A New Eight-volume Encyclopedia

At About Your Own Price.

Every man who has had occasion to consult the standard works on a subject is familiar with the difficulty of procuring a complete set of them. Many of these works are voluminous and expensive, and it is often difficult to find all the volumes desired. There are, however, a number of new encyclopedias on the market that are both interesting and valuable, and which can be obtained at a moderate price. One of these is the New Standard Encyclopedia, a work which contains over 6,000 pages, and which is divided into 8 volumes. It is published by the Macmillan Company, and is available at about $10 per volume.

The New Standard Encyclopedia is a work that will be of great value to both students and scholars. It is a comprehensive work, containing a wealth of information on all the subjects that are of importance in modern life. It is written in a clear and concise style, and is well illustrated with diagrams and maps. It is a work that will be of great assistance to anyone who wishes to gain a thorough understanding of the world around him.

The New Standard Encyclopedia is available at a moderate price of $10 per volume. It is a work that will be of great value to anyone who wishes to gain a comprehensive understanding of the world around him.

COMING EVENTS.

Volunteers are needed for the coming campaign. Cards are on duty at the corner of State and Main Streets, and applicants are requested to call. Mr. G. L. Harrill, the new officer, will take charge of the enlistments. Any interested citizen should call as soon as possible.

G. L. Harrill.

The last carload of the 800,000 pounds of hay purchased at $1 per hundredweight has been delivered. The hay is of good quality and will be of great benefit to the farmers of the district.
