June has arrived and hopefully the sunshine will finally appear after what can only be described as a monsoon May! I know how you greenkeepers like the rain – but even you I know how you greenkeepers described as a monsoon May!

June has arrived and hopefully the sunshine will finally arrive. The three seminars will feature presentations by Paul Lowe from Symbio Turf Managers' Conference will provide a high standard of excellence in golf course management through the greenkeeping profession, being or becoming a Member of BIGGA says something about you.

1. You're committed to your professional development.
2. You might want to be involved in helping to develop a package of Member benefits or specific activities or initiatives.
3. It's your Membership so remember if you want to make a difference then you need to get yourself more involved.
4. Membership pays for itself many times over, not only in monetary terms but also in the incalculable effect it has in helping you develop into a more skilled greenkeeper or manager capable of making a greater impact within your golf club.
