Hi Ranti,

We ordered this title in print but it was no longer available in print. They sent it free via PDF and we can display it or send it via ILL if we like as you can see from the message below. The po is: o24870080.

Pete, this was your order so this is an FYI for you.

Thanks,

Kay

Dear Mr. Drury,

The email below where you told us that the print version of Science Report SC040008/SR1 was no longer in print was forwarded to me and got buried. I found it today and am replying with my apologies.

We are interested in receiving this in PDF provided the price is similar to the print price and if we will have the right to display a link to it in our Library catalog. We can limit access to folks with MSU IP access if that is required. We would also want to know if we could share the content via Inter-library loan if requested.

Again, I apologize for taking so long. I can be reached at: granskog@msu.edu and that email address can be used for delivery if we can indeed display a link for this report in our catalog.

We have changed from building addresses to street addresses since the purchase order would have been sent. If you need to send a print invoice, please note our new address below.

Sincerely,

Kay Granskog

Question: [7169675] Dear Sir/Madame, I work for the Environment Agency in England and Wales, UK, and I have recently received a purchase order (No. 24870080) for a hard copy of a research project. The project details are as follows: Science Report SC040008/SR1: Assessing optimum irrigation water use: Additional agricultural and non-agricultural sectors Unfortunatley we no longer hold printed copies of our reports. However, I have PDF versions of the report which I can send via email. Please can you let me know what address to send the reports? I look forward to hearing from you. Kind reagrds, Pete Drury
