Calling all Full and Affiliate Members of BIGGA, are you ready for the challenge of this year’s BIGGA National Championship, sponsored by Cayman House and Kubota.

Last month’s issue of Greenkeeper International gave a great overview of this year’s venue for the BIGGA National Championship, The Irvine Golf Club at Bogside in Scotland. A true links challenge, the course sits on land with fairways divided roughly by thick gone bushes and heather. Built in 1887 some of the present character of the course comes from James Braid’s designs in the 1920s and will provide even the best golfers with an opportunity to shine or despair.

The dates for this year’s championship are Sunday 8th and Monday 9th October 2012 and as the course is in a side location, the neighbouring Gulf Stream ensures your round will not be a matter of the wind.

Why not pitch yourself against some of the best golfing greenkeepers in the UK at The Irvine Club and be in with a chance of getting your name on the coveted Challenge Trophy, along with last year’s winner Jason Hunt (Addington Palace GC) and 2010’s winner Paul Frith (Birstall GC).

Entry fee is £45 and this includes all golf fees, lunch both days and dinner on Monday evening (accommodation is not included). The dates for the BIGGA National Championship are Sunday 20 January and Monday 21 January 2013 at Harrogate International Centre. Entry is £45 and you must attend both days.

The main tournament for the Challenge Trophy will be played over 36 holes, medal play, with the best overall gross score producing the BIGGA National Champion, who must be a greenkeeper member, the greenkeeper player with the lowest nett score will be presented with the BIGGA Challenge Trophy.

For full details see August’s issue of GI. Full details of the programme will be dropping in this year’s GI. Full details of the programme will be dropping in this year’s GI.
