cat
7. The Old Cat
8. The Ruler Cat
9. The Master Cat
10. The Protector Cat

These are the cats that wear the "Devil's Cap".

The Devil's Cap is a sign of strength and power. It is a symbol of courage and valor. It is a sign of the cat's ability to protect its territory.

So, if you see a cat wearing a "Devil's Cap," do not be afraid. It is just a sign of the cat's strength and power.
