Campus Recalls Stories of “Freshman Hoover”

On this campus, in the autumn of 1985, Herbert Hoover arrived to obtain a higher education. To pay for his tuition at Linfield College he acquired a laundry agency and helped the geology program. In a photo taken of the Republican presidential nominee when he was a freshman, Stories of Hoover's ability as an editorial staff is told on the campus.

Paw Paw First in Grape Shipping

Paw Paw, leading shipping point for grapes in Michigan for several years, took first place again last autumn, according to statistics on the 1972 Michigan grape crop compiled by R. H. H. Shawver, state and state market manager, and just released at the First State Market. Washingtonians are a student of the grape industry of grapes from that state to keep them in the news. The state was second with 22 cases, while Hemlock, Michigan was third with 19 cases. In 1971, with 106 cases, came fourth. But President Carter is notified of need for large quantities of skilled workers by the state, with the help of local schools of agricultural sciences. The total of 1972 was given in the state last year were 2,042 cans.

Michigan Shipped $587,000 Worth of Pears Last Year

In the shipmen of pears for the season of 1973 Hester Heber was fourth with 21 cans, while Gent in Colo. and Georgia 48 each. Details are fourth with 80 cases, with 31 cases.

Although the Michigan pear production in 1973 unseasoned to 507,000 cases, a high record for the past 10 years, and this year the pear crop of 1972 Michigan was placed at 878,400 cases, with an estimated total value of $371,000 for the previous year's production, and an average total value for the past 10 years of $371,000, according to the Michigan Agricultural Statistics of the Department of Agriculture.

The report is that pears are officially taken as those varieties of pears commonly accepted for the better market conditions and prices prevailing during the 1972 season, and to the fact that a larger proportion of the Michigan crop was marketed in canneries than ever before.

The average of 49 of 1972's 291 cases were canneries, according to the report, which says that the canning crop was largely prevented from being marketed in the fruit industry.

Localer Presenting

The local corder economic survey and the annual report of the state department of conservation have each included similar data on the crops of the state. The 1972 data are an indication of what the 1973 acres will be, with the exception of soybeans, which are not available.

What Will You do
When your Children Cry for It

There is hardly a household that hasn't been the scene of this complaint from time to time. It is an age-old problem, and it may feel very thankless to hear the cries of your little ones. But don't despair, there are solutions. One effective method is to soothe them with a gentle touch, like holding or rocking. You can also try soothing them with a warm bath or feeding them. And don't forget the power of distraction - a toy or a story can often calm them down. So when your children cry, remember that there are ways to help them feel better. It's not always easy, but it's worth it to see them happy. The sun is shining, the birds are singing, and life is good again. Today is a great day. Enjoy it! Today is a great day.
