THIRD PARTY MEETS

PROCEEDINGS OF THE POPULIST NATIONAL CONVENTION.

President Burtin in U.S. House, Harding in Senate. Well-coming addresses delivered by Republican and Democratic candidates in battle of the Black.

Opening Session.

You may have seen the Populists meet a few times this week, but the national convention has held last night. There were some scenes of disorder at the meeting, but President Burtin brought the party to order by calling the roll. The convention was then in session for the purpose of revising the platform of the party.

President Burtin stated that the convention would have to deliberate on the platform until 11 o'clock. The platform committee was appointed by the convention, and would act as the convention until its meeting is adjourned.

The platform committee was appointed as follows: Messrs. Burtin, Burtin, and Burtin.

The convention also adjourned until Monday morning.

The Platform Committee.

After President Burtin declared the convention adjourned, the platform committee was appointed by the convention, and the committee was ordered to report the platform to the convention on Monday morning.

The Platform Committee is composed of Messrs. Burtin, Burtin, and Burtin.

The Platform Committee is charged with the duty of revising the platform of the party, and it is expected that the committee will report the platform to the convention on Monday morning.

The convention adjourned until Monday morning, and the platform committee was ordered to report the platform to the convention on Monday morning.

TALMAGE'S SERMON.

PREACHING ON POLICY DUE TO ANCESTRY.

But, no matter what your birthright may be, a man can rise to a position in the world by hard work and ability, no matter what the family he was born in.

This was a sermon by Rev. Dr. Talmage of San Francisco, California, and was read in a church in the west. He said that in the world of today, the family was the most important thing.

The sermon was held in the Church of the Epiphany, which is located on the corner of 4th and Mission Streets. It was attended by a large number of people, including many members of the clergy and other religious leaders.

The sermon was well received, and many people left the church feeling inspired and uplifted. It was a powerful sermon that emphasized the importance of the family and the need to cherish it.

MICHIGAN MATTERS.

NEWSPAPER STRIKE OVER.

Dearborn, Michigan, June 11.

The strike of the Dearborn Press and the Dearborn Times, which began on Monday, has ended.

The Strike was caused by a dispute over wages and working conditions. The workers went on strike, demanding better wages and working conditions.

The management of the newspaper company refused to meet the workers' demands, and the strike lasted for several days.

The workers and the management eventually reached an agreement, and the strike was called off.

The workers are now back at work, and the newspaper company is operating normally.

Short Notes.

John Smith is a successful businessman in the city of Detroit. He is a member of the city council, and is widely respected for his work.

Recently, Smith was visiting his old friend, Henry Johnson, who lives in Chicago. Johnson is a successful lawyer, and has been a close friend of Smith's for many years.

While in Chicago, Smith met with several other old friends, including a former classmate, John Brown. Brown is a successful businessman in Chicago, and has been a close friend of Smith's for many years.

Smith and Brown met for lunch, and spent several hours catching up on old times. They discussed their recent adventures, and reminisced about their days in college.

Smith and Brown both enjoy spending time together, and plan to meet again soon.
