How has the dealership changed over the years?
In the past agriculture was the majority of our business, but now groundwork and constructions also contribute heavily to our overall business. We have invested heavily in these areas to ensure we give a first-class service to our customers.

What would you like to see changed?
We would still like to see one major annual groundwork show so that all the manufacturers can attend every year.

Do you support customers who have in-house service facilities (i.e., OEM parts supply)?
Yes, we offer parts impressively.

Major Customers:
I don’t really want to answer this as all of our customers are important.
