Meeting 2002
Head On

With a new year comes renewed enthusiasm. My personal resolution is to take life by the scruff of the neck and make the most of 2002.

I've decided that after 30 years of playing at it I'm going to make a special effort to become a better golfer. I've already decided to take the first lessons I'll ever have had and seek professional help to turn my Heath Robinson swing into a thing of beauty. This should allow me to give full rein to my natural talent!

I started jogging a couple of years ago but in the last few months I've become a little less frequent so I'm going to rededicate myself to pounding the pavements. Health and fitness, that's what it's all about.

I started writing a book about 10 years ago and it's currently lying dormant on the computer somewhere. I tell myself that I write so many words each month for the magazine that I don't have any left for my own personal masterpiece, but that's just looking for excuses. In two years' time, whether it turns out good or bad - a Rowling or an Archer - I want it finished.

With the magazine. I want to give you, the readers, every opportunity of ensuring that what we produce each month is what you want. There is always room for a piece inspired by one of you if you have an idea for an article please talk with me and between us we'll make sure it happens. You can either write it yourself and I tidy it up, recommend an expert you know who can then approach to write it for us or I can interview you and do it that way. Whatever way we'll get it done and you will get articles on the specific topics you want covered in the magazine.

There shouldn't be barriers to achieving what we want, so just need the will to make it happen.

Sure, the downturn in the economy has affected the magazine. Fewer adverts have meant we have had fewer pages to devote to editorial features, but, with the power of positive thinking, we can ensure that we make best use of those pages. I also believe that the positive signs are beginning to show you and do it that way. Whatever way, we'll get it done and you will get articles on the specific topics you want covered in the magazine.

There shouldn't be barriers to achieving what we want, so just need the will to make it happen.

I started writing a book about 10 years ago and it's currently lying dormant on the computer somewhere. I tell myself that I write so many words each month for the magazine that I don't have any left for my own personal masterpiece, but that's just looking for excuses. In two years' time, whether it turns out good or bad - a Rowling or an Archer - I want it finished.

With the magazine. I want to give you, the readers, every opportunity of ensuring that what we produce each month is what you want. There is always room for a piece inspired by one of you if you have an idea for an article please talk with me and between us we'll make sure it happens. You can either write it yourself and I tidy it up, recommend an expert you know who can then approach to write it for us or I can interview you and do it that way. Whatever way we'll get it done and you will get articles on the specific topics you want covered in the magazine.

There shouldn't be barriers to achieving what we want, so just need the will to make it happen.