Mid Anglia

Hi all, I hope you've had a Happy Christmas and maybe a few well-earned days off over the festive period.

More info regarding the training mentioned last month, the First Aid at Work course is now available to book. Thanks and good luck to the 12 attending also there is one space available on the Process Small Trenches course for members (thanks to Redlibbits), berkhamaid@talktalk.net

Secondly, results from the Christmas Treasure Hunt will be in the next issue also I have details of venues, competition formats, and more importantly, revised entrance fees for 2012 golf tournaments. Watch this space!

Finally, I wish you all a Happy and Prosperous new year.

Happy New Year!

Over the last few months it has been my privilege to work at Royal Mid Surrey Golf Club. I have an experienced staff, love golf and I would like to offer sincere thanks to Gavin Kimmins, the club’s secretary, and his team for the wonderful welcome they have given me.

our volatile economy and the ever changing pressures of government legislation.

When I took up this role in May, January 2012 seemed a long way away but it has arrived in a rush bringing with it not just our Anniversary Celebrations but of course HTME in Horsham. At the time of writing sales of exhibition space are strong with continued interest in the last few stands available.

Visitor registration numbers are also excellent and I have been receiving very positive feedback from exhibitors who feel that the vibe for this year’s Exhibition are good.

We have worked very hard over the last few months to promote attendance at the event because we genuinely believe, and have the evidence of many members to support, that the BIGGA stand in Hall B will give you feedback on how we can better serve your needs in the future. We know you are of the opinion that the BIGGA stand in Hall B is the place to be to find out about the latest in golfing skills, Lee, will once again, with receive honorary membership of Malden GC when Alec Brad-
