Dear Sir,

I would like to clarify a slight error in the Journal. The Autumn Meeting of the Welsh Section is listed as being held at the “CARMARTHENSHIRE GOLF CLUB”. While heartily agreeing with this flattering description, may I point out that there are two other golf clubs in the county, Ashburnham and Glyn Hyr, and there is a certain amount of rivalry between the three of them. Therefore to avoid open warfare in the hills and the valleys our address could be amended in the next issue of The British Golf Greenkeeper.

I am not quite sure if you mentioned a periscope in one of your articles in the Journal as being a rarity on a golf course. We have had a 20-footer on our 16th tee in use since 1933.

Regarding your recent article on dog-legs you don’t have to go outside the Principality to find some excellent examples—our 1st and 17th for instance.

Hope to see you at Pyle and Kenfig this August; try and bring some fine weather with you this time although it is said that lightning never strikes in the same place twice.

Yours sincerely,

A. PRICE,
Head Greenkeeper.
