MATTRESSES OF INTEREST TO PUPIL AND TEACHERS

The Helmet.

Sept. 2, 1918.

My dear Betsy,

I thought you might like to know that I am now the possessor of a helmet. It is a most satisfactory one, and I was delighted to see you in one at the Service. I was told that they were rare, and I was even more surprised to find that you were able to purchase one.

Best regards,

Your friend,

[Signature]

The Diving Suit.

Sept. 2, 1918.

Dear Betsy,

I am writing to you from the Navy Yard, where I have been called upon to report for duty. I am to begin my training as a diver, and I am very excited about it. I am sure that I will be able to do a good job in the service, and I am looking forward to the experience.

I will send you more details about my training later.

Your friend,

[Signature]

The Lynx.

Sept. 2, 1918.

Dear Betsy,

I have been able to purchase a new lynx, and I am very pleased with it. It is a beautiful animal, and I am sure that it will bring a lot of joy to our home.

I will send you more details about the lynx later.

Your friend,

[Signature]

The Rose.

Sept. 2, 1918.

Dear Betsy,

I have been able to purchase a new rose, and I am very pleased with it. It is a beautiful flower, and I am sure that it will bring a lot of joy to our home.

I will send you more details about the rose later.

Your friend,

[Signature]
SWEPT BY A TORNADO
TEXAS SUFFERS FROM A TERRIFIC STORM

Texas up to Everything in its Way—The Great Inundations Cause Sufferings for Thousands—A Beautiful Little Sister of Lady Bird.—Big Rainfall in Texas.

In Texas, Wednesday afternoon there was a violent storm, four miles west of Pantego, near the border of Old World and Texas. The storm lasted for nearly an hour, and during that time there was a heavy rain which caused floods and damages. The storm was described as a tornado, and caused destruction to homes and property. The area was in need of assistance and support from the community.

CHICAGO MURDERER HANGS;

Chief of a Street Car Manned Four Years Executed.

D. W. Lanz, who was hanged in Paris, in the early part of the week, was a murderer. He had been employed as a street car conductor for four years, and during his tenure, he had committed several crimes. He was sentenced to death for one of these crimes, and was executed in Chicago. His body was returned to his home town for burial.

THE DANE IS IN LINE.

Peninsular Kingdom Allied.

In the recent events, the Danish government has allied itself with the Peninsular Kingdom. This move is seen as a strategic move to strengthen their military capabilities and combat any potential threats.

NEW SOUTHERN BATTLE.

New Battle in North Dakota.

A battle has recently taken place in North Dakota, between the Union and Confederate forces. The outcome of the battle is uncertain, and both sides are waiting for more information.

GREAT CASKETS OF GOLD.

Gold Rushes to Washington County.

Several gold rushes have occurred in Washington County, attracting many people to the area. The gold was discovered in several locations, and the miners are now in the process of extracting it.

THE NEBRASKA RUSH.

A new gold rush has recently started in Nebraska, attracting many prospectors to the area. The gold was discovered in several locations, and the miners are now in the process of extracting it.

WASHINGTON's BANK.

New Bank in Washington.

A new bank has recently been established in Washington, offering a variety of financial services to the local community. The bank is located in a central location, making it easily accessible to the public.

SUGAR BEETS.

Sugar Beets for Sale.

Sugar beets are available for sale at the local market. They are known for their sweet flavor and are a popular ingredient in many dishes.

THE LEE MILL.
STATE OF MICHIGAN

OCCURRENCES DURING THE LAST WEEK.

Death of ex-Congressman William S. McKinley Center Fire in Kalamazoo.

WILLIAM BROWN, ex Congr.

WILLIAM BROWN was a man of large and influential character, a public speaker of marked ability, and a member of the House of Representatives of the United States. He was a son of Mr. William Brown, a lawyer of the highest distinction. He was born in 1820, in Kalamazoo, Mich., and died in 1885.

John Brown was a man of great prominence, both as a politician and as a public speaker. He was a man of great ability, and his speeches were always attended with great interest. He was a member of the House of Representatives of the United States, and was known as a man of great ability in the House. He was a public speaker of marked ability, and his speeches were always attended with great interest. He was a man of great ability, and his speeches were always attended with great interest. He was a member of the House of Representatives of the United States, and was known as a man of great ability in the House.
McKINLEYITES CROWN.

Thornapple Gave Majorities Ranging from 48 to 109 for the Entire Republican Ticket.

Barry County Elects the Entire Republican Ticket.

With the Exception of Prosecuting Attorney.

This, 4th Senatorial District is in Doubt. Hughes Leads Merritt by a very Small Majority in Eaton County. Barry County Gave Merritt a Plurality of 151.

The silver leadable in Eaton county gave Hughes the election unless two or three precincts yet to be hung, carry it in favor.