times have less impact on our society than the stories behind the less-weighty headlines. Along this vein, any coverage of the Black Pages was buried in the back of your daily newspaper a month or so ago.
If the May issue’s revelation on Petty Parity isn’t enough to cause a hot breeze of premonition, the Black Pages may lurk around the corner in your future.
First remember, it was not long ago that the Shoal Creek mud was slung. The private country club in Birmingham, Ala., had no African-American members. African-Americans, whites — the whole world, for that matter — damned the club from here to Sunday for its discrimination.
Today, those same African-Americans are stepping into the old shoes of Those Dreaded Discriminators. The Black Pages is their answer to the Yellow Pages of your friendly telephone company. While the Yellow Pages list all businesses, the Black Pages list only those owned by African-Americans.
Is this discrimination against white, yellow and red people? What if you are a (ugh-h) "mixed breed"?
Would Dr. Martin Luther King have joined Shoal Creek? I don’t know. But I feel he would be very upset by the Black Pages. He wanted all people to tear down more walls of division.
And if we don’t need it in golf, we certainly don’t need it in society in general. Indeed, the American Declaration of Inde-
