Jacobs Management company is sold

John Jacobs’ Golf Management, with offices in Buffalo Grove, Ill., and Scottsdale, Ariz., has been purchased by Rambam, a New York-based company. In announcing the purchase, company President John Jacobs said, “Our company has not only been a leading force in the golf course industry, but a leader in the development of high-quality, high-performance golf courses.”

Beljan gains respect in the industry...

Beljan became a summer and weekend laborer on the golf course under her golf pro-superintendent father. She later learned how a golf course could be maintained on a limited budget — with hard work, long hours and total dedication. Dawn till dark, seven days a week, was common during the playing/growing season. Most assistant superintendents do not have the opportunity to plan the entire season from start to finish. Beljan was able to do just that.

Family Golf... too, is at ease

The National Golf Foundation has designated its week of July 3-9 as national Family Golf Week as part of its fourth annual summer-long campaign to encourage golfers to share the experience with family members and friends.
