OWEN'S HILLS.

Talk about phenomena, look at Owen's Hills on Christmas Tuesday! And there will be a young lad in a little hat seen in the crowd. Last Christmas night French caught a glimpse of that little lad. His disappointment was great, as he got away from Payso! Last year they tells how one lad was taken by the Devil! This year it's Christmas Eve and no one will denounce him to the Devil. He will be as usual.

Dietz, David, and his two daughters were last seen on Christmas Day. The only information obtained is that they have returned home. The family started out on the right track, but some day they will have no friends, but will have no one to understand them. A family of five started out on the right track, but some day they will have no friends, but will have no one to understand them.

FAMOUS GRAFT SUSPECT
Tells Senate McKellop Was After $50,000

When the Senate resumed this afternoon the St. Louis Post-Dispatch learned that a young man, known as "the Skipper," has been arrested in connection with the death of a prominent businessman in Chicago. The man, who has been identified as John A. McKellop, was last seen aboard the Lake Shore Limited train which left Chicago at 5 a.m. today. The train was stopped at a point about 20 miles from the city, and when the police arrived, they found the man dead in the railroad car. The body was later removed to a morgue at the police station. The cause of death is not known, but it is believed that the man was murdered. Police have made several arrests in connection with the case, but the identity of the murderer is not yet known.
