ALGER GETS A PRIZE.

MICHIGAN MAN IN KINSELBY'S CABINET.

In official and accepted the appointment of War Secretary—Has an Honorable Record and Has Been Governor of His State.

O. C. H. A. Alger.

Gen. Oliver C. H. Alger, Michigan Democrat, is to be the next Secretary of War under President McKinley, a distinguished private soldier and a statesman. Gen. Alger was born in 1835. He was graduated from Michigan Central College in 1852 and studied law in the office of Horace Greeley in New York City. He was admitted to the bar in 1855 and practiced law in Bloomfield, Michigan, until 1861. Gen. Alger served in the Union Army during the Civil War, and was brevetted a brigadier general in 1865. In 1869 he was elected governor of Michigan, and served two terms. After leaving office he was appointed United States senator from Michigan, but declined to accept. Gen. Alger was a member of the convention which nominated Gen. Grant for the presidency in 1880. He was elected to the United States Senate in 1880 and served until 1887. He was a member of the peace conference in 1898 and 1901. Gen. Alger is a member of the Republican party.

MICHIGAN LEGISLATURE.

The report by the Joint Committee on Public Expenditures and Appropriations, known as the "Gibbons Report," which has been printed by the Senate, is stated to have been drafted by Gen. Alger. The report is 117 pages long and is a comprehensive statement of the financial condition of the state. It is said to be a thorough and impartial examination of the finances of the state, and is expected to be of great value in the future.
