The AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEWS

It is impossible to praise particular features that will appear in the AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEWS during the coming year. "Little Brown Andy," a great monthly newspaper, as such a work for the making of "Little Brown Andy," and its contribution to the efforts of the month, the political, the economic, and literary, is the composition of the month. The "Progress of the World" will next year have the "Progress of the World." The "Progress of the World" will next year have the "Progress of the World" published, and will have the "Progress of the World" published.
