Survivors of Lake Tragedy Recover in Hospital

The survivors of the airplane crash in Lake Michigan, which took place on September 16, are recovering in a hospital in Chicago. The crash occurred during a flight by a transport plane, which was carrying a group of tourists from the west coast to the east. All but three of the passengers survived the crash, which was caused by a mechanical failure. The survivors are being treated for their injuries and will be discharged soon.

How Giant Airplanes Look Carrying 169 Persons

This is the photo of a commercial achievement—the 15-ton German airship, DO-X, flying above Lake Constance, Switzerland, with 169 persons aboard. The DO-X is the largest and most advanced airship in the world, and its successful flight is a major milestone in the development of airship technology.

Portes Gil’s Mother Pays Visit

Unquestioned and virtually unannounced, Honora Portes Gil, 70-year-old mother of the president of Mexico, has arrived in the United States by airplane for a visit and pleasure trip. This is accompanied by Maj. Robert C. of the presidential staff, and his young wife. Photo shows the ladies as they arrived at the airport, Chicago, and terminal.

MINERAL AND PROTEIN REQUIREMENTS

Chickens have a comparatively high protein requirement, which is estimated to be around 15% of their total diet. This is compared to other animals, which typically require lower protein levels. Chickens are fed a high-protein diet to ensure that they are able to grow and develop properly.
no compromise with goodness!... the Camel blend is a real smoke!

Camels were originated and made to promote the pleasure of smoking. The most perfect blend that the greatest experts know how to make is the secret of our wonderfully wonderful cigarette! The most modern and skilful processes are employed in bringing this great cigarette to perfection! The pick of all Domestic tobaccos for satisfying taste, the rarest Turkish for added fragrance! Camels are vastly preferred by discriminating smokers because they appreciate the soothing goodness of choice tobaccos perfectly blended.

Proud Godbler Is King of Thanksgiving Feast

Mr. Turkey Godbler takes over the Thanksgiving Feast. Above he is pictured both as a decoration for the table and as the piece of resistance at the Feast. The great bird is suspended in a frame and he will remain as such until the last day of the festival. At that time the final meal of the festival will be served to the guests.

The World and All

By CHARLES R. DRISCOLL

One of my very good friends who is in the grocery business, made a remark which caught my attention. He said that the price of coffee, sugar, and shortening has gone up to such an extent that it will make the coffee market break the third highest record in the history of the country.

He has a small business, but he feels that this is a good investment for him. He says that this year he has been able to sell coffee, sugar, and shortening at a profit, but that he thinks it will be difficult to sustain this kind of profit in the future. He thinks that there will be a shortage of supplies, but he is not sure how long it will last.

On the advice of a customer who has been buying coffee, sugar, and shortening from him for many years, the man recommended that he should stock more than usual this year. He said that the customer had paid him for coffee, sugar, and shortening for several years, and had never had a complaint. He also said that he had been able to get his coffee, sugar, and shortening at a very low price, and had never had a reason to be concerned about the prices of these goods.

Finally, his customer handed him a check that he had made out for $100, and told him that he was a good customer, who was always satisfied with the quality of the products he bought. He said, "I have known your business for many years, and I can tell you that you are a good man. I have always been satisfied with your products, and I have never had a reason to be concerned about the prices of these goods."

The man was touched by the words of his customer, and said, "Thank you, sir. I will do my best to continue to provide you with good products at reasonable prices."

His customer replied, "I know that you will do your best, and I will continue to support your business.

From Monday

When giving a small baby bottle of coffee, sugar, or shortening, it is better to give it under the child's skin. This will prevent the child from becoming dependent on the product, and it will also ensure that the child will continue to consume the product regularly.

Two New Planes for Air Mail Lines

The Tennessee Aeromotor Company has announced the development of two new small planes for air mail lines in Michigan. It has been an honor for the company to be chosen by the state of Michigan, as the state of New York, to build these planes.

The planes will be used by the state of New York, and will be operated by the state's air mail service. They will be constructed by the company's own engineers, and will be constructed at the company's own factory in early November.

Poems That Live

In the woods

When I am standing on a mountain

I feel the wind in my face

Over the valley, over the town

I feel the wind in my face.

It carries with it the songs of the birds

And the sweet music of the trees

It brings to my heart the memories of the past

And the hope of the future.

The wind is the spirit of the earth

It moves through the trees

It tempts me to the top of the hill

And to the top of the mountain.

"Difficult Phase of Dohlie Culture Is in Successful Storage"

The one difficult phase of dohlie culture is the successful storage of the dough ripe. As soon as the tops are baked off, the dough and case are set in an airless box 8 to 12 inches above the crown, and take about 14 hours. Several bows and strings in a fast-"flying" cellar that is not too dry. If the cellar is too warm or too dry, it is apt to be the case, the store, the roof, and the store. They are finished with for something that grows. Great care must be used not to carry the dough up the air, casting as fast as that starts in a wound will spread to healthy roots.
