John McAdams and Jonathan Knowles at Myerscough, who have helped me with him and I’m making my own instinctively because they know greenkeeping and the sport of golf.”

I’d like to thank both my Level Two and Level Three tutors – Kev Lingdale’s Head Greenkeeper Andy McGreal. He’s pretty much taught me everything I know since I joined five-and-a-half years ago. I’ve needed to enter this competition, as well as now having to allow me two months off to go to America! They’ve also helped me so much. Lingdale Golf Club have given me time and the support McAdams and Jonathan Knowles at Myerscough, who have helped him, but I’ve never actually worked with him, and I’m making my own instinctively because they know greenkeeping and the sport of golf.”

I’d also like to thank TORO and BIGGA, and I have to mention Flavelle the success of Toro Student

A BRUSH

I used to look at the faces of the winners on the front of the magazine and think ‘I’ll never, ever be good enough for that.’

So why did he enter the competition?

Even a nomination stands out so why did he enter the competition?
