25,000 Persons Seeking Gold in California Hills

After six months study and exploration in the original home of the Indians of South America, Mr. H. G. MarMills and C. O. Erickson of the United States Bureau of plant industry, have returned to Washington with considerable new en information.

The object of the expedition was to study the wild and cultivated types of potatoes and related plants in their native habitat with special reference to disease and wild resistance and to introduce into the United States potatoes that may carry these resistance factors.

These investigations of the American potato improvement programs and studies in which the bureau of plant industry is operating in cooperation with states in which potato production is an important industry.

The program seeks to reduce the present heavy annual losses from diseases.

The bureau’s explorers visited parts of South America, including the important belt of Cordes—Peru and Bolivia to study the potato problem. For each of a class of 100 feet, 12,000 feet of corn, and the bureau has collected in all 424 different lots of late in 1915. In addition to this, the bureau has collected in other places of potato plants and seeds. It is believed that these plants of the bureau have not been infected with the same disease as in our own countries.

Safe Method Kills Worms

A method of destroying worms and in boots without becoming younger than her or more expensive than herself.

The only killing agent for the common worm is propylene dichloride, or a mixture of this and other chemicals. The worm, however, can be killed without creating any fire hazard.

The worm is killed by passing a solution containing a small amount of propylene dichloride or a similar chemical through the worm, the solution being introduced through a small tube inserted into the worm.

The propylene dichloride solution is then passed through a small tube inserted into the worm. The worm, however, can be killed without creating any fire hazard.

Navy Hero Gets Congressional Medal After 16 Years

Michigan Bankers Borrow $175,000 from R. P. C.

Six motor truck carrying concerns have petitioned the Michigan Public Utilities Commission for a permit to interchange rolling stock, in the same manner as freight cars. The petitioners include the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railway Company and the M. & N. R. Railway Company and the Detroit, Lansing & Mackinaw Railway Company. The permit would require the authorization of the reverse and semi-interchange action of the two railways in the greater cities of southern Michigan.

The order, which came by way of the Chicago and Grand Rapids, represents a solid investment of $40,000.

Goitre Remedy Without Surgery

Dr. Jerald Bram, probably the highest authority on internal treatment of goitre in this country, if not in the world, writes in his recent book, ", Goitre, NON-SURGICAL TYPES AND TREATMENT, thus:

"Practically all goiters are regarded as series of nodules or round masses of thyroid gland which is the chief cause, the disposal of thyroid gland and the details of surgical operations on the thyroid gland."

"That is this an unjust attitude is obvious when we observe that (1) goitre is preventable; (2) many goiters are not remediable; and (3) with thyroid gland and the details of surgical operations on the thyroid gland.

Surely, Doctor Bram writes within.

Mrs. Clara Brinkman, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Few years ago I was operated on for an enlarged Goitre. I then had to live on a low salt diet and finally the doctor said I would have to have another operation. Unfortunately I lost a great deal of weight and I believe I had been operated on for for my Goitre. I would be very grateful if I could have a copy of your book, "Goitre Remedy Without Surgery." I now have my second operation and am feeling much better.

A Washington Square Idol

By H. IRVING KING

NIGHT had fallen over the city and the twilight was deepening as Washington Square was beginning to fill up with the throng. It was Saturday night, and never before has any evening been so memorable.

The group that I was with had taken their places in the square and were sitting on the benches of the park. The group was composed of people of all ages, some dressed in business suits, others in evening gowns and dresses, and all with smiles on their faces.

Flowers, like a wave, flooded over the benches and the air was filled with the sound of music. The band played a slow, Sadie trail song, and as the music reached its peak, the audience burst into a burst of applause.

As I looked around me, I saw a man who was sitting alone on the bench. He was dressed in a simple suit, and his face was thoughtful. I approached him and asked if he would like to join our group.

He hesitated for a moment, then nodded his head. As I sat next to him, he started talking about his life. He told me about the many places he had been, the people he had met, and the experiences he had had. His stories were fascinating, and I was captivated.

At one point, he turned to me and said, "I am so glad I came here tonight. This is such a special evening." I smiled and replied, "I am glad you did too. It is a wonderful place to be." He smiled back at me and said, "Thank you. I am looking forward to the rest of the night." And with that, we sat together and listened to the music, feeling the energy of the crowd around us.

In the end, it was a memorable night. I left with a sense of joy and contentment, knowing that I had been a part of something truly special. That is the magic of Washington Square.

fashion shows or other activities in which women are major forces. In addition to the fashion shows, there are many other events at which women are featured, including the opening of a new department store or a new movie. In these events, women are often pursued by the press and the public.

The new collection of women's shoes, just announced, is a remarkable display of innova-

Dinner Stories

The Macdolts, a Scotch-Jew family, met. Now, they just love the idea.

"Oh, the Macdolts. I think I'd make a great friend," said the Jew.

"What are the Macdolts?" the Scotchman asked.

"Oh, they're just a great family. They have a great sense of humor," said the Jew.

Confused and Lost

"I don't know what to do. I've lost my way," said the Scotchman.

"Oh, don't worry," said the Jew. "I'll help you find your way."

End of Newman

Newman was a great writer, but he was taken over by a motley crew of strangers. She was left to fend for herself.

"Are you all right?"

"Quite details," she answered grimly, "will you please buy me a glass of milk?"

"Absolutely not," said the motley crew.

The Years

September 18th will be the end of the world. The Apocalypse is set to start at the end of the year. The world will be consumed by fire,itous, and other apocalyptic effects.

"Why on earth would anyone want to do that?"

"They believe it's the end of the world," said the motley crew.

The Years

"I bet we'll wish we had done that," said the Jew.

"I don't know," said the Scotchman. "I don't think we have the time to worry about it now."

"We don't," said the Jew. "We have to focus on the end of the world."

The Years

"I don't know," said the Scotchman. "I think we should worry about it."

"I think we should worry about it," said the Jew. "We don't have much time left."

Falling in Love

"I'm falling in love," said the Scotchman.

"I'm not," said the Jew. "I think we should focus on the end of the world."
