LOVE AWAKENED.

Some four months since my eye first encountered her, but now I love her as I love the morning sun, and I fancied that she loved me, for she smiled upon me when I spoke to her. But the time came when I saw her face, and I knew that I was mistaken.

Small wonder John came courting, and threw himself at my feet, and never rose again.

John, my sweet, I have loved you since the first day I saw you, but I cannot love you now. I have found another to whom I am pledged, and I must try to be true to her. I hope you will find another to love, for I know that you are a loyal and faithful man.

John said nothing, but he bowed his head and stood motionless for a moment, then he turned and went out of the room.

"I love you, John," I said, but he only nodded his head.

"I love you, John," I repeated, but he only shook his head.

"I love you, John," I said again, but he only turned his back on me.

John, my love, I must tell you that I no longer love you.

John, I love you still, but I cannot love you any more. I am pledged to another, and I must try to be true to her. I hope you will find another to love, for I know that you are a loyal and faithful man.

John said nothing, but he bowed his head and stood motionless for a moment, then he turned and went out of the room.

"I love you, John," I said, but he only nodded his head.

"I love you, John," I repeated, but he only shook his head.

"I love you, John," I said again, but he only turned his back on me.

And so John went out of my life, and I was left alone with my thoughts.

The old art and sciences of medicine have been disengaged and combined and we now have the science of cancer which has already made its way into the medical practice of the world.

The treatment of cancer is now considered a type of chemotherapy and radiotherapy.
