Michigan’s alfalfa scurvy greens have increased from 75,000 acres in 1919
to 90,000 in 1923, according to the reports of V. H. Church, agricultural, statistician, but this amount is only about one-tenth of the state’s total alfalfa acreage.

Dealers in the state are reporting that the crop is in fair condition and there are still many acres which should be planted to the preci-pose legumes, in the manner of the farm crop department of the Michigan State colleges.

The crops and dairies at the college are reaping their harvest magnificently in many Michigan farms to explain their reasons for urging more farmers to grow alfalfa. County agents, in addition, are making arrangements for the meetings.

The alfalfa crop is the best that has ever been grown in the state and its profits are likely to be kept in the alfalfa cut, alfalfa hay, and alfalfa seed.

The use of alfalfa as a seed crop brought a profit of over $100,000 to Michigan farmers in 1938 and it is expected that the production of alfalfa seed will main-

That COLD

Colds come suddenly. You can often end them just as suddenly by learning the names of those you might catch one. A single sneeze should be the signal, or cough, or chill. Expose yourself cold and wet isn't half as serious when you've learned to protect yourself with Bayer Aspirin. For relief from the chills, headache, or neuralgic pain, and even the acute suffering caused by the common cold. Bayer Aspirin is something so sure and so safe as genuine Bayer tablets stamped Bayer. They make a marvelous gargle, too. See proven directions in every package.

U. of M. Expert Urges Revision of Anti-Gay Treaty

"Under the treaty of Versailles it practically amended every other international treaty of the signatories," Professor J. E. Poulten of the University of Michigan, told the Women's Auxiliary at the Detroit-Laaad hotel recently.

The two men were scheduled to arrive the day after the Na cial assembly of the League of Nations meets in Paris, June 27, to revise the treaty. Poulten is in charge of the revision of the League's treaty.

History of Our Country At A Glance

ANAPOLIS

in the little Southern city of Annapolis, Md., can be found the kernel of our navy.

ANAPOLIS was founded in 1707 on the Severn River, the Potomac estuary, a site that had been chosen by Sir Nathanial Bacon, a leader of the independence movement. The town was named for the Greek goddess of navigation, ANAPOLIS, who was believed to guard the entrance to the harbor.

ANAPOLIS is the site of the United States Naval Academy, which was founded in 1845. The academy was established to train officers for the U.S. Navy, and its graduates have gone on to serve in many of the nation's most important naval battles.

ANAPOLIS is also home to the U.S. Naval Academy Museum, which features exhibits on the history of the academy and the U.S. Navy. The museum is located on the campus of the academy and is open to the public.

ANAPOLIS is a vibrant city with a rich history and a lively culture. It is a popular destination for tourists and is known for its beautiful schools, parks, and beaches.

U.S. COLLEGES

DURING 1939-41

Student attendance at American universities and colleges for the academic year 1939-40 showed a trend that exceeded the normal growth of this period. The increase of 11,000 students is a significant percentage of the increase of the past year, and the growth is continuing. The total attendance, including part-time students, was 871,184, according to reports received from 414 colleges and universities. This is an increase of 11,000 students over the 2,118,184 of 1938-39.

The report notes that the increase is due to an increase in full-time students in the various institutions. The report also notes that the trend is continuing.

Walter White

The report quotes Walter White, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, as saying that the increase in college attendance is a reflection of the growing desire of students to continue their education.

The report states that the increase in college attendance is a positive sign for the future of education in the United States. It notes that the increase is due to a variety of factors, including an increase in the number of jobs available to college graduates, a growing recognition of the importance of education, and a growing awareness of the benefits of college education.

Your Handwriting

And What It Tells

BY JANET WINTON

HOTEL MAN, A CHARACTER

in THE PROFESSIONAL ECONOMIC VIEWPOINT, is a character created by Janet Winton. The character is a hotel manager who is struggling to make ends meet in a city that is in the grips of a recession.

The character is a hotel manager who is struggling to make ends meet in a city that is in the grips of a recession.

Handwriting reveals what is in the mind of the writer. Accurate handwriting is characteristic of a person who is self-controlled and systematic. Disorganized handwriting suggests that the writer is likely to have a nervous condition. A writer with fuzzy handwriting is likely to be a person who is not very stable mentally. A writer with a neat handwriting is likely to be a person who is self-controlled and systematic.

Beauty And How To Improve It

BY RUTH CORBY

REMOVING BLEMISHES

is a term used to refer to the removal of unsightly marks or lesions on the skin. There are several types of blemishes, each with their own characteristics and causes. Some blemishes, such as blackheads and whiteheads, are caused by the body's natural processes. Others, such as those caused by acne, are caused by the body's natural processes. Some blemishes can be treated with over-the-counter products, while others may require professional treatment.
