STATE FORESTRY PROGRAM ON WAY

Dowes on the Job

Michigan is in the way to the big forestation program of any state in the United States, according to the information just released by the department of conservation. Already, five years from the date of the last report, the state has more than doubled the amount of land under state control, and the state forester reports that more than 90% of the land is within the forest. The state has also made great strides in the reforestation of the northern forests, where there is a scarcity of trees. In the southern part of the state, the forestry program is being expanded to include a large area of land. The state forester has stated that the program will continue to be the largest in the country, with the state planning to add more land to its forested area. The program is expected to continue to increase in size and scope, with the state working to protect and preserve its natural resources.

The name "Christmas SEAL" is mentioned, nobody shows to whom and where this little effort is directed. How much effort was put forth and how long it took to launch it is a national treasure to be studied. This idea, which later developed into one of the greatest philanthropic movements in the world, was first advanced by Mr. R. H. Noell, of Chelsea, London, which is a great number of Christmas greeting cards going through the mail. By Mr. Noell, the newsletter is published just before the holiday season in which a number of printed cards were placed in the mail for those who ordered them. No more cards were ever ordered and the effort had already been made.

Wayne R. Wheeler

Members of the Little People's Christmas Improvement association and visitors at the Christmas Seal party are shown in this picture. Wheeler, assisted by business men of the city and others, worked hard to raise funds for a church to be built at the Little People School. This work is not to be known as the Wayne R. Wheeler Foundation.

The event was a success, and many more will be held in the future.

Have your cards printed in your name, and they will not be forgotten.

We find Santa Claus.

Well, we find him here, at 213 Main Street, where Santa Claus has a workshop of his own, and where he makes all the toys that are sent by plane to Europe. After a good deal of the work is done, he takes his toys to the family who ordered them.

He is a friendly fellow, and he will help you find the right toy for your child. He also sells Santa Claus pictures, and he is sure to have a good time.

The picture is shown here.

There is a large circle among the elves who have never had the chance to see a Christmas tree. The Christmas Tree is 3 feet high, and it is covered with tinsel and lights. It is placed in the middle of the room, and children are invited to come and see it.

This is the last night of the Christmas Seal. We hope you will come and see it.

Boyd R. Swem

Fifteen more students at the Christmas Seal are now in the hands of the Child Welfare League. The children are being cared for by a number of different agencies, including the New York City Welfare Department, the New York City Department of Public Welfare, the New York City Department of Health, and the New York City Department of Education.

Wine and food are served, and the children are entertained by a variety of activities.
