

Superintendent's Top Ten Causes of Stress

BY TOM HILFERTY, SUNCOAST GCSA

- (10) Owner wants you to hire nephew, who is going to school to become a superintendent.
- (9) Spray tech thinks calibration works best by trial and error.
- (8) Mechanic believes three different cutting heights is the best way to get that striped look.
- (7) Greens chairman enters you in big weed growing contest.
- (6) Weekend crew turns out to be you!
- (5) Your only friends are salespeople.
- (4) "Top Man" mows 45 acres of rough with mower in backlap.
- (3) High kryptonite levels in soil samples have you feeling run down.
(Sorry! That's Superman Stresses!)
- (2) Most of your membership are big Paul Harvey fans.
- (1) Last entry in missing spray tech's log is "Round-up greens. ha-ha-ha."
